Hoyas, Redmen flip-flop ranks in AP college poll

Associated Press

Georgetown and St. John's, who split their regular-season games, split the spoils this week.

The defending NCAA champion Georgetown Hoyas were the unanimous choice for the No. 1 spot in The Associated Press college basketball poll, after trouncing St. John's, 85-69, and Syracuse, 90-63, last week.

But St. John's, which fell to No. 2 in the nation after spending five weeks atop the poll, clinched the Big East Conference title with Georgetown finishing second.

The Hoyas, 27-2 overall and 14-2 in the Big East, held the No. 1 spot from the preseason poll until their one-point loss to St. John's on Jan. 26. This week, after crushing the Redmen, Georgetown regained the top spot by receiving all 60 first-place votes and 1,200 points from the nationwide panel of sportswriters and broadcasters.

St. John's, 25-2 overall and 15-1 in conference play, had 1,127 points.

Big Ten champion Michigan, 23-3, held on to third place with 1,087 points, while Oklahoma, the Big Eight regular season champion, jumped two places from last week's poll, moving from sixth to fourth with 989 points.

Memphis State, the Metro Conference regular-season champion, fell from fourth to fifth with 937, while North Carolina, one of three teams to tie for the Atlantic Coast Conference regular-season title, jumped from eighth to sixth with 756 points.

Duke, which finished fourth in the ACC after a 78-68 loss to the Tar Heels, grabbed the seventh spot, 11 points behind North Carolina, and Louisiana Tech, the Southland Conference regular-season champion, fell one spot to eighth place with 732 points, 12 more than Georgia Tech, one of ACC co-champions.

The Top 10 was rounded out by Kansas, second in the Big Eight behind Oklahoma.

Nevada-Las Vegas leads the rest of the Top 20 at No. 11, followed by Virginia Commonwealth, Syracuse, Illinois, Tulsa, Loyola (Ill.), Georgia, North Carolina State, Louisiana State and Southern Methodist.

Louisiana State, 19-8, is the only new team in the Top Twenty, replacing Arizona, 20-9, which lost Pac-10 Conference games to Washington and UCLA last week.

Harrah now the happiest Texas Ranger

Associated Press

POMPANO BEACH, Fla. — Texas Rangers' General Manager Tom Grieve may have put infielder Toby Harrah on a permanent emotional high.

It's been one week since Grieve made Harrah the happiest Ranger in camp by acquiring him from the New York Yankees in exchange for disgruntled outfielder Billy Sample. Harrah's jubilation still hasn't subsided.

"I couldn't be happier," Harrah said. "I'm just happy to be back in Texas. That's my home and I like the people in the organization a lot and I think we've got a chance in the Western Division."

Harrah, 36, started his major league career with the Washington Senators and moved to Texas with the Rangers in 1971. He's wanted to return since he first reported to the Yankees last season.

"From the first day there I was looking forward to the last," Harrah said prior to Tuesday's workout. "I always felt more comfortable playing against (the Yankees) than for them."

"Playing against the Yankees for 15 years, you develop that comfort. Just being with them for one year, I never got just real comfortable playing there."

In addition to feeling like he was in an enemy camp, Harrah felt the brunt of fan abuse during an off-year in which he hit only .217 and

Jan Balwin's A&M women's tennis team will host its first tournament of the season, Mar. 8-10, at the Omar Smith Tennis Center. Teams from the University of North Carolina, the University of Chapel Hill and Northeastern Louisiana University will compete in this weekend's A&M 4-Way Tournament.

A&M Judo Club places third in Fort Worth

The Texas A&M Judo Club placed third overall in the team standings at a tournament held this past weekend at Texas Christian University.

Eight colleges and universities competed in Fort Worth. A&M finished behind first-place Texas and second-place TCU.

In the men's individual competition, A&M's Ken Kester won first place in the 209 pound weight class and third in the 209 and over. Bobby Perez captured second in the 132 pound class and Stan Delikat got third in the 156 pound category. In the women's division, A&M's Rina Malb doom took first place in the 145 pound class.

Harrah felt fans blamed him for the trade that sent Craig Nettles to the San Diego Padres.

"It wasn't too bad until they traded Nettles and once they traded him it made me look like I was the cause of it all and the fans didn't like that at all," Harrah said. "It was kind of an adverse fan reaction and I was kind of the focal point of the whole thing."

"It made things very uncomfortable to play ball there and enjoy it.

drove in only 26 runs.

The Yankees themselves, from (George) Steinbrenner to (Berra) and the coaches were people. They made it at the bearable."

Grieve, a former teammate Harrah's on the Senators and Rangers, said he made two players happy with the trade.

"Billy Sample didn't want to go for us anymore and therefore didn't want him here," Grieve said.
