

page 6

page 8

AT EASE STAFF

Co-editors

Shawn Behlen
Leigh-Ellen Clark

Staff Writers

Mary Cox
Tricia Parker
Cathy Riely

Staff Reviewers

Marcy Basile
Walter Smith

Photographer

Bill Hughes

Production

Richard Williams

COVER

7 Letter from the co-editors Shawn, is it Cyrillic? I don't know, Leigh-Ellen, it looks like hieroglyphics to me.

9 Greeks emerging as force The first Greek organization at Texas A&M came into being in 1973. Now there are 18 national fraternities and 10 national sororities on our hallowed ground. Tricia Parker gives an overview of the current Greek situation at A&M and promotes understanding.

11 Legal battles preclude recognition Texas A&M administrators explained to Cathy Riely the current situation regarding fraternity and sorority recognition. Seems the University is making plans, but it must wait for the decisions on the GSS case and the Zentgraf case before it can act.

11 Zingelmann is part of both worlds Mary Cox tells the story of Michael Zingelmann. His story bears telling because he is in the Corps of Cadets and is a member of the Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity. His role is successful in both, though it takes up a lot of time.

FEATURES

4 Student to open club Deanna Mullenix will be the manager of a new club in town, mc², while still in school.

5 All-U party for Paddy The SAE fraternity party for Paddy Murphy will include the University this year.

5 'Carnival' coming to Rudder Tarleton State University will present "Carnival" as part of a cultural exchange.

6 Cultural display begins International Week starts March 25, with students from 35 to 40 countries.

6 AggieCon XVI presents sci-fi MSC Cepheid Variable sponsors one of the area's largest conventions.

6 'Visitor' is insightful This monologue is based on real experiences compiled by Dr. Howard Shapiro.

ENTERTAINMENT

3 'Stranger Than Paradise' stranger still Marcy Basile takes a look at the latest "art" film to gain national raves.

3 Album reviews The Stranglers' Aural Sculpture and Yello's Stella are reviewed by Walter Smith.

3 Return of the Judy's If you missed them last time, well, you've got another chance.

16 At the movies Marcy, in her own special way, tells us what's where and what it's about.