Gamblers 'break' form; running game keys win

Associated Press

HOUSTON — The Portland Breakers decided the best way to keep the high-scoring Houston Gamblers from scoring was to not give them the football.

It almost worked but they forgot about the Gamblers' forgotten man, Sam Harrell.

Harrell, the team's leading rusher last year until he was sidelined by injury, scored the winning touchdown with 54 seconds to play Sunday to lift the Gamblers to a 27-20 United States Football League victory.

It was Houston's first rushing touchdown of the season.

"Everyone knows we throw the ball a lot so they concentrated on keeping the ball away from us so we couldn't score," Harrell said. "But it felt good for me to get back in the action and to contribute."

Quarterback Jim Kelly, who threw two touchdown passes, and Harrell, foiled the Breaker's keep-away strategy with a 48-yard drive to win the game on Harrell's one-yard dive.

"They controlled the line of scrimmage and moved the ball downfield," Kelly said. "But it was definitely a confidence builder for us to be able to come back like we did."

The Breakers controlled the ball for 37:59 of the game and tied it with 3:38 to play.

But the Gamblers turned heart-breakers in the final minute.

"To play our hearts out and lose like that," Portland Coach Dick Coury said. "We played a really good football game and Houston is a damn good football team."

Clarence Verdin started the game-winning drive with a 45-yard kickoff return and after Kelly kept for two yards and a first down, Harrell scored on a one-yard dive.

The score quelled a comeback by the Breakers, who rallied from a 20-6 fourth quarter deficit to tie the game at 20-20 with 3:38 to play.

The Gamblers, 5-0, started sluggishly but led 13-3 at the half on a 50-yard Kelly to Vince Courville pass and field goals of 25 and 42 yards by Toni Fritsch.

Houston pulled to a 20-6 lead early in the fourth quarter on Kelly's second TD pass, a 13-yard pass to Mark Barousse.

But Portland quarterback Matt Robinson rallied the Breakers with a 32-yard TD pass to Vince Williams and a six-yard run by Dwight Beverly. Extra points by Tim Mazzetti tied the score with 3:38 to play and set up Houston's winning drive.

The Breakers controlled the ball for 14 minutes of the third quarter and scored on Mazzetti's 25 yard field goal.

Robinson started the Breakers' rally with a two-play drive in the fourth quarter that included a 30-yard pass to Dan Ross and a 32-yard touchdown pass to Vince Williams.

Trade leaves ex-Tiger without ring

Associated Press

CLEARWATER, Fla. — The Philadelphia Phillies, deciding they needed a backup first baseman and right-hand pinch hitter, traded reliever Willie Hernandez for John Wockenfuss last spring. Hernandez clinched the American League Cy Young Award as he helped the Detroit Tigers win the World Series.

He did exactly what the Phillies expected.

The 35-year-old right-hander, who has been in the majors eight years, batted .289, .313 in the '32 games he started at first and in the 15 he started as catcher. At first in 39 games, he made just one error on 245 chances.

Wockenfuss, who was joined by outfielder Glenn Wilson in the Detroit deal, was designated a half-starter for this season. Phillies Manager John Felske said Wockenfuss will platoon at first base with Len Matuszek.

Matuszek wants it all, but not Wockenfuss.

"Whether it (the trade) was good or not, is not for me to say. I like Philadelphia. I like playing here. But if I had been with Detroit, it's possible I could have got a (championship) ring last year. — Phillies' John Wockenfuss"

the platoon situation. But I'd rather it be me doing it than somebody else, so I don't mind."

Wockenfuss said he can't help but think he might have been in the World Series if he remained in Detroit.

"Whether it (the trade) was good or not, is not for me to say. I like Philadelphia. I like playing here. But if I had been with Detroit, it's possible I could have got a (championship) ring last year. So, I can't say if the trade worked to my advantage or disadvantage, whether it was good or bad."

"It's just unfortunate that I was traded last year from Detroit."

Wockenfuss said he has always considered fielding a strong point.

"I'm just an old type of ball player. I just try and get in front of the ball, stop it and make the play. Nothing fancy. I just try and do the job."

Wockenfuss insisted he has no personal goals in any season.

"I just want a winning season," he said.
