Court

(continued from page 1)

Committee hears proposal for state-run lottery game

|  | me period that |  |
| :---: | :---: | :---: |
| AUSUN - Within five vears, a | nized crime has moved into areas of | "No one has to |
| me $$ 400$ million a year for state | the state where it had no standing | to plav." |
| vernment without any tax in- | before. ${ }^{\text {We }}$. ${ }^{\text {a }}$ | Testifying as a witness for the Anti-Crme Council of Texas, the |
| crease, the sponsor of lottery legis- | "We have not ratsed anywh | Anti-Crme Councl of Iexas, the Connecticut official said his state |
| But opponents said a lottery also | told we would raise." |  |
| ould bring an increase in crim | According to estumates by the | W |
| d higher social services costs for | state comptroller's effice, a Texas | W |
| or people who m | lottery would raise $$ 136$ million its | would have a panless tax." McGul- |
| eir last dollar | first full year of operation and $400 | gan said. |
| A lottery is a form of entertai | million annually within five years. | The staic |
| It that' | Uribe said large states such as | bility to |
| Hector Uribe, D-Brownsville. | New York and Pennsylvania raise | st |
| 't know of any tax that is | millions of dollars for state gov | stances of fixing in the Pems |
|  | ment by running lotteries. With its | hesard |
| the constitutional ban on lotteri | exas would be one of the majo |  |
| reate a state | producers | Mchuigan sand the state-run lot |
| Testifying against the legislation | The lawmaker said several my | elf but als the whole nowo |
| Austin J. |  | self, but also the whole notion |
| ecutor for th | charges that the games prey | g |
| who argued that lotteries b | the |  |
| ny ills for a state | The poor | "The state continuouslv advertises |
| cGui | , |  |
| -The |  | to play. |
| necticut is that illegal gatpbling |  |  |

pizzaworks

FREE DOUBLE DAVES T-SHIRT

w/purchase of Ig 2 topping or more pizza onle: good w coupon April 2 .7
house onl

696-DAVE
326 Jersey St.
(Next to Rother's Bookstore)
ENTI

