-In Advance-

U.S. Representative Joe Barton to hold Brazos County meeting

Area residents are invited to a town meeting with U.S. Rep. Joe Barton tonight at 7:30 at the College Station Community Center, 300 Jersey St. This is the first wn meeting in Brazos County. Barton will inform his audince of his activities in Congress, and will discuss any problems that ea residents may be having with Among Barton's topics will be his thoughts on methods for reducing the federal deficit and proposed cuts in the federal budget, including recommendations to eliminate funding for the Soil Conservation Service

Barton also will discuss legislation he is co-sponsoring to re-peal new Internal Revenue Service regulations requiring extensive record keeping on the opportunity for local residents to meet face-to-face with me, ask questions, share an idea with me or learn more about my views," Barton said in a press release. "I hope area residents will make an effort to attend.'

The meeting Wednesday will be one of 14 meetings in the 6th Congressional District this week.

A&M Liberal Arts Forum to sponsor seminar with conservative topic

By PAM COLEMAN Reporter

Webster defines conservatism "opposition to change," but what is the meaning of conservatism in a time of change?

This question will be the topic of a symposium sponsored by the Liberal Arts Forum, the College of Liberal Arts and the Office of Strategic Technology on Thursday and Friday.

Dr. Al Schaffer, a sociology professor at Texas A&M and a member of the newly formed Liberal Arts Forum, says time will be allotted for audience partici-

People who have taken clear stands on conservatism or liber-alism in articles and books were selected to participate in the symposium, Schaffer says.

Discussions will be spontaneous and will be based on audience reaction, he says.

The first segment of the forum, "Liberalism and Conserva-

By SHERRIE COUCH

Reporter

Student Government?

8:30 p.m. in 601 Rudder.

Do students really care about

The Political Science Society and Pi Sigma Alpha will hold a panel discussion about the role of student Government today at

"If students really care about

The purpose of the panel discussion is to identify problems in Student Government and to determine if Student Government is tism in Our Time," will Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in 209 Harrington.

Jerry C. Gaston, head of the department of sociology at A&M, will moderate the discussion between Allen J. Matusow of Rice University and John E. Schwarz of the University of Arizona.

Matusow is the author of "The Unrayeling of America: A His-Unraveling of America: A History of Liberalism in the 1960s."

He is also the author of several other articles dealing with the Truman administration, the civil rights movement and the career of Joe McCarthy. Schwarz is a a political scientist who wrote "America's Hidden Success: A Reassessment of Twenty Years of Public Policy."

Matusow disagrees with the current social programs while Schwarz takes the opposite stand,

The second part of the symposium will be Friday at 9 a.m. in 308 Rudder. Larry D. Hill, a historian at A&M, will moderate the discussion, "The Conservative

SG to be topic of debate tonight

Northrup said.

doing the job it has set out to do,

doing its job, we want to inform students and help them understand what it's doing," Northrup said. "If not, then we want to help

Student Government learn how

(its) problems can be solved.

"If Student Government is

Participants will be Robert A. Calvert, an A&M historian who has written articles about agriculture and radicalism in the Gilded Age, Lino A. Graglia, a law professor from the University of Texas, and Robert M. Crunden, a historian from UT.

Future Conservatism?," will be Friday at 2 p.m. in 308 Rudder.
William P. Snyder, a political scientist at A&M, will moderate the talk between three Texas pro-

David B. Hill, an A&M political scientist, Morgan O. Reynolds, an A&M economist and Norval D. Glenn, a sociology professor from UT, will try to predict the state conservation during the next few years, Schaffer says

This weekend's symposium is the first sponsored by the Liberal Arts Forum, an informal faculty group interested in promoting dialogue in the liberal arts area.

Rockport SunLights The ultimate comfort sandal SunLights get their incredible comfort from the Contoured Comfort Footbed! It's especially designed to match the natural curve of your foot, so your foot rests in the sole. And not on it. SunLights are available in a wide range of colors and styles for every fashion need. So you can keep their comfort with you day and night Get into SunLights by Rockport. And discover how comfortable your feet become when they meet their match.

JAPAN AIR LINES

Japan China

Industrial and Cultural Seminar Tours

日本企業研修旅行

CANON NIPPON STEEL NISSAN MOTOR NIPPON ELECTRIC SANYO ELECTRIC

Departure Dates

Los Angeles San Francisco Seattle

June 26 July 3, July 10, July 17, July 24

Tour Price

From LAX/SFO/SEA $1,456.00 (Japan 10 Days)

Brochure and Information

$1,976.00 (Japan/Beijing 14 days)

JAPAN TRAVEL OF HOUSTON 920 First City Tower, Houston, Texas 77002 (713) 658-1933

Maybe a change in the constitu-tion would help." Panel members will include Dr. Student Government, we hope this debate will help determine what the role of Student Govern-John Koldus, vice president for ment is," said Mike Northrup, president of Pi Sigma Alpha. Pi Sigma Alpha is the Political Sci-ence Honor Society. student services; Murray Milford,

Faculty Senate speaker; David Alders, 1984-85 student body president; Diane Baumbach, 1984-85 Student Senate speaker; Pat Wood, 1984-85 MSC council president; Ed Cassavoy, staff col-umnist for The Battalion; Wayne ernment vice president for student services; and David Ellis, president of SWAMP.

Roberts, 1984-85 Student Gov-

Proposed issues for the dis-cussion include the role of the press, the power of Student Gov-ernment, student elections, student apathy and representation by student leaders. Other issues may include election controversies, Northrup said. Another topic may include whether the names of student body election candidates should be released before the filing

Students are encouraged to participate, Northrup said. Questions and suggestions from the audience are welcome.

SG to change hands today

The reins of Texas A&M Uniersity's Student Government will be turned over to the newlyelected officers of the Student Senate at the organization's meeting at 7:30 p.m. today in 204 Harrington.

"This will just be an informational meeting," said student body President-elect Sean Royall. At the top of the agenda is a welcome to the new Senate by Royall.

In addition, next year's executive vice presidents will address the senators and outline goals for the coming year. Senators also are expected to discuss the April 24 Senate elections for speaker of the house and speaker pro tem.

Procedures for nominating candidates will be presented and the election process will be dis-

No other business is scheduled.

this week talks to be

By CANDI MAXWELL Reporter

The Texas Agricultural Extension Service and the Agricultural Economics Club will sponsor a program this week aimed at, farmers and ranchers who are thinking of expanding their busi-

"Teaming Up In Agriculture" is scheduled from 1:15 p.m. to 5 p.m. Thursday and from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday in 308 Rudday

ant

on

Dr. Wayne Hayenga, an economist with the extension service and an attorney, and three other speakers will discuss partner compatibility, personal goals, organizing the business for a partner, financing the expansion, and income and inheritance taxes. Speakers include Dr. Ronald Kay, professor of farm and ranch management; Dr. John Hopkins, a Stiles professor of agricultural finance; and Dr. Thomas Knight, an economist with the extension Hayenga said about 30 people participated in the seminar last year. He said he likes a small group because he gets to know the participant's objectives.

"We help people identify goals," Hayenga said. "People come in with a question or two in mind, and if they get that answered they're comfortable." swered, they're comfortable.'

The seminar is scheduled just before Parents' Weekend, so it is easier for the parents to participate, Hayenga said.

Perry Cortese, president of the Ag Eco Club, said, "It's not a lecture seminar, it's a learning semi-

ATTENTION ALL RECOGNIZED STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS:

APPLICATIONS FOR MEETING ROOMS IN THE UNIVERSITY CENTER COMPLEX FOR RECOGNIZED STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS, CLUBS, AND GOVERNING BODIES WILL BE ACCEPTED FOR THE 1985 FALL SEMESTER (SEPTEMBER 2 through DECEMBER 20, 1985) IN THE SCHEDULING OFFICE, 2nd FLOOR RUDDER TOWER BEGINNING AT 8:00 AM TUESDAY, APRIL 15, 1985. APPLICATION FORMS MAY BE OBTAINED IN THE SCHEDULING OFFICE, 2nd FLOOR, RUDDER CENTER.

David Lean's film of Boris Pasternak's

DOCTOR ZHIVAGO

Wednesday, April 10, 7:30 p.m. Rudder Theatre $1.50

************