Orioles 7, Rangers 1

BALTIMORE — Fred Lynn stroked two singles and drove in two runs during a six-run Baltimore fourth inning to pace the Orioles to a 7-1 victory over the Texas Rangers on Wednesday.

Mike Boddicker earned the victory, pitching six innings and allowing six hits and one run. Sammy Stewart didn't allow a hit over the final three innings in earning the save.

The Orioles took the lead with an unearned run in the second and reached Texas starter Mike Mason for six runs, three unearned, in the fourth.

The Orioles loaded the bases in the fourth on Lynn's single, Mike Young's double and Fritz Connelly's fielder's choice grounder. Rick Dempsey then singled home two runs.

Len Sakata walked to load the bases again and Connelly scored when Dan Ford grounded into a double play. Mason left after walking Cal Ripken and hitting Eddie Murray with a pitch.

Dickie Noles came in to pitch and got Gary Roenicke to ground to third but Buddy Bell committed his second error of the game to load the bases for the third time in the inning. Lynn then drove in two more runs with a sharp single to right.

Boddicker surrendered his only run when Larry Parrish hit a home run leading off the sixth.

Tigers 8, Indians 1

DETROIT — Detroit's Lou Whitaker drove in four runs with a pair of home runs and Kirk Gibson belted a three-run shot Wednesday to back the combined four-hit pitching of Dan Petry and Aurelio Lopez as the Tigers beat the Cleveland Indians 8-1.

Whitaker's first homer was a three-run shot with one out in the third inning. Larry Herndon and Chet Lemon started the inning with singles and came around when Whitaker hit one just over the left field screen off Cleveland starter Vern Ruhle.

Whitaker's second homer was a two-out solo shot in the fifth inning that gave Detroit a 4-1 lead.

Petry, 18-8 last year, scattered four hits over six innings, walking one and striking out two. Lopez pitched three perfect innings to record the save.

Red Sox 14, Yankees 5

BOSTON — Rich Gedman had four hits and the Boston Red Sox scored seven runs after a pair of New York errors in the second inning Wednesday in rolling to a 14-5 victory over the Yankees.

Gedman singled and doubled in the decisive second inning, which Bill Buckner capped with a two-run homer.

Wade Boggs and Tony Armas drove in three runs apiece as the Red Sox, who beat the Yankees 9-2 in the season opener Monday, made it two in a row.

Staked to a big cushion, Boston southpaw Bruce Hurst breezed to the triumph, scattering 10 hits and walking only one in seven innings before giving way to reliever Mark Clear. Bob Ojeda pitched the ninth.

Yanks' right-hander Ed Whitson was the loser. He allowed six hits, but only three of the nine runs off him in 1 2/3 innings were earned.

Dodgers 5, Astros 4

HOUSTON — Ken Landreaux and Pedro Guerrero belted solo home runs and reliever Steve Howe, making his first appearance in the major leagues since serving a suspension for the 1984 season because of cocaine use, got the final out for a save Wednesday night as the Los Angeles Dodgers beat the Houston Astros 5-4.

Howe, who last pitched in the majors in September 1983 before being suspended by then-Commissioner Bowie Kuhn, entered the game with two outs in the ninth and a runner on first. Jose Cruz lined out to center field on Howe's first pitch to end the game.

Houston had pulled within 5-4 in the ninth when Kevin Bass drew a leadoff walk from Ken Howell and later scored on a sacrifice fly by Phil Garner off Tom Niedenfuer.

Los Angeles starter Jerry Reuss, who had lined a two-run single in the sixth inning, took a five-hitter and a 5-0 lead into the eighth. But he left after giving up two more hits and Howell took over.

Howell threw a wild pitch, allowing one run to score, and Alan Ashby cracked a two-run single to make it 5-3.

Los Angeles took a 1-0 lead in the first inning against loser Joe Niekro when rookie Mariano Duncan led off with a single, took third on a single by Al Oliver and scored on Guerrero's sacrifice fly.

A single by Guerrero and walks to Mike Marshall and Sid Bream loaded the bases in the sixth, and Reuss delivered his two-run single.

Julio Solano replaced Niekro to start the seventh and Landreaux and Guerrero promptly drilled home runs.

Dickie Thon, trying to come back from a severe beaming last April that put him out of action for the remainder of the season, went 0-for-5. He had one hit in four at-bats Tuesday night.

Expos 4, Reds 1

CINCINNATI — Hubie Brooks drove in three runs and starter Bill Gullickson, battling a history of poor April performances, scattered four hits over seven innings Wednesday to give the Montreal Expos a 4-1 victory over the Cincinnati Reds.

Reds player-manager Pete Rose had a single in four at-bats, boosting his career total to 4,100 hits, 91 short of Ty Cobb's all-time mark.

Gullickson, who had lost five consecutive April decisions since 1983, also singled home a run to get the victory in his first 1985 start. The right-hander, 0-2 in four April starts last year before finishing 12-9, struck out five and didn't walk a batter before giving way to Dan Schatzeder to open the eighth.

Padres 3, Giants 0

SAN FRANCISCO — Eric Show pitched a four-hitter and struck out a career-high 11 batters Wednesday to give the San Diego Padres a 3-0 victory and a split in their two-game, season-opening series with the San Francisco Giants.

Show, a 15-game winner each of the last two seasons, did not allow a walk. He retired 13 men in a row between the first and fifth innings, and the Giants did not get a runner past second base.

San Francisco starter Dave LaPoint gave up eight hits in eight innings, and the only run he allowed was unearned.

Kevin McReynolds singled with two out to drive in first-inning run by Jerry Davis, who led off with a single. The Padres added a pair of runs in the ninth by Steve Garvey and McReynolds.
