COVER

- 7 Letter from the co-editors Oh, Leigh-Ellen! There is nothing wrong with a domestic wine. Shawn, domestic is one thing — but Texan?
- 9 Texas wines improving every year Texas wines have a surprising, and illustrious beginning. Cathy Riely tells us that these present day award winners date back to the 17th Century, and that today's European vineyards owe their existence to, yes, Texas rootstock.
- 10 Bonarrigos' love is their wine Mary Cox talked with the owners and operators of the local Messina Hof Vineyards. The Bonarrigos are as interesting as their craft. They told Mary how they got started and what their plans are for the future.

FEATURES

- 4 Wiatt is the enforcer for UPD Bob Wiatt has nicknames like "Der Fuhrer" and "Mr. FBI." Actually, as director of the University Police Department, he is only doing his job, which, he says, is more than giving out tickets.
- 5 Dr. G brings live talent to town Meet Dr. George Graham, usually referred to as "Dr. G." Graham tells how he left the ranks of the A&M faculty in order to bring live entertainment to the local club scene.
- 5 Two choral groups to sing for spring The Century Singers and The Women's Chorus will be presenting their spring concerts later this month. The groups will perform both classical and popular tunes.
- 6 Weekend is a bash, banquet, ball The Seniors have made it to the big weekend — too many tests and too many late nights later, it's time for the fun. April 26 and 27 are the dates to prepare for.
- 6 'Brighton Beach' evokes memories MSC Town Hall presented "Brighton Beach Memoirs" Monday night and Leigh-Ellen Clark was there. She loved the play and the man next to her made it all the more special.

ENTERTAINMENT

- 3 Local theaters from good to bad Marcy Basile is a girl from the big city. But she has learned to live with only four cinemas in B/CS and this week she takes a look at the good and bad points of each.
- 3 'VU' from band ahead of its time Although the Velvet Underground has long been under ground, new music from the band has surfaced. Walter Smith tells us if it should have stayed hidden or not.
- 16 At the movies Marcy, in her own special way, tells us what's where and what it's about.
