A&M MUSTER

Softly call the muster
 Let comrade answer, "Here!"
 Their spirits hover round us
 As if to bring us cheer!
 Mark them "Present" in our hearts;
 We'll meet some other day.
 There is no death, but life eterne
 For comrades such as they!

Dr. John Ashton '06

We cordially invite you to attend this year's Muster ceremony which will be held in G. Rollie White Coliseum on April 21 at 3:00 p.m.

Aggie Players perform funny, realistic play

By TRENT LEOPOLD
Staff Writer

You can't take it with you, so you might as well have a good time while you can.

That was the message of the Aggie Players' performance of the Pulitzer Prize winning comedy play "You Can't Take It With You" Thursday night in Rudder Forum.

An audience of about 100 was on hand to witness the realistic production while the Broadway play "Gigi" was being performed in nearby Rudder Auditorium.

Some of the actors and actresses in "You Can't Take It With You" could easily be acting in a Broadway play soon, judging from their performance last night.

The play is about two families, the Sycamores and the Kirbys. Alice Kirby, played by Gwendolyn Pesek falls in love with Tony Kirby, played by Larry Hermes.

Their love leads the two families to meet. The Sycamores are an easy-going family while the Kirbys aren't so laid back.

The problem arises when Tony and his family go to the Sycamore's house for dinner a night before they are invited. Among other things, the Kirbys are thrown in jail.

Grandpa, excellently played by Jeffrey T.M. Danish, saves the relationship after all of the problems arise between the two families.

The props, costumes and setting were excellent. The play is set at Grandpa's house in the spring of 1938.

The sound effects also were realistic. During one night scene crickets could be heard outside.

Six more performances of the play are scheduled. Two more are scheduled this weekend and three are scheduled next weekend. A special benefit performance for the College of Liberal Arts will be held this Wednesday night.
