Unlikely hero lifts Astros past Braves

Associated Press
National League
 Astros 2, Braves 1

HOUSTON — Enos Cabell was an unlikely character because of a bout with the flu, but the Astros' captain delivered the necessary heroics to achieve a split with the Atlanta Braves.

Cabell's two-out, pinch-double off pitcher Terry Forster, 0-1, drove home Alan Ashby from first to lift the Astros to a 2-1 victory over the Braves.

The 11-year veteran stayed in the clubhouse until Houston starter Nolan Ryan was pinch-hit for in the seventh inning.

"Because he's been sick, I didn't even think he would pinch hit," said winning pitcher Dave Smith, 3-1, who went two innings.

Craig Reynolds gave Houston an early 1-0 lead with a home run in the third.

With one out in the ninth, Ashby singled off Forster. One out later, Cabell hit a drive to the left-center gap that left fielder Brad Kommsink barely missed catching. Center fielder Dale Murphy backed up the play and relayed the ball to shortstop Rafael Ramirez, whose throw to catcher Rick Cerone was slightly up the third-base line, allowing Ashby to slide home safely.

Mets 5, Pirates 4

NEW YORK — Mookie Wilson scored the winning run in the 18th inning on a fielding error by first baseman Jason Thompson and the New York Mets defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates 5-4 in a game that lasted nearly 5 1/2 hours.

Phillies 3, Cubs 2

PHILADELPHIA — Right-hander Kevin Gross, who made his last start in September 1984, pitched six strong innings before getting relief help from Larry Andersen to help the Philadelphia Phillies edge the Chicago Cubs 3-2 Sunday.

Expos 5, Cardinals 3

MONTREAL — Steve Rogers pitched five innings and got help from two relievers Sunday as the Montreal Expos won their sixth straight game with a 5-3 triumph over the St. Louis Cardinals.

Padres 1, Dodgers 0

LOS ANGELES — Tony Gwynn homered in the ninth to break a scoreless tie as San Diego edged Los Angeles 1-0 Sunday, scoring the first earned run off Fernando Valenzuela in five starts.

It was only the second hit off the Los Angeles left-hander, who set a major league record for most consecutive innings without allowing an earned run.

Giants 2, Reds 1

SAN FRANCISCO — David Green singled in the 11th inning Sunday to give the San Francisco Giants a 2-1 victory over the Cincinnati Reds.

Angels 2, Mariners 1

SEATTLE — Veteran Tommy John pitched 5 2/3 innings as the California Angels edged Seattle 2-1 Sunday for their fourth straight victory and the Mariners' eighth straight setback.

John, 1-1, had not won since beating Seattle 8-4 last Aug. 6. The 41-year-old left-hander gave up seven hits and two walks while striking out one. He left the game when he strained an abdominal muscle.

Royals 5, Red Sox 2

BOSTON — Frank White hit two home runs in a game for the third time in his 12-year career Sunday, powering the Kansas City Royals to a 5-2 victory over the Boston Red Sox.

Twins 10, A's 1

MINNEAPOLIS — Mickey Hatcher went 4-for-5 as the Minnesota Twins defeated the Oakland A's 10-1 Sunday for their eighth consecutive victory.

Hatcher, who went 5-for-5 Saturday, scored twice and capped the Twins' five-run sixth inning with a two-run single.

Orioles 8, Indians 7

BALTIMORE — A two-run double by Eddie Murray tied the score and the winning run scored on pinch hitter John Lowenstein's sacrifice fly as the Baltimore Orioles defeated the Cleveland Indians 8-7 Sunday.

White Sox 4, Yankees 3

CHICAGO — Ozzie Guillen drew a bases-loaded walk from New York's Joe Cowley with two out in the bottom of the ninth inning Sunday to force home the winning run and give the Chicago White Sox a 4-3 victory over the New York Yankees.

Tigers 5, Brewers 0

MILWAUKEE — Walt Terrell, who entered the game with a 5.68 earned run average, hurled a four-hitter for his first American League shutout Sunday as the Detroit Tigers blanked Milwaukee 5-0.

Alan Trammell and Lance Parrish cracked eighth-inning home runs to support Terrell, 2-0, pitching his first complete game of the season.

Braves 1, Astros 2

HOUSTON — Enos Cabell was an unlikely character because of a bout with the flu, but the Astros' captain delivered the necessary heroics to achieve a split with the Atlanta Braves.

who were suffering from an early-season case of cold bats, "kind of got on each other" before coming to Texas — and the Rangers found out Sunday that the self-help philosophy was effective.

Upshaw hit two home runs and Buck Martinez and George Bell also homered, leading the Blue Jays to a 6-3 victory over the Rangers for their fourth consecutive triumph.

The weekend sweep of the Rangers was an important boost for the Blue Jays, Upshaw said.

"We needed a good series," Upshaw said, "and we had a good series with the bat. We feel we can win against anybody. We feel that we're one of the better clubs in the league. We can all hit. We push ourselves to hit."

Doyle Alexander, 3-0, went the route, scattering 10 hits. Ranger starter Mike Mason, 2-2, went 5 2/3 innings, giving up four runs on five hits.

The Rangers have dropped five in a row.
