

ANK McNAMARA®

by Jeff Millar & Bill Hinds

Oilers decide not to file suit

Associated Press
HOUSTON — The Houston Oilers decided against filing a suit to delay the National Football League draft and will pick Texas A&M's Ray Childress in the first round to help put them into their weak defensive line, team officials said Monday.
The Oilers had threatened to file a temporary restraining order against the NFL and Commissioner Pete Rozelle for his decision to allow University of Miami quarterback Bernie Kosar to become eligible for the supplemental draft.
"Although the Oilers suffered injury as a result of the ruling of the commissioner with respect to Bernie Kosar's eligibility, the greater injury was to the Minnesota Vikings and that club is unwilling to join in any litigation," Oilers owner K.S. "Bud" Adams said in a statement.
Adams said it would be unfair to other NFL teams and college football players to delay the draft.
"All of the NFL clubs have been many months preparing for the draft to go forward. Furthermore, it is felt that it would be unfair to the hundreds of young men who are waiting the outcome of the draft to delay that process because the commissioner has been fit to rule so as to provide the athlete with an advantage not enjoyed by any other," Adams' statement said.
The Vikings and Oilers traded first-round draft choices giving Minnesota the first choice in Tuesday's draft. Buffalo, with the first pick, already has signed Virginia Tech defensive end Bruce Smith.
Rozelle ruled that Kosar is ineligible for Tuesday's draft and can qualify for the league's supplemental draft, which would give the Cleveland Browns first choice at Kosar.

The Oilers contend that Kosar has no college eligibility and should be a part of Tuesday's draft.
Rozelle's decision meant that the Oilers lost Minnesota's second-round pick from their original trade agreement with the Vikings.
Pending last-minute trades, the Oilers, who have hoarded draft choices in recent years, will have five selections among the first 87 picks.
The Oilers expect Childress, a 6-6, 267 second team All-American from Richardson, to step in immediately and help the team's anemic pass rush and the defensive flavor of the draft will likely continue in later rounds.
Childress played in 10 games for the Aggies last season and recorded 124 tackles, 10 unassisted quarterback sacks and had four fumble recoveries. He was among the 12 finalists for the Lombardi Award.
As a junior, Childress led the Aggies in tackles with 117 and had 15 quarterback sacks.
"Three out of our first four picks might be defensive players, but we're a team that can use help in a lot of different ways," Oiler Coach Hugh Campbell said.
The Oilers weakest positions the past two seasons have been defensive line and linebacking.
The Oilers have ranked near the bottom of the NFL in total defense the past two seasons and have been unable to mount any kind of sustained pass rush.

Cowboys may make draft deal

Associated Press
DALLAS — The Dallas Cowboys, needing immediate help at linebacker and wide receiver, will be drafting from the 17th position in Tuesday's National Football League draft unless they make a last-minute trade.
Rumors have been flying about a last-minute deal between the Houston Oilers, the Minnesota Vikings and the Cowboys but there's been more smoke than fire.
The Cowboys haven't made a big trade on draft day since 1977 when they obtained Tony Dorsett from the Seattle Seahawks.
Dallas is expected to draft more for "need" than its long established credo of the "best athlete available."
Recent Cowboys drafts have been weak, in some instances no fault of the team.
Top picks like Rod Hill and Larry Bethea have been lemons.
Linebacker Billy Cannon of Texas A&M University, last year's No. 1 selection, was discovered to have a genetic spinal problem that will keep him from playing professional football again.
And the 1979 No. 1 pick of Robert Shaw, a tremendous center, was thought to be a gem until he suffered a career-ending knee injury.
"We've got to find us a linebacker and we need wide receivers," said Coach Tom Landry.
However, club vice president Gil Brandt has been drooling over Texas defensive back Jerry Gray.
Gray faded toward the end of the season but is expected to be gone by the time the Cowboys pick.
"He didn't have good games in his last two against Baylor and Iowa and that might have caused his stock to drop," said Brandt.

Coming to Summer School? OPTIONAL MEAL PLANS

ALL students may dine on a meal in the Commons Dining Center from June 3 until July 10 (excluding July 4). We offer 3 plans:

- 7 day - 3 meals a day, except Sunday evening $227.00 plus tax
- 5 day - 3 meals a day Monday through Friday $210.00 plus tax
- Any 12 - Choice of 12 of 20 meals served during the week $204.00 plus tax

Indicate your choice of plans during registration on June 3.

Aggie Point Accounts are active during the entire year, so you may either open an account or add to your account at any time at Validation Center, Sbsa Basement.

FREE SERVICE CHARGE CHECKING FOR TEXAS A&M DIRECT DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS

711 University Drive College Station, Texas Member FDIC

UNIVERSITY NATIONAL BANK 846-8751

Made for Travel

Practical, Comfort from patagonia

Men's Tropical Shirt: Lightweight DualSpun™ with no ironing needed. Comfortable even when the weather is not. (Blue, Khaki, Grey or Turquoise.)

Men's Duck Pants: Durable & comfortable 8-ounce cotton canvas, with two rear snap pockets. (Khaki, Grey or Dusty Teal.)

Bridle Leather Money Belt: The safest way to carry your cash. Fullgrain cowhide, solid brass buckle with inside zipper pouch to hold folded bills. Looks like an ordinary belt.

Women's Snap Shirt: Fine cotton Cambric in European cut with tiny brass snaps. Makes a great sun or air-conditioner cover up - yet cool & loose for hottest climes. (White, Fuschia, or French Blue.)

Women's Adjustable Pants: The fit is trim, but comfortable. Great for travel they need no pressing. (Khaki, Grey or Purple.)

Stop by to pick up a free Foreign Travel Checklist, Eurail or Passport Information Sheet. Let us help you with your travel clothing & equipment needs.

Whole Earth Provision Co.

105 Boyett College Station 846-8794

Turn A New Leaf
At

DOUBLE TREE

- Pool
- Presencing
- Hottub
- Full-size w/d
- Security service
- Shuttle bus
- Saunas
- House or Penthouse
- Microwaves
- Fireplaces

LUXURY CONDOMINIUMS

"Double Tree leaves you room to grow"

693-3232

1901 W. Holleman - Off 2818