Wilson drove in four runs Tuesday night as the Philadelphia Phillies blasted the Montreal Expos 11-0.

The Phillies' Von Hayes continued his torrid hitting with three singles and a double. He is now 20-for-41 in his last 10 games, for a .488 average, and has 11 RBI during that stretch.

Koosman struck out three and walked only one in winning his first game of the season against one loss. Bill Gullickson, 3-2, took the loss.

The Phillies banged out 16 hits against four Montreal pitchers, including Razor Shines, an outfielder who pitched the eighth inning. Shines, who had never pitched in the majors but threw one inning in Class AAA last season, gave up one Philadelphia hit.

Pirates 6, Padres 2

PITTSBURGH — Jason Thompson belted a two-run homer to cap a three-run first inning and Steve Kemp's three-run double keyed Pittsburgh's three-run sixth as the Pirates defeated the San Diego Padres 6-2 Tuesday night.

With the Pirates leading 3-2, George Hendrick and Tony Pena singled off loser LaMarr Hoyt, 2-2, before Kemp drilled his bases-clearing double into the right-field corner. Rafael Belliard followed with a double, scoring pinch-runner Doug Frobel.

The Pirates had jumped on Hoyt in the first inning. Joe Orsulak extended his hitting streak to 11 games with a single before advancing on a groundout and scoring on Bill Madlock's single. Thompson made it 3-0 with his homer.

American League

Rangers 8, Yankees 4

ARLINGTON — Cliff Johnson keyed a five-run first inning with a two-run double to lead the Rangers to an 8-4 victory over the New York Yankees Tuesday night, denying Billy Martin for the second night in a row his first victory in his fourth go-round as Yankee manager.

Dickie Noles, 2-1, pitched five innings to pick up the victory. Phil Niekro, 3-2, lost his first game since April 8.

The Rangers jumped on Niekro with four singles and two doubles in the first inning. Tommy Dunbar led off with a single to right, and two outs later hot-hitting Larry Parrish beat out a grounder to third. Pete O'Brien drove home Dunbar with a single and Johnson followed with a towering double off the left field wall to score Parrish and O'Brien.

Twins 11, Tigers 2

DETROIT — Gary Gaetti drove in four runs and Kent Hrbek and Tim Teufel homered Tuesday night to highlight a 10-run Minnesota fourth inning as the surging Twins bombed the Detroit Tigers 11-2.

It was the Twins' ninth straight win. John Butcher, 3-1, who turned in his fourth consecutive complete game, held Detroit to five hits. The hard-throwing right-hander walked one and struck out one.

The Tigers were leading 2-0 before the Twins blew them away with their 10-run, nine-hit rally. It was the most runs the Twins had scored since a 10-run inning April 27, 1980. The last time they rapped out nine hits in an inning was Sept. 5, 1976. Milt Wilcox, 0-1, took the loss.

Royals 3, Indians 2

KANSAS CITY — George Brett and Willie Wilson collected three hits apiece Monday night and the Kansas City Royals held off the Cleveland Indians 3-2 in a rain-delayed game.

Bud Black, 2-1, took a 3-0 lead and a seven-hitter into the ninth inning. After retiring Pat Tabler, who went 0-for-4 in ending his 15-game hitting streak, the longest in the major leagues this season, Black allowed singles to Andre Thornton and Brook Jacoby.

Orioles 9, White Sox 7

BALTIMORE — Gary Roenicke's two-run homer and a two-run single by Rick Dempsey keyed a five-run fourth inning Tuesday night that propelled the Baltimore Orioles to a 9-7 victory over the Chicago White Sox.

The triumph was the sixth in seven games for the Orioles, who had to withstand a five-run Chicago ninth. The White Sox had a three-game winning streak snapped.

Roenicke, who includes five homers among his seven lifetime hits off Floyd Bannister, 0-3, connected off the Chicago lefty after Eddie Murray walked to open the fourth inning.
