Fixed rate mortgages.

Terrific terms.
(15 and 30 years).

Unbeatable rates.
Quick decision.

Where else but BrazosBanc.

BrazosBanc has been the mortgage lending leader in Central Texas since 1919. No one offers more products (fixed rates, buy downs, ARMs, etc.). No one offers more terms (as few as 15 and as many as 30 years to repay). And no one has better rates (shop rates before you commit. Ask about application fees and commitment policy. BrazosBanc has no application fee. Our commitment policy is very beneficial: we'll never charge a rate higher than your 45 day commitment. If the market falls during the paperwork period, we'll charge you less.)

No one says "Yes" in less time. BrazosBanc usually can approve a loan and issue a commitment in two weeks. Some institutions take months.

If you are not sure this is the time to build or buy, talk to your Realtor—then come to any BrazosBanc office. We'll handle the details and soon you'll be in the home of your dreams.

Official doubts U.S. defense to terrorism

Associated Press

WASHINGTON — The head of the Reagan administration's civil defense program, calling U.S. territory "extremely vulnerable" to terrorism, said Tuesday he lacks confidence in the nation's ability to stop deadly attacks by groups using chemical and germ weapons.

"We cannot, and should not, count on the current, essentially uncoordinated, terror methodology in the United States continuing indefinitely into the future," said Louis O. Giuffrida, director of the Federal Emergency Management Agency.

"Realistically, the United States is extremely vulnerable to the conventional weapons and tactics of terrorism," he added.

Giuffrida gave the assessment in a report to a long-scheduled, two-day terrorism conference.

Most of the discussion at the terrorism conference, sponsored by the Nuclear Control Institute and the State University of New York's terrorism studies program, focused on the possibility that radical groups could steal or make an atomic bomb and use it to force outrageous concessions from governments.

Move is beneficial to IBM

Associated Press

WASHINGTON — MCI Communications Corp. said Tuesday it agreed to acquire Satellite Business Systems, a rival long-distance telephone network principally owned by International Business Machines Corp., in a transaction that would make IBM the largest stockholder in MCI.

IBM currently owns 60 percent of Satellite Business Systems, while the other 40 percent is owned by Aetna Life & Casualty Co.

SBS originally was founded by IBM, Aetna and Communications Satellite Corp., or Comsat. But last summer Comsat sold its stake to IBM.

As a first step toward selling SBS to MCI, IBM and Aetna said they reached a separate agreement in principle for IBM to take over SBS by making unspecified "cash payments and other considerations" to Aetna.

Aetna also "could receive a future payment from IBM depending on the market value of MCI stock at the time the merger is concluded," the companies said.

MCI, in exchange for acquiring substantially all SBS assets and operations, would issue to IBM 45 million shares of MCI common stock, and warrants for the purchase of an additional 7 million shares of MCI common stock at $15 per share. IBM also agreed to hold the shares for a minimum of three years.

MCI currently has about 257.5 million common shares outstanding. Assuming conversion of the warrants, IBM would hold a 22 percent interest in MCI.

tally ludicrous."

He said even the environment of the building is controlled; the heat is turned up if the building is hot or is cooled if the building is cold.

"Remember that the key to managing a special threat situation is controlling what the individual sees, hears and smells," Dalager said.

Dalager said that a violent solution to a situation is used only as a last resort.

"The idea is to resolve a very violent situation in a non-violent way through communication... We don't shoot anybody in one of these situations unless he starts shooting people," he said.

Dalager said the procedures and tactics illustrated in the program are useful in terrorist threats and situations involving criminals.

"It doesn't make any difference to us whether it's a terrorist or a criminal, we handle them the same," he said.

He said that in terrorist situations, only the negotiation techniques are different.

"Our chances of getting him (the criminal) out without anybody getting hurt if we properly handle the situation is 99.9 percent," Dalager said. "The chances of negotiating without violence with a terrorist is almost zero."

An example of this is the June 14 hijacking of TWA Flight 847 when terrorists killed a U.S. Navy man.

Dalager said the hostage crisis following the hijacking can only be resolved by careful negotiations.

"I think time is on our side in Lebanon if we just keep our cool and don't wave the sword around too much," he said.

"Anybody that would try any military force in Lebanon needs to have their head examined," he said.
