Rozier makes deal official, inks 4-year pact with Oilers

Associated Press

HOUSTON — The Houston Oilers ended a year-long pursuit of running back Mike Rozier Monday, and signed the former Heisman Trophy winner to a four-year contract that will pay him a reported $2.25 million.

Rozier finished second among United States Football League runners this season, gaining 1,361 yards for the Jacksonville Bulls.

He became available to the Oilers, who held his National Football League draft rights, when he bought out his contract with Jacksonville.

Rozier will be following in the footsteps of Earl Campbell, another Heisman winner who was traded to New Orleans last season.

"I know there will be a lot of people comparing me with him, but I'm Mike Rozier," Rozier said.

"I'm nothing like Earl. I'm just coming in to do the best that I can.

One man won't make this team. It takes all 11."

Rozier passed the Oilers physical examination earlier Monday and planned to be ready for preseason camp later this month.

"I don't ever think about burnout," said Rozier, who has just completed the USFL season with the Bulls. "I didn't walk into the USFL and start right away and I don't expect that in the NFL either."

Art Wilkinson, Rozier's agent, said his client has a better contract than he would have obtained last year with the Oilers.

"Last year's contract was geared to a lot of deferred payments through 1995," Wilkinson said. "But all the dollars in this contract will be paid over the next four years."

Rozier won the Heisman Trophy in 1983 when he rushed for 4,780 yards over three seasons with the Cornhuskers.

He went on to a disappointing, injury-plagued rookie season with the now-defunct Pittsburgh Maulers, where he gained only 792 yards.

The Oilers first became interested in Rozier prior to the start of training camp a year ago, but broke negotiations Aug. 29.

Rozier will be expected to add power to Houston's dismal rushing attack that finished 23rd among 28 NFL teams last season.

The Oilers now can give full attention to signing running back Larry Moriarty, last season's leading rusher, to a contract. Moriarty is represented by Los Angeles agent Howard Slusher.

The Oilers also acquired former Michigan runner Butch Woolfolk from the New York Giants in the off-season.

Five Oiler veteran free agents remain unsigned prior to the start of preseason training camp July 15.
