Soviet gymnast wins four golds in Japan

Associated Press

KOBE, Japan — Soviet gymnast Dmitry Bilozherche won four gold medals in gymnastics Tuesday, bringing his personal total to six, while American swimming star Matt Biondi won his third gold of the 1985 World University Games.

Victories in the men's gymnastics individual finals Tuesday left the Soviet Union with 12 golds and 26 medals in all. The United States had eight golds—all in swimming—and a total of 20 medals. South Korea had three golds, all in judo, and China and the Netherlands each had two.

Bilozherche won the parallel bars, the rings, the floor exercise and the side horse — sharing the last two — on Tuesday, adding to the men's all-around and the team gold.

Bilozherche shared the horse title with fellow Soviet Valentin Mogilny and the floor gold with Huang Wofu of China.

Biondi, of Moraga, Calif., led the three Americans winning swimming golds Tuesday. He won his specialty, the 100-meter freestyle, in 49.14 seconds, behind his world record of 48.95 but better than the University Games record of 50.51.

Silver medalist Stephan Caron of France also bettered that time. Biondi goes for a fourth gold Wednesday as part of the U.S. men's 400-meter freestyle relay.

The swimmers broke three University Games records Tuesday. Besides Biondi, the American women's 400-meter freestyle relay team and back-stroker Igor Polyanski of the Soviet Union set standards for the University Games.

The U.S. women won in 3:49.10, shaving a half-second from the old mark of 3:49.64 and the Soviets were second in 3:51.17.

Polyanski won the 200 back in 1:59.76, breaking the games record of 2:00.42 but falling more than a second short of his world mark. Sean Murphy of Canada was second in 2:02.69.

Patty Sabo of Dearborn, Mich., was the other American winner Tuesday, taking the 400-meter freestyle in 4:16.23, ahead of Hungarian Andrea Orosz.

Royals' young pitching staff rotates toward AL pennant

Associated Press

KANSAS CITY, Mo. — The Kansas City Royals head into the penultimate drive days of September boasting one of the top starting pitching rotations in baseball — and that doesn't surprise Manager Dick Howser.

"They were good last year," Howser said of his solid five-man starting rotation. "Their numbers won-and-lost-wise weren't as good as they should have been, but we didn't score a lot of runs. But, they still pitched good and got everybody's attention."

The attention has grown this year with each new turn on the mound. Going into Tuesday's game with Milwaukee, the Royals' starting five of righthanders Bret Saberhagen and Mark Gubicza and lefthanders Bud Black, Danny Jackson and Charlie Leibrandt led a pitching staff that ranked second in the American League in earned run average at 3.51 and has allowed a league-least 77 home runs.
