Black mourners kill 2 whites after funeral for riot victims

Associated Press

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa — Blacks returning from a mass funeral for riot victims stabbed and burned to death two whites in a passing car and badly wounded two other white passengers, police said Sunday.

The mob attack on four white construction workers Saturday night followed a service for 18 blacks attended by 50,000 blacks in a soccer stadium at Duncan Village, a black area of East London on the Indian Ocean.

Four whites have been killed in a year of rioting against apartheid, the white-minority government's racial segregation policies.

More than 650 blacks have been killed in the strife.

The mob attacked the men with knives, killing one and wounding the others, and then set the car on fire, burning one injured man to death, police headquarters in Pretoria said.

Witnesses said clergymen at the funeral service at Duncan Village saved the life of a suspected black police informer whom the crowd was about to burn alive in a ritual punishment for "collaborators." There were no other incidents at the service. About 25 blacks were killed in rioting in Duncan Village three weeks ago.

The year of violence demonstrated its impact on South Africa's economy Saturday.

In Pretoria, the government announced a four-month freeze on repayment of nearly all foreign debts and new exchange controls to halt the crash in the nation's currency, the rand.

Finance Minister Barend du Plessis said the steps were unavoidable because foreign banks were calling in South Africa's short-term loans instead of renewing them as usual.

About 60,000 black miners at seven gold and coal mines threatened an imminent strike for higher pay. The National Union of Mineworkers said Sunday employers had sealed off the mines and were preparing "for the warfare."

Mine owners dismissed that charge and said in turn the union members were intimidating others into joining the walkout.

A spokeswoman for General Mining Corp., speaking on condition of anonymity, said security officers the company's Beatrix Gold Mine fired rubber bullets and tear gas black miners, wounding seven men.

She said security officers at mine in the central Orange Free State were called when about 1,000 of mine's 7,000 workers "gathered together in an unruly manner."

She said most miners dispersed, but a small group attacked a mine security vehicle, and the officers moved in.

About 1,500 black miners began striking Saturday night at a small mine owned by General Mining.

The union has demanded a 22 percent pay increase. Mine owners refused raises ranging from 14 to percent. The average salary now about $146 a month for black miners who began unionizing three years ago.

Mining, South Africa's largest industry, employs more than 500,000 blacks.

Irish prison pillaged by inmates; police and soldiers restore order

CORK, Ireland — About 70 inmates, some wielding pickaxes and pitchforks, seized control of the Spike Island prison compound off the Irish coast Sunday and set it afire, leaving three-fourths of the prison a smoldering ruin, police said.

Riot-equipped police, backed by Irish soldiers, moved in to restore order at the minimum-security prison. No terrorist convicts are housed in the compound.

About 40 inmates clambered onto the roof of a two-story recreation hall and held out for a time, but gave up and climbed down as dusk fell, police said.

Inmates had commandeered a bulldozer and smashed across the compound as they torched buildings, witnesses said. They said three buildings were destroyed and two others heavily damaged.

One guard was slightly injured by a gasoline bomb, but no inmates were reported hurt, police said.

Justice Minister Michael Noonan had said the rooftop protesters could stay there "until they come to their senses and realize that no prison system will tolerate activities of the type that they have been indulging in."

Noonan rejected their demands for transfers to mainland jails of their choice and assurances that they would not lose the normal time off for good behavior from their sentences as a result of the disturbances.

Noonan said prisoners involved in rioting would be subject to disciplinary measures and could face criminal proceedings.

Thirty other convicts scattered throughout the half-mile-wide island in Cork Harbor about 1.5 miles from Cork in southwestern Ireland.

The disturbance broke out shortly after midnight and quickly spread throughout the compound, which was converted from an old army fort into a prison five months ago.

Inmates ripped up floorboards and set fires in one of the prison's two di-visionary buildings. Power said several guards on duty at the time barricaded themselves in a room as the prison ran riot.
