Freedom fighters seeking support

Associated Press

DALLAS — Rebels, guerrillas and freedom fighters from around the world have gathered in Dallas this week to try and raise money and moral support for their unswerving hatred of communism.

"We've come to show the world what they (Soviets) mean when they talk about peace," Afghan rebel Abdul Martin said through an interpreter.

Martin, 20, is among a half dozen or so "fighters" attending the World Anti-Communist League meeting that began Tuesday at the Dallas Registry Hotel.

The league and its American arm, the U.S. Council of World Freedom, hold the annual conference to promote awareness of what they call the "world communist menace" and raise money for fighters, explained retired U.S. Army Maj. Gen. John Singlaub, chairman of both organizations.

"We want to develop an awareness of the fact that there are countries whose people have been so abused that they've decided better dead than red," Singlaub said.

"Our primary philosophy is that we're pro-freedom," he said. "Our greatest concern is the human misery caused in those countries taken over by communism."

During the conference, members will participate in workshops and seek ways to aid resistance movements, Singlaub said Tuesday. "For example, if a big problem is a lack of understanding in Europe of Nicaragua, the solution might be to sponsor a visit to Europe" of Nicaraguan resistance leaders.

"If the Afghans say their most serious problem is lack of medicine," he said, "the solution might be to ship medicines and even doctors to them."

Several groups have threatened to protest the meeting, including the Dallas chapter of the Committee in Solidarity with the People of El Salvador and the World Affairs Council.

Pornography Commission slates hearings

Associated Press

HOUSTON — A slate of psychiatrists and sociologists are a few of the witnesses scheduled to testify before the Attorney General's Commission on Pornography hearing this week, the chairman of the commission said Tuesday.

"We have a very impressive lineup of witnesses including psychologists, psychiatrists, sociologists, sex educators and researchers, and communications professors," Henry Hudson, the commission's chairman said.

Hudson said about 20 witnesses, including two victims from Texas, will appear before the 12-member commission.

"Our mission is not censorship," Hudson said. "Our mission is really to determine what type of problem pornography presents and make specific recommendations as to how that problem can be cured."
