Septemberfest will be in Tanglewood Park

By MARKI MCMILLAN
Reporter

Strains of bluesy folk music and Dixieland jazz will float through Tanglewood Park when the Bryan Parks and Recreation Department hosts its third annual Septemberfest Saturday from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m.

The day-long festival of old-fashioned food and fun will feature continuous live entertainment, contests and activities as well as a special City of Bryan Founder's Day Celebration, said Monique Dekker, special events coordinator for the Parks and Recreation Department.

"Our department is teaming up with KORA and KTAM radio stations and the Bryan Sesquicentennial Committee to offer Septemberfest visitors a wide range of choices," Dekker said. "There should be something fun for ev-

Prison ministry program to be presented in CS

By KAREN KROESCHE
Reporter

They're taking a fresh look at an old problem.

Rehabilitation of criminals within the prison system has been the subject of much study and controversy for years, but the approach that a group of volunteers has taken deviates from the standard solutions.

The Prison Fellowship Program, was founded in the early 1970s by former aid to President Richard Nixon, Chuck Colson.
Program volunteers minister in prisons around the world, offering hope to what Diana Elder, program volunteer, termed "a forgotten group of people."

"In many cases, this is literally the first time that anyone has ever shown them (prisoners) any love
