

Sept. 20, 1985

The Battalion Weekly Magazine

at ease

The ever-growing arts in Bryan-College Station

Brazo Valley definitely is not on the cutting edge of the art world. But that fact is hardly from lack of trying. Next week, as the country celebrates National Art Week, local citizens can indulge themselves in a variety of unique cultural events. We salute the generous people who are concerned enough to make art and cultural activities possible.