Ags get scoreboard results

Miscues keep A&M's point total down

By PETE HERNDON
Reporter

Texas A&M got scoreboard results against Northeast Louisiana Saturday, but some of the miscues that plagued the Aggie offense in Birmingham showed up again at Kyle Field.

The Aggies amassed 539 yards of total offense against the Indians, the highest offensive production for A&M since the 1982 Rice game. However, 211 of those yards didn't produce any A&M points. For the second week in a row, fumbles, penalties and two missed field goals left the Aggies' point total far short of where the statistics said it should be.

One of the most noticeable shortcomings of the offense, since A&M's quarterback situation is such a hot topic, is that neither Craig Stump or Kevin Murray have thrown a touchdown pass in the first two games.

But that doesn't seem to bother Murray. "We just went up and down the field like we did last week (against Alabama)," Murray said. "The difference is that this week, when we got in the red area (inside the 30-yard line), we put it in the endzone."

Murray said putting A&M in the endzone is his main concern, not worrying about being accused of taking a car and cash from an Aggie booster.

"I don't have to pick up a newspaper," Murray said. "That's not going to effect what I do on Saturday. I just want to line up on Saturdays and go. That's all."

Murray guided A&M on all three touchdown drives against NLU, leaving Stump to set up Eric Franklin for three field goals.

The Aggies have scored four touchdowns and four field goals in their last two outings. Murray has led all four touchdown drives, while Stump has been responsible for all the field goals.

But A&M wide receiver Shea Walker, who led the Aggies with five catches for 78 yards, said he doesn't see any permanent pattern developing.

"Realistically," Walker said, "I don't see (the receivers having) any problems with that. They're both capable quarterbacks. The quarterbacks don't dictate what we do — the defense does."

"I think it may be a lack of concentration," Walker said, referring to the problems the offense has had inside the 30-yard line.

"We all made the big catches but there is still always room for improvement," Walker said. "Something like maybe a better block here and there to spring a big play."

Texas A&M fullback Anthony Toney (25) drags a Northeast Louisiana defender into the endzone during Saturday's 31-17 win. Toney led A&M with 106 yards rushing and three touchdowns.

Cowboys down Browns, 20-7

Associated Press
IRVING — The Dallas Cowboys scored on their first two possessions and added a third-quarter touchdown on a flea-flicker pass from halfback James Jones to quarterback Danny White in a 20-7 victory over the Cleveland Browns Sunday.

The Dallas defense kept Cleveland scoreless until late in the fourth quarter when Browns quarterback Gary Danielson combined with Kevin Mack on a 56-yard pass play to the Dallas one, setting up Earnest Byner's short touchdown run.

End-zone interceptions by Dallas defensive backs Everson Walls and Dennis Thurman foiled two Cleveland scoring threats.

The Cowboys carved a 10-0 half-time lead on Rafael Septien's 39-yard field goal and White's 10-yard touchdown pass to tight end Doug Cosbie.

Sunday's NFL scores:

Denver 44, Atlanta 28
Indianapolis 14, Detroit 8
New England 17, Buffalo 14
Philadelphia 19, Washington 6
New Orleans 20, Tampa Bay 13
New York Giants 27, St. Louis 17
San Diego 44, Cincinnati 41
Miami 31, Kansas City 0
New York Jets 24, Green Bay 3
San Francisco 34, Los Angeles Raiders 10

Monday Night Game:
Los Angeles Rams at Seattle

gave Dallas a first down at the Cleveland 12 in the third quarter. But White fumbled the snap two plays later, and Cleveland line backer Clay Matthews scampered almost to mid field with the ball before he was overtaken.

Danielson then hit wide receiver

Willis Adams for 11 and 22 yards on back-to-back plays for a first down at the Dallas 22.

But Danielson aimed a pass for Adams on the next play in the end zone's left corner, and Thurman made a leaping interception.

Steelers 20, Oilers 0
PITTSBURGH — Mark Malone threw two first-period touchdown passes to Louis Lipps, and Pittsburgh's defense manhandled a punchless Houston offense as the Steelers defeated the Oilers 20-0 Sunday in the National Football League.

Donnie Shell set up one of Lipps' scores with an interception and his fumble recovery halted Houston's only scoring threat as the Steelers recorded their first shutout since a 24-0 victory over the Los Angeles Rams in 1981. The Oilers crossed midfield only once in the second half.

Gary Anderson kicked a pair of 38-yard field goals, but had a streak of 23 consecutive field goals against American Conference Central Division teams snapped when he missed a 40-yarder late in the fourth quarter.
