Ag golfers take walk into Twilight Zone

By DOUG HALL Sports Writer,

For most people, Wednesday Oceam, the 8th was more like Friday

The Aggies had a disasterous final ound at the Louisiana State Univerity Invitational in Baton Rouge, La. o fall well off the pace of the front

"Our first two rounds were su-per," Golf Coach Bob Ellis said. 'Our last day was poor. Neil (Hickerson) shot well with a 71, but everyone else did not play well.

Ellis said the Aggies just need some consistency.

'Out of the nine rounds we've played this year, six have been very good," Ellis said, "And three have been very poor. And those three rounds have been the last."

Ellis can't figure out the reason for the final round collapse and it's beginning to bother him.

"I don't like it," Ellis said, "And I can't offer any explanation for (struggling in the final round). We just need to keep getting ourselves into that situation and get used to being there. We have to learn to play the same in the third round as we do

Dodgers punch Cardinals, 8-2

Associated Press

LOS ANGELES - Orel Hershiser pitched Los Angeles to an 8-2 victory over the wasteful St. Louis Cardinals Thursday night and helped throw the switch on a power surge that carried the Dodgers to a sweep of the first two games of the National League playoffs.

Greg Brock hit a two-run homer in the fourth inning off St. Louis starter Joaquin Andujar, while Ken Landreaux doubled twice and singled, drove in a run and scored three times. Bill Madlock added three singles, two of which drove in runs, to the Dodgers' 13-hit attack.

Hershiser, 19-3 with 11 consecutive victories to close the season, allowed eight hits and gave up only one St. Louis run until the ninth. He also drove in the Dodgers' first run to ignite a three-run third inning.

Hershiser walked five, struck out four, and got into his groove after muddling through some early-in-ning problems. At one point in the late innings, he retired eight in a row and allowed only three hits in the final five ings. Two of the hits came in the ninth inning when the Cardinals scored their second run.

The Cardinals failed on two fronts. Andujar, 21-12 after finishing the season with three straight losses, was ineffective after retiring the first seven batters, contributing to his own downfall with a costly error. And the normally opportunistic Cardinals failed time and again to capitalize on chances to score against Hershiser

Both Vince Coleman and Willie McGee, the Cardinals' two speedsters, were thrown out trying to steal in the first inning by catcher Mike Scioscia, and the Cardinals stranded five baserunners in the first three in-

The playoffs move to St. Louis for Games 3, 4 and 5 on Saturday, Sunday and Monday. Saturday's game will match right-handers Bob Welch, 14-4, for Los Angeles, against Danny

In Game 1 Wednesday night, L.A.'s Fernando Valenzuela handcuffed the Cardinals on seven hits through 6 1/3 innings of work to gain his first victory in over a month. And just as he was Thursday night, Bill Madlock was the offensive catalyst for the Dodgers.

Braves hire ex-Pirate manager

Associated Press

ATLANTA — The Atlanta Braves have hired Chuck Tanner to manage the club for the next five years.

Team owner Ted Turner made the announcement Thurs-day after an hour long meeting with Tanner and team president Bill Bartholomay. Terms of the contract were not disclosed.

Turner said John Mullen would remain as general man-ager "right now, the way things

But Tanner "will have a lot of control" of the National League team, Turner said.

Tanner, who was fired Monday after eight seasons with the Pittsburgh Pirates, replaces Bobby Wine, who took over as manager in August after Eddie Haas was fired. He will be the 13th manager since the Braves moved to Atlanta from Milwaukee 20 years ago. Three of the former managers were hired on an interim basis late in the season.

Since his firing earlier this week, Tanner has mentioned as a candidate for other baseball jobs, but he said he came to Atlanta be cause "first of all, they wanted me. It's nice to be wanted. It didn't take long; it was a quick agreement. We shook hands. That was our contract.'

Tanner led the 1979 Pirates to 98-64 record and the Eastern Division title. Pittsburgh defeated the Baltmore Orioles in the World Series in seven games.
