Nobel laureate to speak tonite in Zachry at 8

By MARY KAY KIRK
Reporter

In an effort to unite the common themes of science and art, Nobel Prize winner Dr. Roald Hoffmann will speak tonight at 8 in 102 Zachry.

The lecture, sponsored by the College of Science, is entitled "One Culture." It is based on an essay written 25 years ago by C.P. Snow, Hoffmann said.

Snow's theme was based on the idea of two cultures, Hoffmann said. He said Snow felt there was a separation between the scientist and the artist, and that the two didn't understand each other.

"I will show how he was wrong in a number of ways," Hoffmann said.

Hoffmann said he will show common themes that unite science and art through examples of science, poetry and visual arts.

Hoffmann, who shared the 1981 Nobel Prize in chemistry, is originally from Poland, but fled to America during the Nazi occupation.

"I came to a happy Jewish family in dark days in Europe," he once wrote. Hoffmann's family spent time in a concentration camp where his father and most of his family were later killed. Hoffmann, now 48, and his mother were smuggled out.

He began his schooling at Columbia College in 1955 as a pre-med student. In 1962, he earned a Ph.D. from Harvard and joined the Cornell faculty three years later, where he now holds the title of Newman Professor of Physical Science.

Hoffmann, who says he feels that his finest accomplishment is being a teacher, has won the National Medal of Science and the American Chemical Society's award in pure chemistry. He is the only person ever to win ACS awards in both inorganic and organic chemistry.

Marines' main assault helicopters won't be grounded despite crash

Associated Press

JACKSONVILLE, N.C. — The Marine Corps' principal assault helicopter, the CH-46D, won't be grounded after one crashed off North Carolina's coast and killed 15 servicemen because the crash was an isolated incident, a Marine spokesman said Wednesday.

"They're not falling out of the sky," said Maj. Don Kappel at Marine headquarters in Washington. "It's been a very reliable aircraft."

Investigators went to the USS Guadalcanal, the ship from which the helicopter took off, and were looking into all the contributing factors that may have caused the crash, said Gunnery Sgt. John Simmons at Camp Lejeune.

"The structure of the helicopter, if anything fell off, the pilot's condition, the weight . . . all these things they are looking at," Simmons said. The dead — 14 Marines and a

Navy chaplain — were pulled from the Atlantic Ocean Tuesday after the 6 a.m. crash about a mile off New River Inlet near the Marine Corps' Onslow Beach, Simmons said.

Wreckage will be removed from the ocean floor and taken to either New River Air Station or Cherry Point Marine Air Station for examination "with a fine-toothed comb," Simmons said.

Aggies' favorite drink is the margarita and their favorite place is the Padre Cafe. Now we've brought the two together with the best special in town. Get ice cold margaritas, frozen or on the rocks for $1.25. All day. Every day. Our margaritas are made with Tequilla Sauza products, not that cheap "border town" tequilla the competition uses. And while you're at the Padre Cafe, try some quesadillas or an order of our world class fajitas. We were making them first and we still make them best.

MSC NOVA

Will have its' next general meeting on Monday, October 21st at 7:00 P.M. in room 401 Rudder Tower.

What is NOVA?

NOVA is Texas A&M's only wargaming society. We put on programs such as WARCON, NOVACON, the game tournaments and teaching sessions that some of you may have attended earlier this year, and open gaming where anyone can bring a game, find an opponent, and go for it.

What are WARCON and NOVACON?

WARCON and NOVACON are annually held gaming tournaments. NOVACON, the smaller of the two focusses on the local gaming community, whereas WARCON enjoys a Southwest Region domain. Both include many enjoyable tournaments, dealer's rooms where one can spend a lot of money on hard-to-find items, and gaming workshops.

How do I join?

It's really very easy. All you have to do is show up at open gaming a few times and attend our meetings, and you are a bona fide member.

For more information, call us at 845-1515
