Catholic priest will discuss two aspects of evangelism

By MONA L. PALMER
Reporter

The Rev. Bill Young, from St. Thomas More Parish in Houston, will speak on evangelism at 7:30 tonight in Rudder Auditorium.

Evangelism has two aspects, Young said.

It means to spread the word of God or strengthen one's own faith.

Young said he will speak on both points.

He also will talk about the Catholic church, its ways and their significance, he said.

He also will cover the basic values of the Catholic religion and how they can affect people's lives.

Young said he is speaking at Texas A&M because he feels students need support.

Students who are away from home don't have their normal faith supports, he said.

Therefore, they need to grow on their own and move into a more adult faith.

Young said he will speak for 30 or 40 minutes and then give the audience time to ask questions.

Young is sponsored by St. Mary's Catholic Church in College Station. The Rev. Leon Strieder, of St. Mary's, is responsible for bringing Young to speak at A&M.

"We went to seminary together," Strieder said. "He was older and wiser but I was younger and better-looking."

Young received his undergraduate degree at the University of St. Thomas in Houston and then did post-graduate work at Loyola in New Orleans and St. Johns in New York.

Young has his parish in Houston but he also teaches two high school courses at Marian Christian High School in Houston.

"I teach senior religion and introduction to algebra II — what a combination," he said.

Young has been teaching part-time for 15 years and full-time for a couple of years.

MSC Council to affirm lecture speakers

The Memorial Student Center Council will discuss its financial report to the Board of Regents at the Council's meeting tonight.

Council President Denis Davis said a new policy requires all departments on campus to assemble budget reports for the Board of Regents to review.

"It's an across-the-board addition to the budgeting process," Davis said.

The report will be beneficial to the MSC because by collating its financial information, the MSC will be able to evaluate its performance more effectively, she said.

Vice President for Public Relations Jody Weiss will tell the council about the MSC mania package, Davis said. The package includes a mug, T-shirt, pencil, button and more, all imprinted with the words, "I want my MSC."

The program review committee will present its minutes to the council. If the minutes are passed by the council, three speakers will be approved for MSC Political Forum's E.

L. Miller Lecture Series.

The theme of the series this year is "The Future in Space." The speakers approved by the program review committee are Dr. Art Hobson, University of Arkansas professor and expert in physics and nuclear weapons; Dr. Robert Lawrence, Colorado State University professor of political science; and James Oberg, a space engineer with McDonald Douglas and author on space defense.

The council has final approval of these speakers.
