Cardinals end losing streak by spiking Cowboys, 21-10

Associated Press

ST. LOUIS — Neil Lomax brought St. Louis to life with a 46-yard touchdown pass to Pat Tilley early in the second half and added a clinching toss to J.T. Smith with four minutes to play as the Cardinals ended a four-game losing streak by beating the Dallas Cowboys 21-10 in a National Football League game Monday night.

The St. Louis comeback from a 10-0 halftime deficit dropped Dallas, 6-3, into a first-place tie with the New York Giants in the NFC East. The Cards, meanwhile, improved to 4-5.

While St. Louis staggered against the Cowboy defense, Dallas built a 10-0 halftime advantage on Danny White's 8-yard pass to Drew Hill and a 19-yard field goal by Rafael Septien.

St. Louis caught fire on its first possession after halftime, with Lomax's 10-yard pass to Doug Marsh lighting the fuse on an 81-yard drive. Lomax followed with a 13-yarder to Tilley, and the Cards picked up an additional 15 yards on a roughing penalty. Lomax then connected with Tilley on the long touchdown play to cut the Dallas advantage to 10-7 with 12:05 left in the period.

Television replays of the play appeared to show that Tilley spiked the ball before reaching the end zone, but the play was ruled a touchdown.

The Cardinals moved 65 yards on their next possession for the go-ahead touchdown. Lomax completed passes of 11 yards to Smith and 15 and 12 yards to Tilley to set the stage for Earl Ferrell's 8-yard touchdown run with 4:07 left in the quarter.

While the Cardinal offense rolled, the Dallas offense was continually frustrated throughout the second half by an aroused St. Louis defense that prompted two turnovers.

St. Louis moved 80 yards in 10 plays for the clinching score. Stump Mitchell ran 21 yards and then took a Lomax pass for 25 to put the Cardinals on the Dallas 42. Lomax hit Smith for gains of 10 and 19 yards before connecting with Smith on a 9-yard scoring play with 4:13 left in the game.

It was the Cards' third straight Monday night victory over Dallas, which had won 11 of the previous 13 games between the teams, including the last three at Busch Stadium.

Lomax completed 17 of 32 passes for 260 yards while White made good on 21 of 36 for 203 yards with one interception.

Three straight wins puts Oilers in strange place

Associated Press

HOUSTON — The Houston Oilers have spent the past few National Football League seasons using Monday to review their latest loss — but that's changed lately.

This week, the Oilers found themselves with a share of first place in the American Football Conference Central Division — and a three-game winning streak.

Tony Zendejas kicked a 38-yard field goal with 14 seconds to play Sunday for a 23-20 victory over the Kansas City Chiefs.

The Oilers are starting to get their victories in a variety of ways. They blew out Cincinnati 44-27, spotted St. Louis 10 points and then beat the Cardinals 20-10.

Houston staged a dramatic finish for its victory-starved fans Sunday to make it three in a row for a 4-5 record and a tie for the divisional lead.

No one is dwelling on the fact that the other three division opponents, Cleveland, Pittsburgh and Cincinnati, also claim a share of first place with 4-5 records.

"It seems like no one's going to win the Central Division," quarterback Warren Moon said. "It's just a matter of who doesn't lose it. We'll just let the other guys knock themselves out of it."

"We can't really start fantasizing about (winning more games) this season because we're playing Buffalo this week and they are another team looking for respect. They'll be revved up at home for us."

Heroes are even starting to emerge.

In Sunday's game, Zendejas, who missed a field goal and extra point in the first half, went from goat to hero with his winning kick.

"Believe it or not, I really wanted something like this to happen," Zendejas said. "You always want to decide a game with your kicks."
