wiped us out," Texas Coach Fred Akers said following a loss many predict could cost him his job. "It starts to snowball sometimes, and I don't know how to explain it. Sometimes you think it's not going to be your night.

"That's how those scores get that high. They're (the Aggies) not that many points better than we are."

However, the Aggies were better on the ground (183 yards to 73) and in the air (185 yards to 179) than the Longhorns.

Stafford and Dodge combined to hit only 11 of 31 passes, with the six sacks and four interceptions further nullifying already sub-par statistics.

The 'Horns Hunter (54 yards), Simmons (37 yards) and freshman fullback Darron Norris (40 yards) were the only rushers in orange to gain positive yardage.

Meanwhile, Murray completed 10 of 17 passes for the Aggies, three of which were caught for touchdowns. Sophomore Craig Stump, who replaced Murray in the fourth quarter, completed his only pass attempt—a 39-yarder to Nelson that set up the Ags' final touchdown.

"Definitely, we were the second-best team out there," Akers conceded. "A&M played well and took advantage of their opportunities. They are an excellent team—such an excellent team they didn't need our help what with the crowd and the way they were playing. I really am disappointed that we did not perform as well as we can.

"Our Bluebonnet (Bowl) vote was unanimous and we'll be ready to play," Akers concluded. "And we'll be looking forward to seeing A&M next year."

Sherrill, meanwhile, seemed content to look at the game one more time—and from a different perspective.

"This was just an outstanding win, in every way, for our players and our coaches," Sherrill concluded. "And I'd have to say that, up to this point in the development of the program we're building here, it's been my biggest win as head coach here at A&M."

Bengal offense comes alive during 45-27 win over Oilers

Associated Press

CINCINNATI — Fullback Larry Kinnebrew powered for three first-half touchdowns and quarterback Boomer Esiason passed for three more scores as a resurrected Cincinnati Bengals offense overwhelmed the Houston Oilers, 45-27, Sunday.

The Bengals, kept out of the end zone in their last two National Football League games, stunned the Oilers with touchdowns on their first four possessions for a 28-0 lead en route to their highest point total of the season.

Kinnebrew climaxed impressive drives with touchdown runs of seven, one and three yards. Esiason, shaking off a bruised hip, hooked up with running back James Brooks on a 57-yard touchdown pass play for Cincinnati's other first-half score.

Esiason put the game out of reach with a pair of third-quarter touchdown tosses.

The Bengals, 6-7, ended a two-game losing streak and atoned for a 44-27 drubbing in Houston earlier this season. They also stayed in contention in the AFC Central Division, while leaving the 5-8 Oilers alone in last place.

The Bengals, who managed just four field goals in their two previous games, came out gunning. They took the opening kickoff and drove 69 yards in just six plays, sparked by a 33-yard pass from Esiason to wide receiver Cris Collinsworth. Kinnebrew bulled his way the last seven yards for the score.

Esiason linked up with Collinsworth on a 24-yard pass to highlight a 61-yard march on Cincinnati's next possession, with Kinnebrew scoring from the 1-yard line.

Esiason burned a Houston blitz for the Bengals' third touchdown, lofting a soft pass to a wide-open Brooks. The elusive running back made one cut and raced untouched for a 21-0 lead with 39 seconds left in the first quarter.

Quarterback Oliver Luck, making his second consecutive start for the injured Warren Moon, didn't get the Oilers' offense in gear until Kinnebrew had made it 28-0 with a 39-yard TD run.

Tony Zendejas kicked a 25-yard field goal for Houston's first points and Luck hooked up with running back Butch Woolfolk on a desperation pass for a touchdown on the last play of the half. Luck heaved the ball into a crowd including four Bengal defenders near the goal line, and the ball caromed to Woolfolk running unguarded at the 5-yard line.

Zendejas kicked a 26-yard field goal to trim the lead to 28-13 early in the third quarter, but Esiason's game out of reach with his second and third touchdown passes before the quarter ran out.

Esiason took advantage of another Oilers blitz to hook up with Rodger Holman on a 64-yard pass play. The tight end took a short toss, faked a defender and raced to the end zone.

Luck fumbled on Houston's next series, and Esiason scrambled to find wide receiver Eddie Brown open in the end zone for a 19-yard touchdown pass and a 42-13 lead.

Esiason was 18 for 24 for 320 yards without an interception. Luck completed 16 of 28 passes for 194 yards on 11 rushes and 85 yards on four receptions.

Kinnebrew anchored the Bengal running attack with 75 yards on carries. Brooks accounted for 194 yards on 11 rushes and 85 yards on four receptions.
