Canadians call for stand on nuclear war

Associated Press

VATICAN CITY — Canadian bishops Tuesday urged an international assembly of bishops to take a stand on the threat of nuclear war and Third World debt, calling the issues two of "the most urgent problems of our time.'

U.S. bishops attending the twoweek synod promptly supported the Canadian initiative.

The future of the world hangs recariously on these two issues," Bishop Bernard Hubert of Saint Jean-Longueuil, Quebec, president of the Canadian Bishops Conference, said in a written statement. The statement said the synod should issue a message that affirms "the determination of Christians to take part in building a better world by confronting two of the most urgent problems of our time . . Hubert, who made the proposal on behalf of more than 160 Canadian bishops, later said, "The synod should convey a word of hope to the world, and we can do so by expressing our shared preoccupation over these two issues."

Bishop James W. Malone of Youngstown, Ohio, said he agreed it was "appropriate for the synod of bishops to express its concern about

A draft of the 1986 pastoral letter says U.S. foreign assistance should be geared to meet basic human needs and promote social and eco-nomic development rather than security interests alone.

Pope John Paul II convened the 165-member extraordinary synod to assess the impact of the 1962-65 Second Vatican Council, which fashioned far-reaching reforms in lit-

Hubert suggested that the bishos' concern on the two issues be reflected in a pastoral message that will be issued at the end of the synod.

He also has condemned the nuclear arms race, often warning of the dangers of "a nuclear holocaust.

Before the Geneva arms limitation talks resumed earlier this year, the pope called on the United States and the Soviet Union to renounce 'egoistic and ideological interests" for the success of their negotiations.

Hubert said in his statement the positions taken by the pontiff over the years on major social, economic and political questions "have en-hanced the credibility of the church and (provided) a better understanding of what Christian life is all about.

50,000 mourners fill stadium for funeral of 12 slain blacks

MAMELODI, South Africa Their arms raised in clenched-fist salutes, up to 50,000 mourners jammed a soccer stadium Tuesday for the funeral of 12 blacks killed in one of the bloodiest days in 15 months of rioting.
In Pretoria, President P.W. Botha

announced that he was lifting the 19-week-old state of emergency in eight of 38 districts. He declared in a statement, "The revolutionary climate is fast losing momentum.

The five-hour funeral and burial service in Pretoria's Mamelodi township began and ended peacefully. After talks with organizers, police had agreed to keep out of sight at Mamelodi and to lift riot funeral restrictions, including a limit of 50 mourners. Diplomats from 11 countries, including U.S. Embassy political counselor Tim Carney, attended. Winnie Mandela, wife of jailed

black leader Nelson Mandela, defied her banning order to be at the stadium. To a standing ovation and freedom chants, she told the throng, "The blood of our heroes will be avenged . . . We are here today to tell you that the day when we shall lead you to freedom is not far away. Mrs. Mandela's eight-year-old banning order bars her from attending gatherings and restricts her to
