Wave of changes hits NCAA coaching ranks

Associated Press

Vanderbilt and San Diego State were without coaches and a couple of other schools were looking to fill vacancies created as the college football coaching ranks continued to reshuffle.

George MacIntyre resigned Tuesday at Vanderbilt, San Diego State officially announced the firing of Doug Scovil, and Gerry Faust, the ousted Notre Dame coach, has been contacted by Columbia of the Ivy League, sources told The Associated Press.

At the same time, published reports said Minnesota had offered its head coaching job to Maryland Coach Bobby Ross, who was pondering the change. Minnesota needs to fill the vacancy created when Lou Holtz quit to coach Notre Dame.

MacIntyre resigned after a 3-7-1 season at Vanderbilt, citing "the continuous rise in academic standards" as one of the reasons he had difficulty maintaining a quality program.

"I certainly don't condemn the university for these standards," he added, "because in my opinion, there is none better. But I am stating the facts as I see them."

In seven seasons at Vanderbilt, MacIntyre was 25-52-1.

A possible successor in Rice Coach Watson Brown was rumored even before the firing. While not denying the possibility, Brown said, "I have a dad-gummed good job here. If and when any official at Vanderbilt talks to me, then I'll make a decision whether or not to talk to them or just let it go from there."

Brown is an alumnus of Vanderbilt and a former MacIntyre assistant.

The announcement of Scovil's firing at San Diego State came several days after reports began that he would not be retained. The announcement came at the same time school officials announced that Fred Miller, former Arizona State administrator, was hired as athletic director. The Aztecs finished 5-6-1 this season and were 24-32-3 in Scovil's five seasons.

Columbia fired its coach, Jim Garrett, last week, causing a great deal of unhappiness among players. Athletic director Al Paul met Tuesday with 110 varsity and freshman players, saying "I know that many of you are disappointed at what happened."

Paul said the search for a new coach would "move ahead" quickly, and a source close to the university told the AP that one of the men contacted was Faust.

According to today's editions of the Minneapolis Star and Tribune, Ross will decide within 24 hours whether he will leave Maryland for Minnesota. If he declines the offer, Minnesota defensive coordinator John Getunkunst will be offered the job, the newspaper said.

Minnesota athletic director Paul Giel has denied broadcast reports that Ross was offered the job, but the St. Paul Pioneer Press and Dispatch reported Tuesday that Ross was in Minneapolis Monday to discuss the job. Getunkunst confirmed the report.

New Tech coach adds UT assistant to staff

Associated Press

LUBBOCK — John Mize, a University of Texas assistant coach who recruited West Texas for the Longhorns, was added to the Texas Tech football coaching staff Wednesday by new Red Raider head coach David McWilliams.

McWilliams, who was Texas' defensive coordinator before being hired Monday as the Texas Tech coach, also announced that Dean Slayton, a defensive coach on the staff of Jerry Moore, who was fired as Tech coach in late November, had agreed to stay on with the new regime.

Mize, 39, was a member of Fred Akers' Texas staff for the past nine seasons. As West Texas recruiter, he lured such players as Jerry Gray and Tony Degrate to the UT campus. He coached the offensive line before moving to defensive tackles this past season.

Mize was a high school coach in Arkansas and was on the coaching staffs of Texas A&M and West Texas State before going to the University of Texas.

"I am happy we can get the caliber of coaches we are getting," McWilliams said. "John Mize is impressive both on the field and in the recruiting arena, and everybody knows what kind of job Dean Slayton has done with the Raider defense the past few years."

Slayton, 49, who has also coached at Texas-El Paso, Howard Payne and North Texas State, became a member of Moore's staff in his new regime.

McWilliams announced Monday that Tech assistants Spike Dick Winder and Clarence Jones had agreed to remain. McWilliams said shortly after his hiring on Monday that Carlos Mainord and G. Hale had agreed to join his staff.

Dykes coached with McWilliams at Texas for five years before being head coach at Midland Lutheran School, a job he left to join the Tech staff.

McWilliams said specific duties of his new staff have not been assigned.
