Spurs tame Mavs in fourth, 120-116

Associated Press

DALLAS — Artis Gilmore and Alvin Robertson hit clutch baskets in the closing minutes Thursday night to lead the San Antonio Spurs to a 120-116 National Basketball Association victory over the Dallas Mavericks.

The loss broke a six-game winning streak for Dallas, 10-8, which has won eight of their last 10 games. San Antonio is 11-9.

Dallas held a 105-104 lead with 3:07 left in the game when the Spurs scored seven unanswered points to lead, 111-105.

After Marc Iavaroni hit two free throws, Robertson stole an errant Dallas pass and scored on a layup. Dallas didn't score on its next possession and Gilmore scored from underneath and made a free throw when he was fouled on the play.

Dallas managed to close it to 115-112 with 30 seconds left when Derek Harper hit a 30-footer.

After Mark Aguirre made only one of two free throws, Iavaroni made two from the free-throw line with 18 seconds left for a 117-113 lead and Gilmore scored from underneath with three seconds left.

Brad Davis hit a 3-pointer for Dallas at the final buzzer.

Gilmore and forward Mike Mitchell led the Spurs with 25 and 21 points, respectively. Aguirre had 29 and Harper 26 for Dallas.

The game was tied six times and the lead changed hands 26 times.

The Spurs started out like they would make the game a rout, hitting their first nine shots to take an 18-4 lead at 8:27 of the first quarter. But the Mavericks began to peck away at the lead. When Harper hit a 35-footer at the buzzer, San Antonio led, 32-31.

Oklahoma nose guard wins '85 Lombardi

Associated Press

HOUSTON — Oklahoma nose guard Tony Casillas was named Thursday night as the 1985 winner of the Lombardi Award, which annually goes to the player deemed as the nation's top collegiate lineman.

Casillas, a 6-foot-3, 280-pound senior, had 35 tackles, four for losses and two quarterback sacks in seven games this year for the Sooners, who play Southern Methodist Saturday. He missed two games with an injury.

Other finalists for the trophy, presented in honor of the late National Football League coach Vince Lombardi, were Boston College nose guard Mike Ruth, Oklahoma State defensive tackle Leslie O'Neal and Michigan defensive tackle Mike Hammerstein.

Lombardi, who coached the Green Bay Packers and the Washington Redskins, died in September 1970 of cancer.

The Downtown Rotary Club of Houston presents the award at a benefit dinner, with the proceeds going to the American Cancer Society for cancer research. Officials said this year's benefit will raise the event's contributions over the $1 million mark.

Virginia Tech's Bruce Smith, the NFL's No. 1 overall pick by the Buffalo Bills, earlier won the Outland Trophy, given to the nation's top interior lineman.

Smith was not a finalist for the Lombardi Award.

Hammerstein, 6-3, 265, led Michigan in tackles for losses this season with 22 drops for 110 yards. The senior defensive end also added 73 tackles, had nine quarterback sacks for 53 yards in losses, one fumble recovery and one interception.

O'Neal, a 6-4, 249 senior defensive tackle, had 93 tackles, nine quarterback sacks and 15 tackles for losses to key the Oklahoma State defense.

Ruth, a 6-2, 268-pound senior nose guard, had 126 tackles for Boston College, 12 quarterback sacks, one interception and two forced fumbles.
