AP All-America team selects Ags' Holland

From Staff and Wire Reports

Texas A&M linebacker Johnny Holland was named to the 1985 Associated Press All-America team Monday.

Holland, a 219-pound junior from Hempstead, averaged 15 tackles per game for the Aggies, who captured their first Southwest Conference title in 18 years this season.

Michigan State running back Lorenzo White and Oklahoma linebacker Brian Bosworth, two of the best sophomores to come along in recent years, also were among the list of elites.

They were joined on the team by Heisman Trophy-winning tailback Bo Jackson of Auburn and Lombardi Award recipient Tony Casillas, Oklahoma's brilliant nose guard.

It was the second appearance on the first team for Jackson, who made it in 1983 but missed out a year ago when he was limited to six games because of a shoulder injury, and Casillas, one of six repeaters from last season.

The other repeaters from 1984 are Illinois wide receiver David Williams and UCLA placekicker John Lee on offense and Oklahoma State tackle Leslie O'Neal, Iowa linebacker Larry Station and Arizona State defensive back David Fulcher on defense.

In addition, Miami (Fla.) tight end Willie Smith and West Virginia offensive tackle Brian Jozwiak moved up from the second team a year ago — as did Bosworth — while defensive tackle Tim Green of Syracuse was on the third team in 1984.

The rest of the All-America offensive unit consists of wide receiver Tim McGee of Tennessee, offensive tackle Jim Dombrowski of Virginia, guards Jeff Bregel of Southern California and John Riensche of Temple, center Pete Anderson of Georgia and quarterback Chuck Long of Iowa.

Rounding out the defensive squad are linemen Mike Hammerstein of Michigan, linebackers Michael Brooks of LSU, deep backs Thomas Everett of Baylor and Mark Moore of Oklahoma State, and punter Barry Helton of Colorado.

White burst upon the scene and led the nation in rushing with a Big Ten-record 1,908 yards, an average of 173.5 yards per game. Jackson, the early-season leader, was hampered by nagging injuries in several games and finished third with 162.4 yards a game, and a total of 1,786 rushing yards.

White and Jackson finished fourth and fifth, respectively, in all-purpose rushing.

Long was the nation's third-ranked passer, completing 231 of 351 passes for 2,978 yards and 26 touchdowns in leading Iowa to its first outright Big Ten championship in 27 years.

Williams caught 85 passes for 1,047 yards, while McGee grabbed 50 for 947 yards. Smith, Miami's all-time reception leader, caught 48 for 669 yards.

The team was selected by the AP's regional sports editors, along with the college football editor and the sports editor, from all-conference and all-sectional lists.
