Pacers nix Spurs with hot bench
Indiana subs key win with 46 points

Associated Press

INDIANAPOLIS — Rookie Wayman Tisdale scored a season-high 28 points and Quinn Buckner sparked a 46-point effort by the Indiana bench Wednesday as the Pacers downed San Antonio 114-101 in National Basketball Association action.

Johnny Moore scored a game-high 30 points for the Spurs.

Indiana led 31-26 with 1:26 left in the opening quarter when Buckner entered the game. He had four points, three rebounds, two assists and a steal during seven minutes of the first half and Indiana led 48-37 when he returned to the bench.

Steve Stipanovich, who did not start, contributed 15 points to an Indiana offense that scored only 64 points the previous night — the lowest point production in the franchise's history.

Six Pacers finished in double figures, including Buckner who had 11.

The Pacers led 38-33 before Terence Stansbury, who came off the bench to score 11, ignited a 10-2 Indiana spurt. Stansbury had four in the streak and the Spurs never drew closer than 11 again. Indiana led 65-52 at halftime. A Mike Mitchell layup with 9:50 to play in the third quarter pulled San Antonio to within 11, but the Pacers pulled away to lead by 18 after three periods and were never challenged in the fourth quarter when Tisdale had 10 of his points.

The victory gave Indiana a 6-16 record, while San Antonio dropped to 13-11.

Pokes, Giants both feel pressures of title game

Associated Press

IRVING — The New York Giants and the Dallas Cowboys clear up the muddled National Conference Eastern Division title picture on Sunday in a high noon shootout in Texas Stadium.

The Cowboys, who edged the Giants 30-29 on Oct. 6, can clinch their first NFC East title since 1981 with a victory.

A victory by the Giants would assure them a playoff berth and put them in prime position to win the division. Both teams go into the game with 9-5 records.

Dallas comes into the game off a 50-24 battering by Cincinnati, while the Giants beat Houston 35-14 in the Astrodome last Sunday.

In the earlier meeting, the Giants were victimized by quarterback Phil Simms' fumble in the final minute of play, allowing a game-winning field goal by Rafael Septien.

Running back Joe Morris of the Giants has been on a late-season tear and leads the National Football League with 17 touchdowns. In his last seven games, Morris has rushed for 717 yards on 142 carries for a 5.1 average and has scored 14 touchdowns.

New York Coach Bill Parcells said the addition of George Adams at running back has helped lighten the load on Morris.

"Joe is not a big guy and getting George into the game has allowed Joe to keep a full tank of gas," Parcells said. "Our running game is a lot better than it was last year."

Dallas Coach Tom Landry agreed.

"Morris has been a big producer," Landry said. "He's been tough and has taken some heat off Simms and the Giants' passing game. He's the hottest running back in the league."

Parcells said he wasn't taking any solace in the clobbering of the Cowboys by the Bengals.

"I wasn't heartened by what happened because I know Dallas respond like they always have," Parcells said. "What happened to us has happened to all of us."

Landry said, "We're excited but we should be ready."

Dallas defensive end Bill "The Tall" Jones said, "We've worked hard all year to get into this game. We don't want to blow it now."

The Cowboys are field goalites despite the cataclysm in Cincinnati. It was the most points by the Cowboys in 15 years of their third highest point total ever again then.

"There's a ton of pressure now and maybe that's what we needed," said Cowboys defensive tackle John Dutton. "Morris needed the Cincinnati game soon as we think we're getting good, it seems like we ease up."

Dallas running back Tony Stewart said the current Cowboys are mystified.

"I don't understand this," Dorset said.

Dallas holds a 31-13-2 record over the Giants.

Coach suing Dartmouth to retain job

Associated Press

HANOVER, N.H. — With Joe Paterno and Jack Bicknell among those lined up with him, football coach Joe Yukica is ready to make an unusual goal-line stand to try to keep his post at Dartmouth College.

Yukica, who was fired Nov. 29 after eight seasons at the Ivy League school, has sued Athletic Director Ted Leland, hoping for a court decision that would allow him to continue as coach for the 1½ years left on his contract.

It is the first time Yukica has been fired in almost 33 years of coaching, and said he knows of no other fired coach who sued to get his job back.

Yukica doesn't see his suit as a landmark case; he just wants to fulfill his contract.

"There is a purpose to a contract," Yukica said. "I think they owe me that year to coach. The contract says explicitly 'head football coach.'"

Leland has said Dartmouth will honor the financial arrangements of the contract, but will get another coach for the 1986 season. He declined further comment, but his lawyer, Thomas Rath of Concord, called the case straightforward.

"We say you do not get specific performance in personal service contracts," Rath said. "The contract says head football coach, but the remedy if Dartmouth wants him to leave is we have to pay him. His contract is not a term of office."

Rath pointed out that from his research, no one has ever questioned such a firing before, and "that tells you something" about the suit.

Yukica has asked the County Superior Court to issue a temporary injunction preventing Dartmouth from hiring a new coach.

A hearing has been set in Haverhill, and Yukica has old friends Joe Paterno, Penn State's top-ranked college football team, and Coach Jack of Boston College to testify
