

Rockets end Kings' reign at 3 games

Associated Press
HOUSTON — Houston's Akeem Olajuwon and Robert Reid took up scoring slack for Ralph Sampson, who was ejected from the game, and led the Rockets to a 124-107 victory over the Sacramento Kings Thursday night.

The victory snapped the Kings' winning streak at three and gave the Rockets a 22-1 home court record this season.

Olajuwon, playing with four fouls throughout the fourth quarter, scored 22 points and Reid led all scorers with 23 points.

LaSalle Thompson led the Kings with 22 points and Eddie Johnson added 21, including 13 in the second half.

Sampson helped the Rockets to a 59-53 halftime lead with 12 points and five rebounds but he was ejected with 7:05 to go in the third quarter after receiving two technical fouls.

Sacramento's Otis Thorpe received a technical moments earlier after scuffling with Sampson under the Rockets' basket.

Sampson then fouled Thorpe and was ejected when he protested.

Despite Sampson's departure, the Rockets pulled to a 98-85 lead at the end of the third period and spurred to a 105-87 margin early in the fourth quarter, and continued to expand the lead.

Green grabs lead in Phoenix Open

Associated Press
PHOENIX — PGA champion Hubert Green birdied his last hole for an 8-under-par 63 and a one-stroke lead in the first round Thursday of the $500,000 Phoenix Open Golf Tournament.

"A fun round of golf," said the 39-year-old veteran, who scored his 19th career victory in the 1985 PGA national championship. "I'm close to doing it the way I want to."

Green scattered nine birdies across his card, including a 20-footer on his last hole at the Phoenix Country Club that gave him sole possession of the top spot.

A single stroke back at 64 was a starchy group made up of the defending title-holder, Calvin Peete, former PGA champ Hal Sutton, the white-haired Australian Greg Norman and Larry Mize.

Norman, the massive hitter who has come to be known as the "Great White Shark," inadvertently violated a standard of golf etiquette when he drove the green on a par-4 hole, hitting into a crouched Jack Nicklaus.

Nicklaus was hunkered over a birdie putt when Norman's drive trickled across the green on the 320-yard hole.

"I saw the ball out of the corner of my eye, and stepped back from the putt. It was no big deal," said Nicklaus.

2 golfers tied at Mazda Classic

BOCA RATON, Fla. — Betsy King and Judy Dickinson scored 4-under par 68s Thursday to tie for the first-round lead in the $200,000 Mazda Classic, the opening tournament on the LPGA's 1986 schedule.

King and Dickinson were one stroke ahead of veteran Beth Daniel and two young players who have yet to win an event, Australian Jane Crafter and rookie Tammy Frederickson.

Nine players are tied at 70, including three former champions. Hollis Stacy, who won last year and in 1982, is joined at 2-under by 1981 winner Sandra Palmer, 1984 winner Silvia Bertolaccini of Argentina and Robin Walton.

Pat Bradley, runner-up to Nancy Lopez for 1985 Player of the Year, was one of 11 players at 72.

JoAnne Carner, within $68,810 of becoming the LPGA's first career $2 million winner, is in a large pack at 73.
