

Sports

Sherrill takes verbal swipe at Paterno for past remark

Associated Press
 PITTSBURGH — Texas A&M Coach Jackie Sherrill, former head coach at the University of Pittsburgh, used an appearance at a sports banquet to take a verbal shot at longtime rival Joe Paterno.
 Sherrill hinted he remains upset at remarks made several years ago when Paterno said he wasn't ready to retire from his head coaching job at Penn State because that would leave college football in the hands of "the Barry Switzers and Jackie Sherrills."
 Paterno apologized to Switzer before the Jan. 1 Orange Bowl, when Oklahoma defeated Penn

State to win the national championship.
 Paterno said he made the remark at what was supposed to be an off-the-record gathering with reporters and that he did not know Switzer at the time.
 Sherrill, speaking Sunday at the 50th annual Dapper Dan sports banquet in Pittsburgh, said he has never received an apology from Paterno.
 "Some years ago, Joe Paterno made a statement about the Barry Switzers and Jackie Sherrills of college football," Sherrill said. "Barry Switzer got a letter of apology this year. I guess I have to beat Penn State in a bowl game to get my letter."

Lady Ags crush Frogs, 97-79

Jordan highlights A&M attack with 19 points

FORT WORTH — The Texas A&M women's basketball team improved its chances for a Southwest Conference postseason tournament bid with a 97-79 win over TCU at Daniel-Meyer Coliseum Tuesday night.
 Although A&M top scorer Lisa Langston failed to hit double figures, the Lady Aggies (14-9 overall, 7-4 in SWC) had four players who did.
 Freshman center Lisa Jordan led the Lady Ags scoring attack with 19 points.
 Aggie center Nette Garrett had 17 points while junior forward Paula Crutcher added 13 points and pulled down nine rebounds.
 Sophomore forward Evelyn Sanders tossed in 11 for the Aggies, while guard Beth Young led in the assists department with four.
 All five Horned Frog starters scored in double figures with Terri Janak and Carol Glover leading the way with 14 apiece.

 But the Lady Aggies were never in trouble in the game as they raced to a 52-38 halftime lead.
 The Horned Frogs (5-18, 1-11) were outrebounded 50-36 in the game and had 25 turnovers compared to A&M's 18.
 With the win over TCU, the Lady Aggies gained a solid hold on fourth place in the conference.
 A&M is now ready for the stretch run to the SWC Tournament in March.
 That begins with their next game which is against the nation's No. 1 team, Texas, Saturday night in Austin.
 Following the trip to Austin, the Aggies will host Texas Tech Feb. 18 and Houston on Feb. 22 before winding up with two road games to Rice and Arkansas.

A&M's Lisa Jordan

A warm comedy that poses serious questions when a peace-loving Quaker family must take sides in the Civil War, 1956.

Friendly Persuasion

Wed., Feb. 12, 1986, 7:30p.m.
 Rudder 701, $1.50

co-sponsored by Agriculture/Liberal Arts Project let us entertain you.

SUMMER OR FALL 1986 INTERNSHIPS

WALT DISNEY WORLD Representatives will present an information session on the WALT DISNEY WORLD College Program on Thursday, February 13 at 6:30 pm in Room 110-Harrington. (HECC)

You MUST be present at the information session on Thursday to sign up for interviews which will be conducted on Friday, February 14, 1986.

The interviews are open only to those students in the specified majors who are interested in an internship assignment at WALT DISNEY WORLD in Florida, this summer or fall semester.

There will be 500 students employed from colleges throughout the U.S. during the summer and 200 students employed for the fall semester. This internship is only for one semester. Additional details can be obtained in the CO-OP OFFICE, Room 107 Harrington Tower, or by calling the following people.

MAJOR	CONTACT	PHONE
JOUR, SCOM, THAR	Ann Baum	845-5295
MGMT, MKTG	Wayne Terrell	845-7725
REPK	Dave Worley	845-7725

AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

The Myriad Challenges of

THE MIDDLE EAST

M S C S C O N A

Presents:

9:00 a.m. Thursday, February 13

"Economics"
 Dr. Odeh Aburdene
 Arab Bank, Ltd.

1:30 p.m. Thursday, February 13

"Modernization and Islamic Revival"
 Dr. John Williams
 University of Texas

Dr. Andrew Hess
 Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy at Tufts University

Dr. Elizabeth Fernea
 University of Texas

Judith Kipper
 American Enterprise Institute for Public Policy Research-
 Moderator

All speeches in Rudder Theatre and open to the Public.