Connors nips Noah at Lipton tourney

BOCA RATON, Fla. - Jimmy Connors, defying his own age and his opponent's powerful serve, out-slugged Yannick Noah in a four-set quarterfinal match Wednesday at the $1.8 million Lipton International tennis championships.

After losing the first set, Connors, 33, came back to outlast the 25-year-old Noah 5-7, 6-4, 7-6, 6-4 in a 3-hour, 48-minute battle. Noah served 30 aces to one for Connors, but Connors hit his when it counted - at match point.

The other quarterfinals were much less exciting as top-seeded Ivan Lendl of Czechoslovakia waltzed past 10th-seeded Joakim Nystrom of Sweden 6-1, 6-1, 6-4, and fifth-seeded Stefan Edberg of Sweden pounded unseeded Milan Srejber of Czechoslovakia 6-1, 6-0,

The final semifinal berth was decided at night when second-seeded Mats Wilander of Sweden shook off a first-set scare to beat unseeded Guy Forget of France 5-7, 6-4, 6-4,

The women had Wednesday off, with their semifinals set for Thursday pitting top-seeded Chris Evert Lloyd against No. 9 seed Kathy Rinaldi and No. 2 Steffi Graf of West Germany against No. 7 Helena Sukova of West Germany.

Connors was broken in the 11th game of a tight first set, and Noah closed out the set with an ace.

After the two traded service breaks early in the second set, Noah hit two weak forehands from the baseline and a forehand volley into the net in the 10th game to give Connors the second set.

Bucks take 6th straight, maul Mavs

Associated Press

DALLAS - Paul Pressey scored 26 points and Alton Lister and Sidney Moncrief added 17 each Wednesday night at Reunion Arena as Milwaukee routed the Dallas Mavericks 124-107.

It was the sixth consecutive NBA victory for the Central Division-leading Bucks, who improved their season record to 38-18.

Milwaukee, ahead 95-85 entering the fourth quarter, quickly clinched the victory by outscoring Dallas 21-4 over the first five minutes of the final period.

The Mavericks' problems were compounded by the loss of leading scorer Mark Aguirre, who was ejected with his second technical foul with 7:12 to play.

lando Blackman, lost for only the third time in 13 games and saw its record drop to 29-24 on the season.

The Bucks led 26-18 late in the first quarter, but Dallas went ahead with a 10-0 spurt. But Milwaukee regained the lead and the Mavericks trailed 57-53 at the half.

With Moncrief leading the way man in the quarter, still trailed by 10 with eight points, Milwaukee made a going into the final period.

Glanville ditches last 'alibi' for Oilers' playoff absence

HOUSTON — Formation of a new Houston Oilers coaching staff removed the final alibi for not producing a National Football League playoff contender in 1986, Coach Jerry Glanville said Wednesday.

While introducing his new staff, Glanville said team owner Bud Ad-ams and General Manager Ladd Herzeg "have taken away all the alibis for not winning."

"These coaches all come from good backgrounds," he said. "The Houston Öilers are out of alibis. Now it's time to go get the job done.'

Glanville signed a five-year contract as coach on Jan. 20, replacing Hugh Campbell, who was fired with two games remaining in the 1985 season. The Oilers finished 5-11.

One of the reasons Herzeg gave for hiring Glanville was his ability to put together a staff of veteran NFL Glanville brought that staff together for the first time Wednesday. He spelled out the special talents of each coach but kept titles to a mini-

Spurs' guard still hears yells despite his hustle

SAN ANTONIO - As Alvin

Robertson of the San Antonio Spurs was on his way to becoming only the second player in NBA history to accomplish a "quadruple double," he heard a familiar sound.

Spurs Coach Cotton Fitzsimmons was yelling at him for mental mis-

"I get after (Alvin) a lot out there," Fitzsimmons said after San Antonio's 120-114 victory over the Phoenix Suns Tuesday night. "One play at the end tonight he shoots the ball with 18 seconds left on the clock. Another time, he throws it into the

Robertson, in his second NBA Robertson, a 6-foot-4 guard out of the University of Arkansas, had 20 points, 10 assists, 10 steals and 11 rebounds against the Suns. He is the first player to reach double figures in those four statistical categories.

Previously, the only other NBA player to post a quadruple double was Nate Thurmond. Thurmond had 22 points, 14 rebounds, 13 assists and 12 blocked shots on open-the Chicago Bulls.

Robertson said the Fitzimm yelling doesn't bother him.
"Sometimes I can't believe things he's yelling out there," said. "I just shake my head, box it's funny. But I'm 23, I can hit. I'm used to coaches cusing screaming.'

Of the quadruple double, ertson said, "It's really nice, but my biggest satisfaction from We won, so I'm happy."

The victory was especially because the Suns had defeated Spurs three times previously

"What more can I say about vin?" Fitzsimmons asked. "The plays so hard every night. He battles for you.'

"Walter Davis (scored a lot por on me) the last time we play them," he said. "I was determined not to let that happen again.
