TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras (AP) — A U.S. Embassy spokesman said Thursday that about 1,500 Nicaraguan troops remained captured in Honduras by U.S.-backed Nicaraguan rebels and that some have been taken prisoner.

But a spokesman for the rebels who earlier claimed his forces had surrounded the Nicaraguan troops said Thursday he could not confirm that either rebels or the troops were in Honduras.

"We don't know anything," Dennis Perez, a spokesman for the Nicaraguan Democratic Force, the largest rebel group, told The Associated Press. "All the information we have on the matter comes from the government of Honduras and the government of the United States."

Honduran military sources have said up to 1,500 Nicaraguan soldiers entered the country Saturday in pursuit of the rebels, called Contras, but were trapped by them.

Nicaragua's Marxist Sandinista government denies its troops have crossed the rugged, ill-defined border.

There was no independent confirmation of the skirmishes. Journalists have been kept 17 miles from the scene of the reported fighting in Honduras.

U.S. Embassy spokesman Arthur Skop. "There are still Nicaraguan troops in Honduran territory. I do not know if some Sandinista soldiers have managed to return to Nicaragua."

He said some Nicaraguan soldiers had been taken prisoner, but he said he did not know how many. It was not clear whether Skop was referring to two young men the Honduran military presented at a news conference Wednesday.

The Honduran officials said the two men, who appeared frightened, were Sandinistas who were captured Monday inside Honduras.

On the Nicaraguan side of the border, a resident of Ocotul, 19 miles from the border and about 30 miles from the area in Honduras where fighting has been reported, said peasants were coming into town from the mountains, fleeing heavy fighting. The resident spoke on condition of anonymity for security reasons.

The Nicaraguan government says there has been heavy fighting in that area of Nicaragua during the past 10 days.

The Contra spokesman, Perez said, "Our sources are strictly officials in Tegucigalpa and Washington... and we second them. We cannot confirm if it is true or not that part of our troops are in Honduras combating the Sandinista army."

Libya holds march in streets to show Khadafy support

TRIPOLI, Libya (AP) — Marching bands led hundreds of Libyans through the streets of the capital Thursday night in support of their leader, Moammar Khadafy. Signs bobbing in the crowd said "To Hell With America."

The official news agency JANA said Walid Jumblatt, Lebanon's Druse Moslem militia leader, had offered "suicide squads" to help carry out Khadafy's threat of attacking U.S. "terrorist embassies" and other American targets.

State media issued calls for such action Wednesday in revenge for the U.S. Navy's actions earlier this week in the Gulf of Sidra.

Khadafy's aides summoned foreign journalists to a meeting Friday morning. The capital was rife with rumors that Col. Khadafy would sail out into the gulf as if chasing off the U.S. 6th Fleet.

American naval operations in the gulf ended Thursday morning, but Pentagon officials said the three-carrier battle group would remain nearby in the central Mediterranean for several days.

Confrontation between the Navy and Khadafy's forces began Monday, less than 24 hours after U.S. planes and ships entered the gulf with the avowed purpose of asserting international navigation rights.

Libya fired at least six surface-to-air missiles, according to Pentagon reports, and U.S. forces attacked Libyan patrol boats in response, sinking at least two. American planes also raided a radar-guided missile facility on shore.

Khadafy claims the entire Gulf of Sidra, but the United States insists it is international waters beyond the generally recognized 12-mile limit.

The noisy march in Tripoli also was intended to mark the 16th anniversary, on Friday, of Khadafy's expulsion of British military bases from the North African nation.

Some demonstrators carried large pictures of Khadafy. A banner written in Arabic read: "No to surrender and retreat. Yes to missiles and guns."

The official news agency said Jumblatt, the Lebanese Druse leader, sent Khadafy a telegram calling the gulf confrontation "your legitimate defense of the entire Arab nation" and saying his followers were prepared to act as "suicide squads."

"We announce that troops of our party stand ready to join the suicide squads to wreck the imperialists' interests anywhere and anytime," JANA quoted Jumblatt as saying.

Israeli jets bomb bases in Palestine

SIDON, Lebanon (AP) — Israeli warplanes bombed Palestinian bases near this southern port Thursday less than two hours after a rocket exploded in the schoolyard of an Israeli border town.

Police said at least 10 people were killed and 22 wounded in the air raid on the Ein el-Hilweh and Mieh-Mieh Palestinian refugee camps and the nearby hilltop village of Sirovhih.

It was the second Israeli air strike in Lebanon this year. Israeli jets hit guerrilla bases in Lebanon 13 times last year.

The Sidon camps are strongholds of Yasser Arafat's Fatah guerrillas, the main fighting group in his Palestine Liberation Organization.

Israel's military command said three students and a teacher were slightly injured by the Soviet-made Katyusha rocket guerrillas fired into the frontier town of Kiryat Shmone.

The raid was intended to warn the Palestinians to expect similar retaliation if cross-border attacks continue. Many Arafat loyalists have been returning to the Sidon area.

Prime Minister Rashid Karami of Lebanon, a Sunni Moslem, told reporters in Beirut, "Israel uses any excuse to attack the south."

AMC found negligent in Gremlin's design

JANESVILLE, Wis. (AP) — A jury on Thursday found American Motors Corp. negligent in designing gas tanks for its 1971 Gremlin and awarded $776,000 to a woman severely burned when the gas tank of a car she was in exploded.

Teresa Foster, 20, of Beloit had sought $3.5 million. Foster lost her ears, nose, eyebrows, hair and most of her fingers when the 1971 Gremlin she was riding in was hit from behind May 17, 1981, and the gas tank exploded. One passenger in the Gremlin died.

AMC spokesman Steve Harris said the company disagreed with the jury's verdict and is considering an appeal.

They said the company hastily designed the Gremlin with no firewall between the fuel filler pipe and the car's occupants, and with insufficient "crush space" between the fuel tank and rear bumper.

"I'm disappointed," said lawyer Frank Scherkenbach, who represented the Southfield, Mich. based automaker. "We have confidence in that product. It is hard to understand why the jury would find it or AMC at fault."

John Cabaniss, one of Foster's lawyers, called the car "a very dangerous product."

The Gremlin was struck from behind by an Oldsmobile Cutlass driven by Peter Borden of Beloit. Borden was convicted in December 1981 of homicide by intoxicated use of a motor vehicle.
