

Jays' Henke stifles Ranger rally in 9th

ARLINGTON (AP) — Toronto's Tom Henke shut down his former team, the Texas Rangers, again Thursday night.

Henke, who earned a save on Wednesday night, was credited with an 11-1 victory with two innings of perfect relief. He struck out the side in the eighth inning and set the Rangers down in order in the ninth.

Consecutive two-out homers by Willie Upshaw and George Bell in a three-inning eighth inning tagged Greg Harris, 0-1, with the loss.

Henke, who pitched for the Rangers in parts of three seasons, said, "I just threw strikes and they couldn't hit them. That's the name of the game."

The rally, which began when Garth Iorg singled with two out, Upshaw then homered to tie the game and Bell hit the game-winning over the wall at the 380-foot mark in left field.

"We've got a pretty good club again this year," Bell said. "We've proved we can come from behind."

The Rangers had taken a 10-8 lead in the bottom of the seventh on Don Slaught's two-run double off Steve Davis, the fourth Toronto pitcher.

Texas rookie Bobby Witt, making his major-league debut, lasted only 3 1/3 innings, walking six and yielding five hits and six runs, including a two-run homer by Cecil Fielder.

Toronto starter Jimmy Key lasted just one-third of an inning. He faced six leadbatters and four of them drilled extra-base hits as Texas took a 5-1 lead.

Oddibe McDowell and Toby Harrah doubled to start the bottom of the first. Pete O'Brien advanced Harrah to third with a pop-fly double and Pete Incaviglia got his first major-league RBI with a groundout.

Gary Ward singled Harrah home and Parrish tripled two runs across. Steve Buechele scored Parrish with the Rangers' fourth double of the inning. It came off reliever Dennis Lamp.

Yankees 6, Royals 5

NEW YORK (AP) — Pinch-hitter Dale Berra's bases-loaded suicide squeeze bunt-single with one out in the 10th inning scored Mike Easler as the New York Yankees rallied from an early five-run deficit and defeated the Kansas City Royals 6-5 Thursday.

Easler led off the 10th against rookie reliever Al Hargheheimer with a double to the base of the center-field wall. Easler went to third on a grounder and Mike Pagliarulo and Butch Wynegar were walked intentionally to load the bases.

Red Sox 4, Tigers 2

DETROIT (AP) — Doubles by Ed Romero and Bill Buckner and Jim Rice's two-run single keyed a four-run fifth inning and Al Nipper checked Detroit on four hits Thursday as the Boston Red Sox beat the Tigers 4-2.

A's 3, Twins 0

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Moose Haas pitched six-hit, shutout ball for 7 1/3 innings and rookie Jose Canseco hit a two-run homer to lead the Oakland A's past the Minnesota Twins 3-0 Thursday.

The A's, winning their first game of the season, scratched out their first run with the help of Dave Kingman's bunt single in the fourth inning. Canseco's homer in the seventh was the team's first of the year.

Brewers 8, White Sox 5

CHICAGO (AP) — Ernest Riles hit an opposite field-home run to climax a four-run, ninth-inning comeback Thursday as the Milwaukee Brewers defeated Chicago 8-5 to complete a three-game, season-opening series sweep of the White Sox.

With one out in the ninth, Mike Felder singled off Bob James, Chicago's fourth pitcher, and Robin Yount followed with his third hit of the game.

Orioles 5, Indians 1

BALTIMORE (AP) — Fred Lynn greeted Cleveland reliever Jamie Easterly with a tie-breaking three-run homer in the seventh inning. Rick Dempsey hit two home runs and Baltimore pitchers Ken Dixon and Rich Bordi held the Indians without an earned run as the Orioles posted a 5-1 victory Thursday night.

Lynn hit his first home run of the season on an 0-1 pitch with two out to put Baltimore in front 4-1.

Mariners 5, Angels 2

SEATTLE (AP) — Gorman Thomas and Alvin Davis hit consecutive home runs in the second inning and the Seattle Mariners downed the California Angels 5-2 Thursday night and spoiled Don Sutton's bid for his 296th career victory.

Seattle's Matt Young, 1-0, scattered six hits, walked two and struck out four.
