Jarryd bends Becker to win WCT Finals

DALLAS (AP) — Sweden's Anders Jarryd, a late tournament entry, downed an injured Boris Becker of West Germany 6-7, 6-1, 6-1, 6-4 Sunday to win the Buick WCT Finals.

Jarryd's $150,000 prize was the biggest of his career. He wouldn't have been in the tournament except for Ivan Lendl's knee injury which kept Lendl out of the tourney. Lendl is the world's No. 1 player.

Jarryd qualified by being the No. 9 ranked player in the world, although he hadn't won a tournament this year.

The second-seeded Becker gave a courageous performance on an injured leg, but couldn't overcome Jarryd.

Jarryd, who lost to Becker in the 1985 Wimbledon semifinals, led 5-1 in the one-hour first set, before his first service deserted him. Becker scrambled back to win the set on a 7-3 tiebreaker.

But the match quickly turned, when Jarryd broke Becker's service six straight times, taking the second and third sets almost without opposition.

Becker battled hard in the fourth set and fought off three match points before netting a backhand to give Jarryd the match.

"This is my best win ever," Jarryd said. "Boris couldn't serve well and couldn't hit the ball hard because of his injury."

It was Becker's third match in 48 hours and the fatigue showed.

"It wasn't fair to have to play three straight matches," Becker said. However, he refused to blame his injury for the loss.

"My injury isn't why I lost," he said. "Jarryd played a very good match. I gave it my best."

Nicklaus escapes pack to win his 6th Masters

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Jack Nicklaus, in perhaps the finest hour of a career unmatched in golf history, barged out of an international pack Sunday to score his sixth Masters victory in the 50th renewal of the revered tournament.

The legendary "Golden Bear," at 46 a frustrated non-winner for two seasons, turned back the clock with a 7-under-par 65, including a thundering 30 over the back nine at the Augusta National Golf Club course.

He did it the hard way. In one of the most dramatic tournaments in the history of this ancient game, he had to play his way past eight of the most accomplished performers in the game today.

That he won it on the strength of a last-hole bogey by the hawk-faced Australian Greg Norman detracted not at all from the drama of the tournament nor the magnitude of his accomplishment.

Norman, playing well behind Nicklaus on a sunny, hot spring day, was the last man to challenge.

He came surging up those final, hilly holes on a string of four consecutive birdies that began on the 14th. When Norman dropped a putt of about 15 feet on the 17th — with Nicklaus' round long finished and his 72-hole total of 279 on the board — Norman had achieved a tie for the lead at nine under par.

The powerful man known as "The Great White Shark" needed only a par on the 18th to tie and force a playoff. A birdie would win it.

But, with Nicklaus and his caddy-son Jack Jr. watching, Norman pushed his second shot into the gallery. Norman pitched down the slope to 18-20 feet, then missed the par putt and Nicklaus was a winner again in one of the greatest golf tournaments of all time.

Norman had a closing 70 for a 280 total. He was tied at that figure, a single stroke back, with Tom Kite. Kite, too, had a chance to tie, but missed a 15-foot birdie putt on the 72nd hole.

Kite and Norman were but two of the obstacles Nicklaus had to overcome.

At one time or another, Seve Ballesteros was there, and there was Bernhard Langer, the West German who was the defending champion; Corey Pavin, perhaps the best of America's young stars; Tom Watson, the five-time British Open champion trying to win his third Masters; and Nick Price, the South African who set a Masters scoring record the day before.

Ballesteros, who scored two eagles and, at one stage on the back nine held a two-stroke lead, hit into the water on the 15th and eventually finished fourth with a 70 and a 281 total.

Price, with a 71, was another shot back. Then came Watson, with a 71, and Jay Haas, who had an early 67.

Langer once had a piece of the lead in the early going, but got tangled up in the trees a couple of times, dropped back with bogeys on the eighth and ninth and finished with a double bogey. He had a 75 and a 286 total.

Flyers, North Stars remain alive in NHL playoffs

NEW YORK (AP) — Peter Zezel had three goals and an assist, and Tim Kerr scored twice and added an assist as the Philadelphia Flyers avoided elimination from the NHL playoffs with a 7-1 victory Sunday night over the New York Rangers.

The victory tied the best-of-five Patrick Division semifinal at 2-2, and sent the series back to Philadelphia for the deciding game Tuesday.

The Flyers made short work of New York with seven straight goals in the first and second periods.

After Pierre Larouche scored for the Rangers 4:15 into the contest, the rest of the game belonged to the Flyers as Zezel scored twice late in the first period, then contributed a goal and an assist to a five-goal second period that sealed the outcome.

NHL playoffs Sunday night with a 7-4 victory over the St. Louis Blues.

The North Stars' triumph forces a fifth game at Minnesota on Tuesday night to decide the best-of-five Norris Division semifinal series. The winner will play the Toronto Maple Leafs in the best-of-seven final.
