Houston considers discipline center for armed students

HOUSTON (AP) — The alarming number of guns and other weapons turning up on high school campuses has some administrators wanting to open a discipline center for students who come to class armed.

The discipline center for the Houston Independent School District would be for students who have been declared incorrigible because they came to school with a weapon, HISD officials say.

Such weapons include firearms, knives, spears, clubs, explosive devices, cattle prods, martial arts instruments, spiked bracelets and razors, officials say.

In one case, a 17-year-old student at Jones High School was shot by a 15-year-old student in a hallway after a quarrel between the two concerning the older youth's girlfriend. The shooting victim was not seriously injured in the shooting in late January.

Edith Moore, coordinator of a group of district officials charged with overseeing secondary school campuses, wrote a memo Tuesday to the district's superintendent proposing an alternative center for long-term disciplinary reassignment of students caught with weapons.

Moore wrote in another memo about the problem, "We are experiencing a rapid increase in the number of guns and other dangerous weapons on our secondary campuses."

Superintendent Bill Reagan said he supports such a proposal.

The staff "perceives a need and I will trust their judgment," Reagan said.

"We have been derelict in not having done it already," he said.

The school board would have to approve a plan for the discipline center.

Senior Weekend starts with bash on Friday

Senior Weekend '86 kicks off Friday with the Senior Bash at the Texas Hall of Fame from 8 p.m. to 1 a.m. Admission is $2.50 a person and the country/western band, The Shoppe, will provide entertainment.

The festivities, sponsored by the Class of '86, continue Saturday with the Senior Banquet, from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m., and Ring Dance, from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

The banquet will be held at the College Station Hilton, and tickets cost $30 a couple. A cocktail hour preceding the banquet also will be held at the Hilton from 6 p.m. to 7 p.m. Admission is free.

Ring Dance will immediately follow the banquet in the Memorial

Student Center Ballroom and Rudder Exhibit Hall. Tickets for the dance are $35 a couple. A contemporary music group, Xavion, will perform in the ballroom and the Ed Gurlach Orchestra will be featured in the Exhibit Hall.

Ring Dance pictures will be taken Saturday from 3 p.m. to midnight at Rudder Auditorium. Two packages will be offered: one for $8 and one for $14.

Students may save as much as $5 on Senior Weekend by purchasing a discount package for $65 a couple.

Ring Dance tickets are being sold at Rudder Box Office through Friday. Banquet tickets, which are also sold at the box office, will not be available after today.
