

AGGIEWOOD

CLASS OF 89
BALL

MAY 3,
1986
MSC
Ballroom

TICKETS ON SALE APRIL 28 - MAY 2 $12/couple

HEY OFF CAMPUS AGS!

If your lease ends in May, be sure to give your apartment manager a 30 DAY WRITTEN NOTICE OF YOUR INTENT TO VACATE the apartment, even if you are renewing your lease for the fall. Come by the Off Campus Center located in Puryear Hall or call 845-1741 if you have any questions.

Sponsored by the Off Campus Aggies and the Off Campus Center.

The $3.²⁸ Aggie Feast just flew in.

A special Flying Feast for Aggies who love feasting special. The Aggie Feast - A mouth watering, gut filling, hot, 3/4lb. Gutbuster* Deep Pan Pizza Slice (or 1/2lb. Sausage Slice) and your choice of a fresh, crisp salad with an ice cold bottle of Corona. Aggies that clip the coupon save 50¢. The Aggie Feast only from Flying Tomato - The Place to be.

*Gutbuster Slice is Flying Tomato's 3/4lb. Deep Pan Pizza slab with mushrooms, pepperoni, sausage, green pepper, onions and lotsa real cheese. Sound tempting? It's delicious.

Aggie Feast
$3.²⁸

with this coupon

Your choice of a Gutbuster or Sausage Slice, crisp salad and a bottle of cold Corona.

Expires 4-30-86 Not good with any other offers.

50¢ savings with this coupon

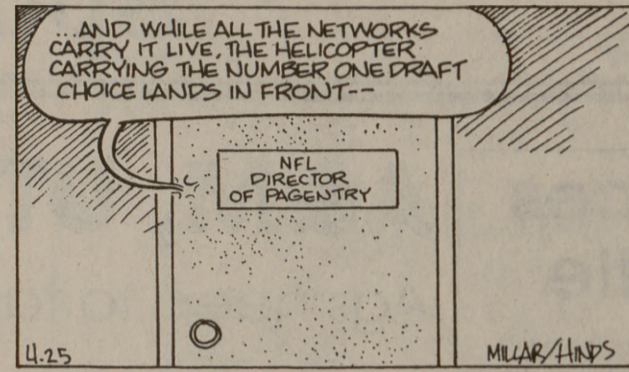

Flying Tomato
PIZZA PAN
303 W. UNIVERSITY • 846-1616

Dine-in, Drive-up • Open 11am daily • Featuring Deep Pan Pizza or Exotic Stuffed Pizza, whole or by the slice.

TM The Flying Tomato is a registered trademark © 1986 Flying Tomato Inc.

TANK McNAMARA®

by Jeff Millar & Bill Hinds

Ag women eye SWC title at conference tourney

By Ken Stry
Assistant Sports Editor

The Texas A&M women's tennis team will seek its first Southwest Conference title starting today in the SWC tennis championships at the H.E.B. Tennis Center in Corpus Christi.

The No. 17 Aggies completed two rain-delayed doubles matches with Texas Tech Thursday and enter the three-day tournament one match behind Texas in the SWC point race.

In the No. 1 doubles spot, A&M's Vane Akagi and Gave Lynne Gensler defeated Tech's Julie Hrebec and Cathy Carlson, 6-2, 7-5, while Aggies Laura Liong and Julie Vaughan lost to Petra Pennekamp and Annemarie Watson, 2-6, 6-4, 6-2 to finish regular season play.

A&M finished SWC round robin play at 49-23, behind UT's 50-22

mark. Texas has won the SWC championship all three years since a champion was determined.

But A&M Coach Bobby Kleinecke said he expects the tournament to be a dogfight because TCU, SMU and Houston are within four points of Texas. Both the Horned Frogs and Mustangs have 48-24 marks and Houston stands at 46-26.

Each match win in the postseason tourney counts one point toward the final standings.

In the tourney, each player or doubles team is seeded based upon their SWC record. A&M's No. 2 tandem of Kim Labuschagne and Karen Marshall, with an 8-0 SWC mark, is seeded No. 1 and have a 14-match winning streak on the line.

Labuschagne also will be gunning for a second singles championship as she won the No. 3 position last year.

The No. 23 A&M men also completed two rain-delayed matches against SMU Thursday, but lost both to the No. 1-ranked Mustangs.

At the No. 2 doubles spot, A&M's Kimmo Alkio and Marcel Vos lost to Den Bishop and Stefan Kruger, 7-6, 6-3 and Aggies Dean Johnson and Dean Goffine dropped to John Ross and Richey Reneberg, 6-7, 7-5, 6-2.

SMU is the odds-on favorite to clinch the championship as it has only lost eight SWC matches during the season and is seven points ahead of second-place Texas.

Vos also had to play a single match Thursday and qualified for the No. 3 singles bracket of the tourney. He defeated Texas Tech's Dick Bosse, 6-3, 6-3 to grab the No. 8 seed. Vos will play SMU's Stefan Kruger, who is ranked 16th in the nation, today in the first round.

Soto, Reds shut down Astros, 3-0

HOUSTON (AP) — Cincinnati's Mario Soto is pitching his best baseball in two years, according to Phil Garner of the Houston Astros.

"I haven't seen him throw like that in two years," Garner said after Soto pitched a three-hitter and led the Reds past Houston 3-0 Thursday night.

"He was in total control," Cincinnati Manager Pete Rose said. "He's a stopper."

Soto, who was a disappointing 12-15 last season, struck out five and walked three as the Reds snapped a four-game losing streak. Soto, 2-1, allowed singles to Craig Reynolds in the third and eighth innings, and an infield hit to Garner in the ninth.

"You don't need to strike out that many men to be effective," Rose said. "I know Mario would rather throw a game like tonight than strike out 10 and give up three runs."

Houston Manager Hal Lanier was equally impressed with Soto.

"You've got to take your hat off when someone pitches a game like that," Lanier said. "You just can't score many runs when you get three hits. He kept the ball down and he had a great changeup."

Nick Esasky hit a solo home run, his third of the year, in the fourth inning off Mike Madden, 1-1. The homer was Cincinnati's 12th of the year, one in each of its first 12 games, and left the Reds one short of the major-league team record for home runs in consecutive games that mark in 1984.

The Reds took a 1-0 lead in the third. Eric Davis doubled with one out, stole second and scored when second baseman Bill Doran threw away Dave Parker's two-out grounder for an error.

Ron Oester delivered an RBI single in the eighth, driving home Dave Concepcion, who had singled and stolen second.

Cubs 7, Expos 5

CHICAGO (AP) — Pitcher Rick Sutcliffe hit a three-run homer and Jerry Mumphrey hit one with the bases empty as the Chicago Cubs defeated the Montreal Expos 7-5 Thursday.

Sutcliffe, 1-3, capped a four-run sixth inning that broke open a 3-2 game with his home run. Mumphrey, a late insert in the lineup, had a pair of singles as well as his first homer.

It was the third straight victory for the Cubs, who had dropped seven of their first nine games. The loss

See National, page 9

Error allows Yankees to trip Indians, 2-1

NEW YORK (AP) — Bobby Meacham scored the tie-breaking run on a two-out error by Cleveland first baseman Pat Tabler in the fifth inning and the New York Yankees beat the Indians 2-1 Thursday night.

With the victory the Yankees secured an 11-4 start for the first time in 28 years.

Ron Guidry, 3-0, scattered 10 hits, all singles, and stolen bases by Rickey Henderson and Meacham set up both runs for the Yankees.

Guidry did not walk a batter and struck out four to move into second place on the Yankees' all-time list with 1,529, three more than Red Ruffing. Whitey Ford is the leader with 1,956.

The Yankees managed only five singles off Neal Heaton, 0-1, and reliever Ernie Camacho.

Mariners 3, A's 1

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Alvin Davis and Ken Phelps hit home runs, the only two hits allowed by Oakland's Jose Rijo in 8 1/2 innings, leading the Seattle Mariners over the A's 3-1 Thursday night. Rijo struck out 14 and came within two of the major-league record for strikeouts in two consecutive games, with a total of 30. Rijo, a 20-year-old right-hander, fanned 16 in eight-plus innings last Saturday night when he beat the Mariners in Seattle.

Nolan Ryan, with the 1974 California Angels, and Dwight Gooden of the 1984 New York Mets totaled 32 strikeouts over two games.

Winner Mark Langston, 1-2, and Karl Best gave up nine Oakland hits

The Body Shop

"We Tackle Tough Jobs"

Small cars to large rigs

Custom Paint and Body Work

INSURANCE CLAIMS WELCOME

FREE estimates
846-4177

2 mile W. on HWY60
THE BODY SHOP
Welcome Ln
Airport
Jersey
University
ATM CAMPUS
Texas Ave