Strange wins Houston Open

30-foot birdie putt downs Peete in sudden death

THE WOODLANDS (AP) — Curtis Strange emerged from Sunday's three-hole sudden-death playoff at the Houston Open with Calvin Peete happier than most golfers who had just won $90,000.

"To come in here with a mediocre opening round and not playing very sharp and to be sitting here now is a helluva feeling," said Strange, who ran in a 30-foot birdie putt to record his ninth career victory and second HO title.

"But I played well the last three days and I putted great today. I'm glad Calvin missed that last putt. I don't know if I could have played another hole or not." Peete, who had led or shared the lead throughout all four rounds, missed a 20-foot putt that would have extended the playoff to a fourth extra hole.

"I missed a few chances coming in and that's why we were in a playoff," said Peete, whose 20-foot putt for a birdie on 17 stopped at the lip. "I felt that I played good. I have no complaints. Curtis just played better."

Peete was short on several putts. "I wasn't playing defensively," he said. "I just hit a few bad shots. Playing against any top player, you can't beat them with pars."

Strange set a tour record in earnings last year of $542,321 but had not won on the tour this year.

"This gets the monkey off my back and permits me to accomplish some of the other things I want to do," said Strange, who also won the HO in 1980. "I was ready to get a tournament win behind me and get on with what I'm going to do."

Peete, losing the first playoff of his career, earned $54,000 for second place.

Strange and Peete went to first playoff hole deadlocked with 72-hole totals of 274, 14-under par.

Strange's tee shot on the par-4, 437-yard 18th hole sailed to the left but his second shot got him back into contention. Peete went from the fairway to the green on his second shot, but his birdie putt rolled just to the left of the cup.

Peete finished with a final-round 69 while Strange charged from three strokes off the pace with a 6-under-par 66.

Both players parred the first two playoff holes, the 177-yard, par-3 No. 16 and the par-4, 376-yard No. 17. Peete's 20-foot birdie putt on the second playoff hole stopped at the lip.

Peete started the day tied with Tom Watson and Jay Haas, with 11-under-par 205 totals.

Watson, who narrowly missed an eagle on 18 that would have tied him with the leaders, finished with a 1-under-par 71 and a 276 total. Haas finished with a 74 for 279.

Strange charged back into contention after he angrily broke his putter on the 13th hole Thursday and had to finish an even-par round of 72 putting with his pitching wedge.

Strange rallied for a pair of 68s Friday and Saturday and trailed the leaders by three strokes going into the final round. His 15-foot birdie putt on No. 17 Sunday pulled him even with Peete for the first time.

January-Littler hold on for Legends title

AUSTIN (AP) — Don January and Gene Littler shot a final round 64 Sunday to fend off the field and take a two-stroke victory in the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf.

The winners' four-round total of 25-under-par 255 beat the previous tournament record by two shots.

January and Littler, defending champs in the better-ball, senior tournament, edged Charlie Sifford and Jim Ferree by two strokes.

Chi Chi Rodriguez and Lee Elder were three shots off the pace.

Twenty-eight senior teams competed for $500,000 on the par-70, 6,367-yard Onion Creek Country Club course. The winners split $100,000.

Sifford and Ferree teamed Sunday for a 62. They closed to within a shot of January and Littler at the 14th, but shot par the rest of the way.

Elder and Rodriguez combined for a 63 Sunday that gave them a final score of 258.

They pulled to within a stroke of the winners after 10 holes. But Elder and Rodriguez added only one more back-nine birdie.

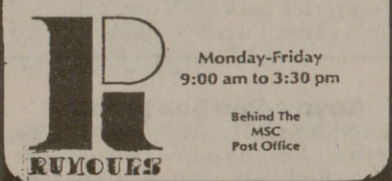

January and Littler started the day four shots ahead of Sifford and Ferree, Elder and Rodriguez, Leonard Thomson and Harold Henning, and Mike Fetchick and Bob Toski.

RUMOUR:

The largest silver mine in the world has been discovered by an oil exploration company near the edge of the TAMU Main campus. Efforts are being made to keep this secret for the next twelve months.

FACT:

The best foot-long hot dog in Texas is served at Rumours for $1.49 each. What a deal!
