UT replaces A&M at top of SWC

Aggies take 4th at SWC tournament

From Staff and Wire Reports

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — Much like the Texas A&M women's golf team earlier this week, the Aggie men's golf team finished its Southwest Conference season with a fourth-place finish at the conference tournament held this weekend at the Pleasant Valley Country Club.

Jim Sorenson, a senior transfer for TCU, shot a course-record 67 Sunday to win the individual.

Men's Golf

Competition and lead Texas Christian to its first ever SWC golf title. The Horned Frogs shot a three day total of 876, eight strokes better than Houston and Arkansas and 14 shots ahead of A&M.

The Aggies were led by senior Jorge Coghlan, who finished seventh individually at 219, and Jeff Maggett, who finished eighth at 220.

After Friday's opening round, A&M was tied for second with TCU and trailed defending champion Houston by five strokes.

Saturday, however, was not as kind to the Aggies, who had finished no better than seventh place in their last three tournaments. A&M tumbled to fourth place, while TCU made up three strokes on Houston and Arkansas to slip into third.

Sunday, it was all TCU. Sorenson made a crucial par on the ninth hole, then started the back nine with four straight birdies. His 213 total for 54 holes was 3-under-par and good enough for a three-shot victory over teammate Pete Jordan and UH's Steve Jackson.

"It seemed like we had knocked and knocked on the door all year long," Sorenson said. "We finally knocked it down. It was much more fulfilling to win the team than the individual championship."

AUSTIN — Anyone who has ever dropped jewelry down the drain and have it vanish forever, knows how No. 9 Texas A&M feels now after it saw its chances of winning the Southwest Conference baseball title washed away by No. 5 Texas over the weekend.

UT came into the three-game series one game off the pace in the SWC, but after this weekend's 3-1, 5-4 and 16-11 sweep of A&M at Disch-Falk Field, the Longhorns can breeze to their 57th SWC title in 70 years.

Baseball

Texas, now 48-9 overall and 15-3 in the SWC, needs any combination of A&M losses or Longhorn wins equalling "2" to clinch the conference crown.

Meanwhile, A&M, which fell to 36-21 and 13-5, can finish in second or third in the SWC, depending on the outcome of its next conference series this weekend against TCU.

A&M Coach Mark Johnson said the losses to UT were especially tough because the Aggies had their chances to win the final two games.

"(Texas) hit the ball well in the clutch," Johnson said. "They came through when they had to come through. You have to give them credit. They didn't quit. They kept coming back. We finally just ran out of gas."

"It's always tough to lose close ones. If you get blown out, you can kind of get use to it before the game's over. We didn't get a chance to do that."

A&M didn't get a chance to do much hitting either Friday night as Texas ace Greg Swindell manhandled the Aggies by pitching a four-hitter and striking out 11 in the 'Horns' 3-1 win.

With Texas' jewel out of the way Saturday, A&M appeared ready to move back into first place.

The Aggies got two quick runs for A&M starter Darryl Fry, who was in and out of trouble throughout the game.

But with A&M holding a precious 4-3 lead, Fry couldn't hold off the Texas charge as freshman Brian of Saturday's double-header. However, it wasn't enough as the Ags were swept 3-1, 5-4 and 16-11.

Johnson belted a game-tying home run to lead off the seventh.

Pat Wernig entered and immediately got himself into trouble, loading the bases on a single and two walks.

UT's Todd Haney, brother of former A&M outfielder Buddy Haney, missed a suicide squeeze bunt for the second out.

But with a 3-2 count on him, Haney sliced a liner to left, which just nicked the glove of a diving Jeff Schow. The ball fell in, giving Texas the 5-4 win.

If the first two games were wild, the finale was absolute bedlam — 27 runs, 26 hits, seven errors, three wild pitches, three hit batters and a balk.

The Aggies appeared to be in good shape, scoring six runs in the third inning and five in the fourth to take a comfortable 11-4 lead.

But Jay Searcy put the 'Horns back into the contest with a three-run blast off Wernig in the fourth. Texas got another run back in the fifth, and a two in the sixth to pull within 11-10.

The eighth was a disaster for the Ags, as they gave up six Texas runs.

Haney, who wasn't offered a scholarship by A&M, continued to haunt the Aggies, smashing a Barry Smith pitch over the scoreboard for a three-run homer, which gave the 'Horns the lead for good, 16-11.
