

MSC CEPHEID VARIABLE PRESENTS

DR. STRANGELOVE

7:30 and 9:45 IN 701 RUDDER
THURSDAY MAY, 1ST

$1.50

MSC Recreation presents

The Ed Bloese Memorial Billiards Tournament

MSC Bowling & Games Area

Friday, May 2 — 6:00 pm
 Saturday, May 3 — 9:00 am

Entry fee $3
 Register Friday at Site

Double Elimination tournament
 Men & Women's Divisions
 Everyone Welcome!
 Sign up in the Bowling & Games area

MSC INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS COMMITTEE

The MSC International Programs Committee is an organization that was developed to bring together individuals of diverse backgrounds, cultures, and interests from all areas of the world. Its purpose is to increase international awareness in all students and members of the Texas A&M community by promoting participation in international related programs. These programs will consist of cultural, educational, recreational, and entertainment-oriented events. IPC provides an inroad for international as well as domestic students to experience cultures different from their own.

GENERAL COMMITTEE MEETING
THURSDAY, MAY 1
501 RUDDER
8:30 p.m.

EVERYONE WELCOME

Willowick apartments

$49.00 Holds your apartment until you move in!

Why Wait?

Pre-Leasing Now for Fall/Spring

near campus near shopping
 near perfect apartments

502 Southwest Parkway College Station 693-1325
 M - F 8:30 - 5:30
 Sat. 4 - 10
 Sun. 1 - 4

The Advantage is yours with a Battalion Classified.
 Call 845-2611

TANK McNAMARA®

by Jeff Millar & Bill Hinds

...ALL THE TESTS ARE NEGATIVE. "AN ITCHY, VAGUE FEELING" ISN'T MUCH TO GO ON, MR. STEINBERGNER.

MILAR/HINDS

JUST A SHOT IN THE DARK: WHEN'S THE LAST TIME YOU FIRED A MANAGER?

I'D HAVE TO CHECK WITH MY SECRETARY WHY?

Tribe uses late innings to ease by Rangers, 6-5

ARLINGTON (AP) — Julio Franco doubled home Andy Allanson in the ninth inning as the Cleveland Indians rallied from a three-run deficit in the final two innings to defeat the Texas Rangers 6-5 Tuesday night.

Indians reliever Jim Kern, 1-1, pitched 1½ innings and got relief help from Ernie Camacho, who earned his fifth save. Greg Harris, 2-3, allowed five hits and four runs in 2½ innings.

The Tribe tied the game in the eighth when Mel Hall hitting for Carmen Castillo, hit a two-out three-run home run to right field. The homer scored Andre Thornton and Pat Tabler.

Oddibe McDowell had three hits, including a home run and a double for Texas.

The Indians opened the scoring in the first inning with two runs off Texas starter Mike Mason. Bret Butler led off with a double to the gap in right-center field and moved to third on a wild pitch. Franco's ground-out to short scored Butler. Joe Carter followed Franco with his fourth home run of the season to left.

The Rangers came back with a run in the second when Pete Inca-viglia scored from third base on Larry Parrish's sacrifice fly to left off starter Cleveland Ken Schrom. Inca-viglia opened the inning with a walk and moved to second on Gary Ward's single to right.

Tigers 2, Royals 1

DETROIT (AP) — Mike Laga's seventh-inning home run was the difference in a pitcher's duel between Detroit's Frank Tanana and Dennis Leonard of Kansas City, lifting the Tigers to a 2-1 victory over the Royals Tuesday night.

Orioles 8, White Sox 1

CHICAGO (AP) — Cal Ripken's two-run homer following Lee Lacy's two-run double in the seventh inning Tuesday night led Scott McGregor and the Baltimore Orioles to an 8-1 victory over the Chicago White Sox.

Angels 4, Blue Jays 3

TORONTO (AP) — Rick Burleson raced home from second on a fielder's choice ground out in the ninth inning to give the California Angels a 4-3 victory over the Toronto Blue Jays Tuesday night.

Yankees 14, Twins 11

NEW YORK (AP) — Rickey Herson singled and then hit a three-run homer, capping a nine-inning explosion in seventh inning Tuesday night that led the New York Yankees past the Minnesota Twins, 14-11.

Brewers 5, A's 4

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Billy Robidoux's bases-loaded single and Oakland reliever Jay Howell's none out in the bottom of the ninth inning lifted the Milwaukee Brewers to a 5-4 victory over the A's Tuesday night.

Red Sox 3, Mariners 1

BOSTON (AP) — Roger Clemens set a major-league record by striking out 20 Seattle batters and Dwight Evans hit a three-run home run to win two outs in the seventh inning as Boston Red Sox defeated the Mariners 3-1 Tuesday night.

Clemens, 4-0, allowed three hits and walked none.

Schmidt, Phillies wax Astros, 12-4

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Last year at this time, Mike Schmidt was hitting just over .200 with two home runs and eight RBI.

Tuesday night, Schmidt hit a three-run homer, his fifth, and drove in another run to stretch his league-leading RBI total to 19 as the Philadelphia Phillies defeated the Houston Astros 12-4.

"I think the reason for the good start is the result of good mechanics," said Schmidt, who is batting .328. "I've been trying to hit down through the ball. The fly balls I hit tonight were from not concentrating."

Schmidt's homer in the first inning off Nolan Ryan was his fifth career hit off the Houston pitcher. All have been home runs.

"He was struggling with his control and was behind me at 2-0. He gave me a fast ball down the middle and that's what I was looking for," Schmidt said.

Luis Aguayo also got a homer off Ryan in the Phillies' six-run first inning. Ryan, 3-3, lasted only one more inning.

Mets 10, Braves 5

ATLANTA (AP) — Darryl Strawberry hit a three-run homer in the sixth inning, putting the New York Mets ahead to stay, and they went on to extend their winning streak to 10 games with a 10-5 victory over the Atlanta Braves Tuesday.

Dodgers 5, Pirates 4

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Pinch-hitter Cesar Cedeno tripled home the tiebreaking run and then scored on Dave Anderson's single in the sixth inning Tuesday night, leading the Los Angeles Dodgers past the Pittsburgh Pirates 5-4.

Expos 7, Reds 4

CINCINNATI (AP) — Andre Dawson's sixth home run launched a four-homer barrage in the fourth inning against Mario Soto that lifted the Montreal Expos to a 7-4 victory Tuesday night over the struggling Cincinnati Reds.

Toney

(continued from page 9)

ney turned to watch himself on TV.

"The Eagles selected running back Anthony Toney from Texas A&M," ESPN's Paul Maguire announced as highlights of Toney flashed across the screen. "Anthony Toney is a strong running back — a good inside runner."

Former A&M teammate Ken Reeves, now a starting offensive lineman for the Eagles, entered the room.

"Ken, they want to talk to you," Toney said handing Reeves the phone.

"Yes, sir," Reeves said. "You got an old roommate of mine. He's going to make things happen."

"So what did Stiles tell you?" someone asked.

"He said, 'Congratulations,'" Toney said. "I said, 'For what?' He said, 'You don't know?' And I said, 'No.' He said, 'You're a Philadelphia Eagle now.'"

Then there was a flurry of phone calls offering Toney congratulations.

The local media wanted a reaction. The Philadelphia media wanted an immediate interview. Teammates streamed in and out of the room.

"It didn't matter what team picked me," Toney said. "I just wanted to go somewhere."

But when Philadelphia picked Byars in the first round, Toney thought he might be going elsewhere.

"I started wondering," he said. "You never can tell. Everyone kept saying Philadelphia, but when they took Byars, I figured I'd be going somewhere else. I didn't think they'd pick another running back."

"There were other teams that had shown interest. But you don't ever really know how interested a team really is."

His first reaction to the selection was relief and possibly a bit of disbelief.

"I feel pretty good right now," Toney smiled. "I went a lot higher than I thought. A lot of people said I might go in the first round, but I thought that was a little high for me. I feel like the second round is really good."

"When you're drafted that high there are a lot of things expected of you. I'll do the best I can to go into the play."

Toney, who will join former A&M players Reeves, Mark Dennard, Ernest Jackson and Matt Darwin with the Eagles, was asked by the Philadelphia media what he had to offer the Eagles.

"I run as hard as I can every play," Toney said. "I'm not the fastest back in the world, but I do what I'm asked to do. My blocking's not bad and I feel I can catch the ball out of the backfield."

Following that phone call, it was time to catch a plane for the "City of Brotherly Love" and more interviews.

PEKING EXPRESS

WE DO IT FAST AND FRESH!

GRAND OPENING

606 Tarrow (across from 24 HR Gyms)
 764-8960

FREE drink with meal. Bring this coupon (Apr. 29 to May 5).

small plate$2.79 (choice of 1 entree)
 large plate$3.39 (choice of 2 entrees)

Served with Egg Roll and Fried Rice.

Entrees: 1. Sweet & Sour Chicken. 5. Chicken Chop Suey.
 2. Sweet & Sour Pork. 6. Fry Chicken.
 3. Pepper Steak. 7. Cashew Chicken.
 4. Beef Broccoli. 8. La Tzu Gai Ding.

Hours 11-9:00 Drive thru 11-9:30

Basket Sense

Toiletry Gift Baskets For Mother's Day

In the MSC April 29, 31 & May 1

Shipping Available