HE'S ON "SABBATICAL"! CAN YOU BELIEVE THAT?? DOESN'T THAT LITTLE @#*%#! KNOW THAT PEOPLE HAVE DEADLINES?!

Braves' 4 homers snap Mets' 11-victory streak

ATLANTA (AP) — The Atlanta Braves hit four home runs, including shots by Bob Horner, Ozzie Virgil and Glenn Hubbard in the fourth inning, to down New York Thursday 7-2 and end the Mets' club record-tying 11-game winning streak.

Atlanta left-hander Zane Smith, 2-2, struck out a career-high 12 batters. Smith allowed five hits and walked five.

Terry Harper started the longball barrage with his first of the season, a two-run blow following a Horner walk in the second inning to erase a 1-0 Braves' deficit.

Harper, who had four hits in the game, also added an RBI single in the seventh.

Hubbard's blast chased New York starter Rick Aguilera, 0-2. In 1 1/2 innings this year, Aguilera has given up eight home runs.

Padres 4, Cardinals 3
SAN DIEGO (AP) — Carmelo Martinez homered and Eric Show combined with two relievers on a five-hitter Thursday, leading the San Diego Padres past the St. Louis Cardinals 4-3.

The loss was the 10th in the last 11 games for the Cardinals. San Diego won its third straight game.

Show, 1-2, pitched six innings, giving up two runs on four hits, and Craig Lefferts worked a hitless inning. Rich Gossage finished up for his fourth save, allowing a run in the ninth on Vince Coleman's third sacrifice fly of the game.

Martinez hit his second home run of the season in the eighth inning off reliever Pat Perry, giving San Diego a 4-2 lead.

Pirates 6, Giants 2
SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Johnny Ray drove in three runs with a double, single and sacrifice Thursday that gave the Pittsburgh Pirates a 6-2 triumph over the San Francisco Giants.

Ray, who went 2-for-3 and raised his average to .392, hit a run-scoring single in the eighth inning that snapped a 2-2 tie. The Pirates added two more runs later in the eighth and Ray delivered an RBI double in the ninth.

Ray has 21 RBI in his last six games.

Pittsburgh's Bob Walk, 1-0, got the victory with three innings of shutout relief.

Mike Krukow, 3-2, took the loss.

Twins' 7-4 win nixes Yankee Stadium hex

NEW YORK (AP) — Steve Lombardozzi and Tim Lardner delivered two-out singles for the tying and lead runs in the sixth inning after rookie catcher Phil Lombardi misplayed a foul pop as the Minnesota Twins defeated New York 7-4 Thursday night, snapping a nine-game losing streak at Yankee Stadium.

Minnesota's Kirby Puckett continued his sensational slugging with his ninth home run of the season, a three-run shot that gave the Twins a 3-0 lead in the third inning. Kent Hrbek and Gary Gaetti hit solo homers in the seventh and eighth innings.

Loser Dennis Rasmussen, 2-1, allowed only two hits in 5 1/2 innings. Juan Agosto, 1-2, picked up the win.

A's 7, Brewers 2
MILWAUKEE (AP) — Moose Haas scattered six hits through eight innings and became the first five-game winner in the majors this season as the Oakland A's defeated the Milwaukee Brewers 7-2 Thursday.

Oakland's Dwayne Murphy and Jose Canseco hit two-run homers to support the still unbeaten Haas, who was traded by the Brewers for four minor leaguers last month and was facing his former teammates for the first time.

The loser was Milwaukee starter Tim Leary, 2-2.

Red Sox 12, Mariners 2
BOSTON (AP) — Wade Boggs hit a two-run home and Dennis "Oil Can" Boyd scattered nine hits Thursday night as the Boston Red Sox extended Seattle's losing streak to six games with a 12-2 rout of the Mariners.

Bill Buckner capped Boston's five-run fourth inning with a two-run double and Steve Lyons drove two runs with a single and a triple as the Red Sox completed a sweep of their three-game series with the Mariners.

Boggs, Lyons and Marty Barrett had three hits apiece in the Boston win.

Backed by the heavy attack, Boyd breezed to an easy victory, evening his record to 2-2.

He allowed Steve Yeager's first American League homer in the fifth and struck out five and walked one. Bill Swift, 0-1, was the loser for Seattle.

Angels 7, Blue Jays 4
TORONTO (AP) — Brian Downing hit a triple and two doubles, driving home three runs Thursday night that led the California Angels to a 7-4 triumph over the Toronto Blue Jays.

Downing's two-run double in the fourth inning off Jimmy Key, 0-2, broke a 3-3 tie in a game played during winds that gusted up to 43 mph.
