

Canadiens' goalie robs Rangers 2-1

MONTREAL (AP) — Veterans Mats Naslund and Bob Gainey scored Montreal's goals and rookie goaltender Patrick Roy stymied the New York Rangers as the Canadiens took a 2-1 decision Thursday night in the opening game of the Wales Conference final.

The Canadiens, coming off a difficult seven-game Adams Division final with Hartford, showed they could shut down the Rangers, who managed 27 shots but few from close range.

When the Rangers did get near the net, Roy stopped them.

The rookie was especially strong in the final minute, robbing Willie Huber and Brian MacLellan as New York pressed for the tying goal.

Game 2 of the best-of-seven NHL series will be here Saturday night.

Bucks zap 76ers 119-107, even series

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Terry Cummings scored 10 of his 30 points in the fourth quarter, and Ricky Pierce scored six of his 16 points during a key third-quarter surge Thursday night as the Milwaukee Bucks defeated the Philadelphia 76ers 119-107 to even the best-of-seven NBA

Eastern Conference semifinal series at one game apiece. Milwaukee outscored Philadelphia 30-21 in the third period to take a 91-76 edge into the fourth period. Milwaukee led by as many as 17 points in the third quarter. The 76ers closed the gap to 106-97 with 3:45 left after a technical foul shot by Maurice Cheeks, but a strong Bucks defense and accurate free-throw shooting sealed the victory.

The Bucks jumped to an early 12-3 lead, led 30-23 at the end of the first period and 61-55 at halftime.

Pierce scored six points during a 13-3 spurt that stretched a 78-71 Milwaukee lead with 4:11 remaining to 91-74 with 34 seconds left in the third period.

Sidney Moncrief, Milwaukee's all-star guard, returned to the lineup after missing Game 1 with an injured left heel and scored 16 points.

Charles Barkley finished with 26 points, Julius Erving had 24 and Cheeks added 23 points for Philadelphia.

hex Celtics, Lakers persevering through playoffs

(AP) — The Boston Celtics and Los Angeles Lakers appear to be headed for another championship series showdown, and the only thing playing it is the long and tedious NBA playoff structure. If the Lakers and Celtics meet this year in the finals, it would be the first time they have done so. But to get there, both clubs are wading through three rounds of conference

Boston plays at Atlanta Friday night holding a two-games-to-none advantage over the Hawks in the best-of-seven Eastern Conference semifinals, while the Lakers are in Dallas, also with a 2-0 lead over the Mavericks in the Western Conference semis. In other semifinal conference play, Houston is on top of the Nuggets 2-0 heading into another Friday night matchup in Denver.

Despite having to go through the long playoff procedure, both the Celtics and Los Angeles seem to be enjoying the workout.

"I'm sure that I'll get a very warm welcome (in Atlanta)," quipped Danny Ainge, who was ejected from Tuesday night's game in Boston for scuffling with Hawks forward Scott Hastings. "I'm looking forward to the crowd reception. It'll get me fired up, and I'll want to play even more."

"I like it this way. I like it intense," said Lakers Coach Pat Riley following his club's 117-113 victory over the Mavericks Wednesday night.

"I think having a close game like this will help us," added Lakers forward Earvin "Magic" Johnson. Neither Boston nor the Lakers has lost in the playoffs.
