Detroit rips Texas with six-run fourth

ARLINGTON (AP) - Lance Parrish hit a pair of three-run homers Monday night, sparking the Detroit Tigers past the Texas Rangers 10-3 in a rain-delayed game.

Parrish capped a six-run outburst in the fourth inning with a home run off Jose Guzman, 1-5, and American hit his sixth homer of the season in the eighth off Dwayne Henry. Dan Petry, 2-2, gave up seven hits in eight innings for his first victory since April 14. Guzman, a rookie, lost his fifth straight game after winning his first decision. Detroit scored in the second inning on a double by Pat Sheridan and a single by Dave Collins, and Texas tied it in the third on Don Slaught's double and a single by Scott Fletcher. The start of the game was delayed 40 minutes by rain, and the Tigers broke it open in the fourth following another 25-minute rain delay. Guzman got two quick outs before rain halted play. After that delay, Larry Herndon walked and scored when Collins followed with a double. Lou Whitaker singled home Collins, and an error by third baseman Steve Buechele right-field seats for a 7-1 lead. Parrish's second homer, to left field, came in the eighth.

The Rangers scored a run in the bottom of the fourth on Pete Incaviglia's solo home run, his fourth of the year. Texas added another run in the seventh on Darrell Porter's

The victory enabled Cleveland to remain in first place in the American League East by 12 percentage points over New York.

Phil Niekro, 2-2, pitching in relief for the first time since 1984, picked up the victory.
