

Arizona rips Florida State for CWS title

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — Mike Sen and Gar Millay hit two-run home runs in the sixth inning and Gary Alexander pitched a seven-hitter as Arizona defeated Florida State 10-2 for the NCAA College World Series title Monday night.

It was the third national title for the fifth-ranked Wildcats, 49-19 on year. It was the second trip to the finals for the top-ranked Seminoles, who ended 61-13. Florida State lost to Southern Cal in a 15-inning championship game in 1970.

Alexander, 8-2, lost his shutout in the ninth when Luis Alicea led with a triple and Bien Figueroa singled him home. Ed Fulton singled Meroa with the second run before Alexander finished off his third complete game of the year.

There has not been a complete game shutout in the CWS title game since Jim Withers of Southern Cal pitched Oklahoma State 1-0 in 1961. Arizona started its title march by bringing unearned runs in the fourth and fifth for a 2-0 lead heading into the sixth inning.

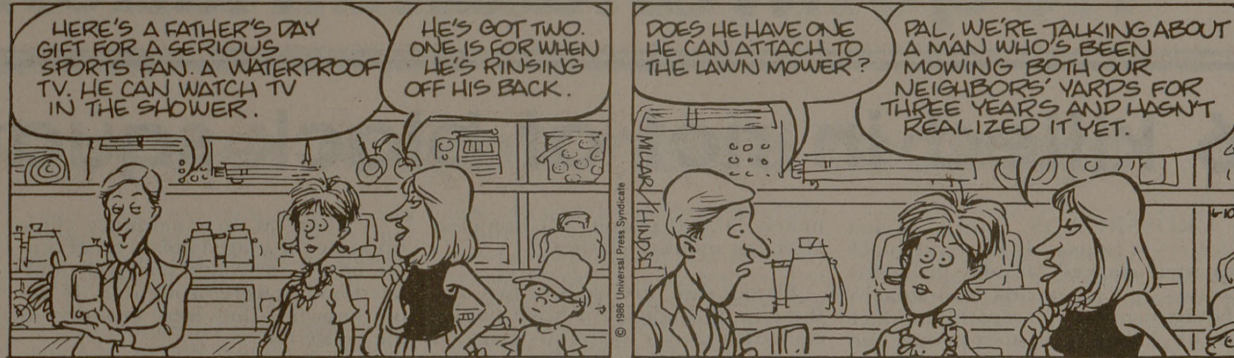

Florida State starter Mike Loynd, 8-3, gave up a leadoff double to Hal Hale in the sixth and left the lead to Richie Lewis, who had won 10 and saved two for the Seminoles in the tournament.

Lewis gave up the first two-run homer to Senne, his 11th of the year in the second of the CWS. Todd Traflet walked and one out later Millay hit his ninth homer of the year for a lead.

The Wildcats added three more in the seventh on five hits, including singles by Trafton and Millay and Tommy Hinz's steal of home. It was Millay's third hit of the game.

France, Soviet Union move to 2nd round of World Cup

MEXICO CITY (AP) — European powers France and the Soviet Union pitched shutouts Monday to secure places in the second round of the World Cup soccer championship.

The Soviets clinched first place in Group C with a 2-0 victory over Canada in Irapuato. France, the European champion, beat Hungary 3-0 at Leon.

Previously, Brazil and Denmark had made the second portion of the 24-team tournament.

While the Soviets await a third-place team from either Group A, B or F for a game Sunday in Leon, the French will have a one-week respite before facing the runner-up in Group A in Mexico City on June 17. That could be either Italy or Argentina, the winners of the last two Cups.

Hungary's only chance to move on would be as a third-place team — four of them advance — but its -7 goal differential just about precludes that.

The Soviets fielded a team of nine second-stringers against Canada, feeling it already was assured of moving on. The move nearly backfired as the plucky Canadians kept things scoreless for 57 minutes.

Tony Waiters, coach of Team Canada, picked the Soviets to make the semifinals, at least.

"They have to be taken very seriously and I think they'll reach the last four," Waiters predicted.

France went up 1-0 when Yannick Stopyra headed in a long centering pass by William Ayache. The Hungarians tried to open it up in the second half, but that is France's game. The French scored when Jean Tigana converted a superb give-and-go with Dominique Rocheteau, and again when Rocheteau converted Michel Platini's pass.

Tournament organizers said attendance at World Cup matches was running about 57 percent of stadium capacity, with the Latin American and Spanish teams the biggest draws.

FIFA suspended five players Monday resulting from poor conduct during first round competition. The British captain was banned for two games after throwing a ball at the referee in Saturday's scoreless tie against Morocco. Uruguay's Bossio was suspended from his team's next match against Scotland after being ejected for a foul in Sunday's 6-1 loss to Denmark.

Iraqi midfielders Basil Gorgis and Haris Mohammed were suspended for two matches for "insulting the referee" during and after a rough game against Belgium on Sunday.

Hit the hardest was Samir Shaker, an Iraqi defender, who was "suspended from all FIFA activities until further notice" because he "spat at the referee" following the Iraq-Belgium match.

3 Ags sign with baseball clubs

Texas A&M left-handed pitcher Russ Swan and All-Southwest Conference performers Dale Barry and Mike Scanlin, who were drafted one year ago in the collegiate baseball draft, have signed contracts with major league clubs.

Swan, who appeared in only 10 games this season and did not make the A&M traveling squad, was the first Aggie picked in this year's draft. He was 1-3 with a 5.14 ERA, and is selected in the 10th round by the San Francisco Giants.

Barry, who was named to the All-tournament team at the NCAA South II Regional in Tallahassee, Fla., was the ace of the Aggies' pitching staff this year with an 11-1 record and a 2.03 ERA.

Barry was drafted by the Baltimore Orioles in the 11th round. He signed late last week with the Orioles and reported to Florida for a week of training before being assigned to the Orioles' farm system. Barry, who was voted the C.E. Atkinson Outstanding Pitcher by his teammates, started 13 games, completed nine and earned two shutouts. He struck out 87 batters in 115 innings of work.

Centerfielder Scanlin, who almost wrote the entire A&M record book, was drafted in the 15th round by the Texas Rangers and signed late last week.

Scanlin was drafted in the 26th round in 1985 by the Seattle Mariners, but opted to stay at A&M for another year.

During his senior campaign, Scanlin broke 13 school records including 1st games (207), runs (170), runs batted in (170), home runs (43), total bases (425) and stolen bases (41) in a year.

He hit .327 this season with 20 homers, 65 RBI and 20 stolen bases. It was the first time in A&M history anyone has had 20 home runs and stolen bases in a season.

Scanlin was also voted co-winner of the Marion Pugh Most Valuable Player Award along with shortstop Ever Magallanes by his teammates.

Scanlin reported to Daytona Beach, Fla., Monday for rookie camp, but will return to A&M in the fall to continue working on his physical education degree.

Three other current Aggies were drafted in the late rounds of the draft, but are expected to return to defend the SWC title they won in 1986.

Sophomore third baseman Scott Livingstone was drafted by the New York Yankees, while juniors Darryl Fry and Magallanes were drafted by the New York Mets.

Four Aggie recruits have yet to decide whether to go pro or accept the scholarship offered them.

A&M's top recruit, outfielder Carl Sullivan of Brenham, was a second-round draft pick by the Chicago White Sox.

Shortstop Chuck Knoblauch of Houston Bellaire, pitcher Randy Pryor of Pearland and catcher Steve Piskor of Plano also were drafted out of high school.

Baseball Notes — The Bryan/College Station Cardinals, an amateur baseball team, are back for another season and will bring an 0-2 record into Wednesday's home opener against the New Ulm Firemen at 8 p.m. at Travis Park in Bryan.

The Cardinals feature A&M pitchers David Jones and Todd Overbergen as well as former Aggie stars, Fred Gegen and Kelly Keahey.

Ticket prices are $2 for adults and $1 for students.
