Wednesday, June 18, 1986/The Battalion/Page 7

hilly trades lalone to ashington

DUSTON (AP) - Nine-time sday by Philadelphia to its Atlan-Division rivals, the Washington ts, said he is happy to leave the because he felt stifled by the ning staff.

e 76ers traded the the 6-foot-Cliff Robinson in a deal that announced hours before the of the NBA draft.

'm going to love it. It's a great e. Washington's a great team."

alone averaged 23.8 points and e Milwaukee Bucks.

an me.

add so million contract with 76ers four s ago, said he had not wanted to "I'm 6ers decision.

n to make. But to get these two ity players we had to do it."

Malone, 31, and 6-6 forward y Catledge to Washington for 6-enter Jeff Ruland and 6-9 for-he coaches have been holding back from playing my game," one, a three-time Most Valuable r, said in Houston, his home. "I I could play better than I diast year."

rebounds last season. An in-d eye socket suffered near the of the regular season is still healaccording to Malone, who ed the last seven games of the lar season and the playoffs in h the 76ers were eliminated in Castern Conference semifinals think the situation will be much er in Washington than in Phila-bhia," Malone said, adding that was looking forward to playing 7-7 Manute Bol in Washington use "I'll have another center tal-in Philadelphia too long and an-ated being traded. Philadelphia ials had expected to have a diffitime reaching a new contract ment with Malone and he said ought finances played a part in think they (Philadelphia) made love on the basis of financial blems," he said.

have mixed emotions," Phila-hia owner Harold Katz said of ng Malone. "He has done a trelous job for us. It was a hard deay.

NBA Draft

(continued from page 6)

Id

ortedly was being recruited by isiana State Coach Dale Brown. rtland owner Larry Weinberg he Blazers "talked about doing year, but Atlanta got him. He 't a surprise to anyone who s basketball."

I, Weinberg, said, the Blazers throw if there's any hope of ac-y seeing Sabonis in a Portland

Mavericks

(continued from page 6)

have to get bigger," Sund said. "Tar-pley is a good shot blocker, an excel-lent rebounder and a good banger. I think he will help us get better. "I'm saying we do not have a deal."

deal. The Mavs did make a trade but it involved guard Mark Price of Georgia Tech who was picked at the

Rockets

(continued from page 6)

in Buck Johnson," Fitch said. "Buck Johnson, I think is a very impressive player. He plays with a great deal of intensity. We've happpy to have him

Johnson said he believes he can add some depth in the forward posi-tion and perhaps do some duty at

"I'm willing to do whatever the 50

urs

(continued from page 6)

The Spurs, who drafted at No. 10 in the first round after a 35-47 season, picked Eastern Illinois center Kevin Duckworth, 6-11, in the second round. Weiss described Duckworth as "a project" whose weight goes "up and down." Weiss said Dawkins was selected uniform. "If it (getting him out of the USSR) were a lock, he would have been first in the draft," Wein-

Joining Cleveland and Portland with two first-round picks were

The Bullets took 6-9 forward John Williams of LSU, the youngest player in the draft at 19, with the 12th pick and guard Anthony Jones of Nevada-Las Vegas No. 21.

Washington and Denver.

berg said.

Duckworth topped out at 330 from a group of finalists including management wants me to do - to wait or play right away," Johnson said.

"We feel Milt will make an excellent shooting guard," Sund said. Tarpley, a bit bewildered by all the trade rumors, said he would be happy to play for the Mavs. "Tve got to improve my upper

Johnson was a three-time All-Southeastern Conference seletion. Behind his leadership Alabama Behind reached the SEC tournament finals three times, made four straight trips to the NCAA tournament and was 85-43

Feitl averaged 11.5 points per Fitch also said Feitl could game and averaged 5.8 rebounds. verage in a possible trade.

Washington had acquired the 21st

pick in the trade that saw Malone

Denver, picking 16th and 18th, tried to bolster its backcourt and front line by taking guard Maurice Martin of St. Joseph's and forward Mark Alarie of Duke.

Other first-rounders included No. 9 Brad Sellers of Ohio State by Chi-and Catledge go to the Bullets.

He was named first team all-Western Athletic Conference in his senior year after leading the Miners in scoring and rebounding. He also had 40 blocks this season.

In his four years with the Miners, the team won four WAC titles.

"People who are successful in the Big Ten traditionally make the same strides in the NBA," Motta said. "I like him. He has a big body. I hope he causes me a big headache about how many minutes he plays."

Feitl could add to the team's tow-ering floor strategy, Fitch said. But Fitch also said Feitl could serve as le-pounds his freshman year, but John Williams, a 6-9 forward from weighs about 290 now. "It's a project pick, but we're very excited about it," he said. Louisiana State University, and Dell Curry, a 6-5 guard from Virginia traded to Cleveland for a second-round pick next year and future considerations. body strength and I'm going to go to work on it," Tarpley said. "I don't know anything about all the trade

Dallas took Louisville point guard Milt Wagner also in the second round.

Tech. The Spurs' veteran 7-2 center, Ar-Alvin Robertson at 6-4 is the team's big guard and is not a high scorer, Weiss said. tis Gilmore, will be 37 by the time the

"Dawkins is a smaller guard and can handle the ball and score for us," he said.

No. 19 Thompson by Atlanta, Buck Johnson of Alabama 20th by Hous-ton, No. 22 Scott Skiles of Michigan

State by Milwaukee and Barlow of Notre Dame 23rd by the Lakers.

cago, No. 10 Johnny Dawkins of cago, No. 10 Johnny Dawkins of Duke by San Antonio, No. 11 John Salley of Georgia Tech by Detroit, No. 13 Dwayne Washington by New Jersey, No. 15 Dell Curry of Virginia Tech by Utah, No. 17 Harold Pressley of Villanova by Sacramento, ふ

"Double Tree leaves you room to grow" 693-3232 1901 W. Holleman - Obb 2818

off

mfg.

EXP. 7/1/86

list

RELEASE

...such as: Peter Gabriel-Genesis-The Cure-Jimmy Buffett-Bronski Beat Bob James and David Sanborn-Little River Band-Kim Carnes-Georg Strait-Shadowfax-Yellow Jackets-etc.

MUSIC EXPRESS

898/998 LIST ONLY; COUPON NEEDED TO REDEEM CLIP AND

Turn A New Leaf

At

OUBL

×=....

