Aggies Kerr, Florence win world junior track action

ATHENS, Greece — Texas A&M printers Stanley Kerr and Derrick forence took turns at first and second place in their events at the first World Junior Track and Field Championships this past weekend. On Thursday Florence, who owns the U.S. national high school 100-meter dash record with a time of 10.13 seconds, outran Kerr to the tape in the 100 with a time of 10.17. Kerr clocked a 10.23 for second

Kerr had been the pre-race favor-ite for the 100 and last month ran a 10.10 to break Carl Lewis' Junior Nationals record.

"I wasn't expecting to win," Flor-ence, who will be a freshman at A&M this fall, said after the race. "I wasn't in good shape. I just went out and anticipated to finish second. I'd given Stanley the win."

But Saturday the two switched finishes in the 200, as Kerr, who will be a sophomore this fall, won with a 20.74 to Florence's 21.12.

"I'm delighted at the United States double," Kerr said Saturday. "I didn't want a rematch of last time because me and Florence are

The pair also ran the 400-meter relay Sunday, with Florence running the second leg and Kerr anchoring the U.S. squad. But the runners' good fortunes didn't last, as the United States, after finishing second to Britain, was disqualified because Kerr ran out of his lane.

The American junior 1,600-meter relay team set a new world record Sunday with a time of 3 minutes,

One of the runners of the recordsetting U.S. squad, was Columbus' Percy Waddle, who has signed a football scholarship agreement with A&M and is expected to also run track for the Aggies.

The United States earned 13 medals in the five-day, 19-and-under competition for third place. East Germany and the Soviet Union each

A&M falls in semifinals

By Homer Jacobs

The Texas A&M Rugby team reached the semifinals of the 10th annual Summer Sevens 1986 Rugby tournament Saturday before falling to a San Antonio club team 16-12 in sudden death overtime.

In front of an enthusiastic crowd, the Aggies took an undefeated re-cord of 6-0 into the semifinal showdown. A&M earned the right to meet San Antonio after winning its bracket and crushing a wildcard-en-tered SMU squad, 26-0 in the quar-

The A&M-San Antonio game was seesaw battle from start to finish. The Aggies capitalized first when speedster Mike Livergood streaked into the try zone for the score after an inbound play. The two-point kick after the score was good and A&M

San Antonio scored twice before the seven-minute half was up to grab the lead at 12-6.

Midway through the second half, the Aggies managed to tie the con-test after captain Tim Cone muscled his way into the try zone. The kick was again converted to even the

Neither team could muster another score in regulation play to send the game into overtime

Fatigue proved to be the deciding factor in the game with San Anto-nio's endurance holding up better in the 96-degree temperature. Five minutes into the overtime, San Antonio scored and gained a berth into the finals against a club team from

Cone agreed with most of the spectators that the game was an enjoyable and grueling one.

"This was definitely one of the better games of the tournament," he said. "We kind of tore up San Antonio for the last game.'

The dragging San Antonio team never recovered from the A&M game as the Austin club team shut it out 12-0 to win the championship.

The action was fast and furious Saturday on the A&M polo fields for the Summer Sevens Rugby tourney. A&M lost in the semifinals.

But Cone was not disheartened by the outcome of the tournament, as both Austin and San Antonio had rosters padded with A&M former

The Old Maroon team, made up entirely of former students, did not qualify for the eight-team playoff

The performance of collegiate Rugby teams, with SMU, the University of Texas-Arlington and A&M all gaining spots in the final eight of the tournament, also pleased Cone.

Cowboys provide armchair view of practice

THOUSAND OAKS, Calif. (AP. They call from Brooklyn, N.Y. and Vermont and West Virginia with questions while they watch the Dallas Cowboys' practice sessions —

Through the wonder of satellite communications, fans of the NFL team can watch while Coach Tom Landry throws a shoulder into a linebacker to teach him the proper techniques.

Viewers can see defensive tackle Randy White knock down two offensive linemen then swat a running back to the ground. They can see fullback Timmy Newsome trample linebacker Eugene Lockhart.

Walt in West Virginia wants to know who is going to call the plays for the Cowboys this year.

"It's the most fun thing I've ever done," said Brandt, who served as color commentator until club President Tex Schramm could return from the trial of an antitrust suit involving the United States Football League. "It's really something."

Dallas signs No. 2 draft pick

THOUSAND OAKS, Calif. (AP) — Running back Darryl Clack, a second-round draft pick from Arizona State, signed a four-year contract Monday with the Dallas Cowboys and said his two-week absence from training camp shouldn't hurt. "I'm concerned about missing camp and it will take a lot of extra work on my part," Clack said. "But I don't think I missed a lot."

Clack worked in the off-season in Dallas with offensive coordinator Paul Hackett. "The time I spent in Dallas will to see how the offense worked. And I've had a playbook with Joe Bailey, the club executive who negotiates contracts, said the club could now concentrate on signing their No. 1 pick, wide re-ceiver Mike Sherrard.

Clack said he was happy with his contract, estimated to be worth $250,000 per year, and didn't expect to be an immediate

"I just want to help this team and I think I can," he said. "I love this offense with more emphasis help," Clack said. "I had a chance on passing.

"Well, the Cowboys have done it again," he said. "I'm sitting here watching the Seahawks practice on the field and watching you guys practice on television. Asked how he liked the thought of rival NFL teams watching his practice sessions, Landry said, "Well, that's progress, I guess.

"I have mixed emotions about it but I guess it's a good PR thing. It's great for the fans," he said.

What does Landry do if he wants to work on some trick plays and new offenses?

"Oh, we'll put it in during the morning," he quipped.
"We try to be careful in that regard and not televise anything we shouldn't," Schramm said.

The Cowboys, who work out twice daily, are telecast only in the afternoons under the catchy title "Ticket to Training Camp." The program features a roving reporter, Karl Suchman, who interviews ev-medicine balls to the team trainer. 'We've had calls from 15 states in the first week," Suchman said. "The response has been unbelievable.

Lawyer, judge to meet again over Mets case

HOUSTON (AP) - An attorney representing four New York Mets who were arrested over a weekend scuffle said he will meet with a judge again after a meeting Monday was fruitless.

"We met and didn't get anything settled," attorney Dick DeGuerin of Houston said about his meeting with State District Judge Joe Kegans. Another meeting is scheduled for today, he said.

DeGuerin is meeting with Ms. Kegans to schedule an examining trial for Mets' pitcher Ron Darling and second baseman Tim Teufel. De-Guerin has said the judge has agreed to schedule the trial around the players' baseball season.

DeGuerin says the incident, involving the early Saturday arrests of Darling, Teufel and pitchers Bob Ojeda and Rick Aguilera, "would not have happened anywhere but Houston.

"I may be cynical about some Houston police officers, but they certainly don't teach common courtesy at the Houston Police Depart-ment." he said after a probable cause hearing Sunday.

The players were arrested outside Houston nightclub following the Mets loss to the Astros Friday night. Darling, who was Friday's losing pitcher, and Teufel were charged with assaulting a police officer while the other two were charged with hin-dering arrest. All four spent the night in jail before being released on bond Saturday afternoon.

A hearing for Ojeda and Aguilera is tentatively scheduled for Friday, DeGuerin said.
