

Mandlikova upset in U.S. Open

NEW YORK (AP) — Wendy Turnbull of Australia pulled off one of the biggest shocks of the U.S. Open Tennis Championships Monday night, ousting defending women's champion Hana Mandlikova 6-4, 1-6, 6-3.

The victory sends the 33-year-old Turnbull, the oldest player left in the singles competition, into a quarterfinal matchup against seventh-seeded Helena Sukova of Czechoslovakia.

"I guess when you're over 30 people start writing you off," Turnbull, who is playing in her 10th U.S. Open, said. In 1977, she was runner-up to Chris Evert Lloyd and has been a semifinalist twice, the last time two years ago.

Earlier in the day, the two top seeds, Ivan Lendl and Martina Navratilova, rolled into the quarterfinals with straight-set victories.

Lendl, defending the title he won last year, moved into high gear in the second set as he eliminated 15th-seeded Brad Gilbert 7-5, 6-1, 6-2.

Seeking her third U.S. Open women's singles crown in four years, Navratilova crushed Argentina's Gabriela Sabatini, the No. 11 seed, 6-4, 6-2.

In other men's matches Monday, No. 4 Stefan Edberg of Sweden gained a quarterfinal berth by stopping Dan Goldie 6-3, 6-2, 6-2, while Tim Wilkison eliminated Andrei Chesnokov of the Soviet Union 6-0, 6-2, 6-3.

In the women's singles, No. 5 Pam Shriver, Navratilova's doubles partner, also won in straight sets, downing No. 15 Kathy Jordan 6-4, 6-4. The victory pits the close friends against each other in Tuesday's quarterfinals.

"Martina's always there when I'm here," Shriver said of the quarterfinals. "We just go together."

All of the other women's winners, including Lloyd, a six-time winner of America's premier tennis event who is seeded second this year, had to go three sets to post victories.

Lloyd outlasted No. 14 Catarina Lindqvist of Sweden 6-2, 2-6, 6-2; No. 9 Manuela Maleeva of Bulgaria nipped No. 6 Claudia Kohde-Kilsch of West Germany 6-2, 2-6, 7-6; No. 3 Steffi Graf of West Germany defeated Italy's Raffaella Reggi 6-1, 3-6, 6-0; No. 8 Bonnie Gadusek stopped No. 13 Stephanie Rehe 7-6, 4-6, 6-2; and No. 7 Sukova of Czechoslovakia downed No. 12 Zina Garrison 6-4, 2-6, 6-4.

Besides the Navratilova-Shriver and Turnbull-Sukova matchups, other quarterfinal pairings send Graf against Gadusek and Maleeva against Lloyd.

It was the earliest a defending women's singles champion has been ousted from the U.S. Open since Julie Heldman upset Billie Jean King in the third round in 1973.

Turnbull said that in the second set "I started to feel kind of tired. That's the kind of player Hana is. I let her have an inch and she took the whole second set."

But the third set was different as Turnbull, who has never won a Grand Slam singles title, kept up the pressure by chipping and charging at every opportunity.

"She was tightening up (in the third set)," Turnbull said of her Czechoslovak opponent. "I wasn't tightening up. At least I was going for my shots."

Jackson ready to pursue 'Royal' life

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Bo Jackson officially became a major leaguer Monday, saying he's "ecstatic" with his baseball progress and tired of talking about football.

"Football is out of the question," said the muscular outfielder, held out of Monday night's game because of a pulled hamstring. Jackson picked most of the sports world this summer when he spurned a $7 million offer from the National Football League's Tampa Bay Buccaneers to sign with the Royals, who gambled by picking him in the fourth round of baseball's draft in June.

He was the No. 1 overall pick in the NFL draft after rushing for more than 1,500 yards and winning the Heisman Trophy in his senior year at Auburn.

"I'm through with football forever. I don't know why I have to keep being questioned about football," he said.

After a slow start, the right-handed hitter batted .277 with seven home runs and 25 runs batted in in 53 games at Class AA Memphis of the Southern League. He was one of four minor leaguers recalled by the Royals Monday when major-league rosters could expand to 40 players.

He said he had no idea when he would be ready to play with the Royals.

"I'm not going out there until I'm 100 percent," he said. "I do know that when I'm ready, I'll be playing somewhere."

Royals interim manager Mike Ferraro said he would put Jackson into the lineup "as soon as he tells me he's ready."

"Bo will know before anybody else, and I'll just wait for him to tell me," Ferraro said. "He might play in the outfield some and we might put him at designated hitter some. But he won't be out there until he feels he's ready."

After signing for a $200,000 bonus in June, Jackson left many observers slack-jawed with the towering home runs he hit in a week of batting practice in Royals Stadium. He had only four hits in his first 45 at-bats at Memphis, but batted .338 over the rest of the season.

"I think I can play this game," he said Monday. "I'm ecstatic with my progress. I went down there to get in the swing of things, and by the end of the season it felt like I came on pretty strong."

He said he never felt frustrated with the weak start.

"I always get off to a slow start. I did every year in college," Jackson, who also played baseball at Auburn, said. "I knew it was going to take me a while to get going. All it took was patience. You get up and see the ball. You take your hacks. There were no surprises."

Defense leads Maryland past Pitt

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Dan Plocki kicked a 29-yard field goal with 2:10 to play and Maryland rode a dominating defense to a 10-7 college football victory Monday night over Pittsburgh, ruining the debut of Pitt Coach Mike Gottfried.

Pitt drove to the Maryland 38 in the final minute. But quarterback John Congemi, who completed 23 of 45 passes for 258 yards, was dropped for a nine-yard loss on a third down-play and threw a fourth-down incompletion to turn the ball back over to the Terps.

The loss continued a string of frustration for Gottfried, who also failed to win in his first game in three previous coaching assignments.

Congemi, contained for 3½ quarters by a big-play Maryland defense, rifled a 32-yard scoring pass to Reggie Williams on a second-and-15 play with 5:12 to go to rally Pitt to a 7-7 tie.

Pitt had failed to score in the first half despite a 13½-minute edge in time of possession, as junior kicker Mark Brasco missed field goal attempts of 41, 29 and 53 yards.

Tommy Neal, who had given Maryland a 7-0 lead with a 1-yard scoring dive midway through the third quarter, had runs of 14 and five yards, and Dan Henning hit Ferrell Edmunds for 13 yards and Azizuddin Abdur-Ra'ouf for 15 to set up Plocki's winning kick.

Henning, playing his first game as a college quarterback, hooked up with Vernon Joines on a 24-yard completion on a third-and-6 play to the Pitt 1. Neal leaped into the end zone two plays later, with 2:15 to play in the third quarter.

Houston cuts two veterans

HOUSTON (AP) — The Houston Oilers cut veteran defensive end Jesse Baker, defensive tackle Mike Stensrud and two other players to trim the roster to the NFL limit of 45, a team spokesman said Monday.

Both Baker and Stensrud have played for the Oilers for seven years, said spokesman Chip Namias.

Also waived were running back Stan Edwards, who saw action with the Oilers for the past three years, and defensive tackle Lynn Madsin, who had played for two seasons with the New Jersey Generals of the USFL.

Cowboys cut four players

IRVING (AP) — Max Zendejas, who had hoped to unseat veteran Rafael Septien as the Dallas Cowboys' kicker, was cut today, a team spokesman said.

The Cowboys also placed linebacker Chris Duliban, a 12th-round pick from the University of Texas, on injured reserve, and cut three other players, said spokesman Doug Todd.

Duliban reinjured the shoulder Saturday night during the Cowboys' 17-14 loss to the Houston Oilers.

Also cut were linebacker Garth Jax, an 11th-round draft choice from Florida State; defensive lineman Kurt Ploeger, a 1985 sixth-round pick from Gustavus Adolphus; and defensive lineman Bob Otto, a free agent.

A&M offense

(continued from page 6)

threat as well as a valuable pass receiver.

Vick, touted as a preseason All-America by Playboy at the fullback spot, is confident he'll find the gaping holes that often opened for him last season.

"I feel very comfortable about the guys up front," Vick said.

In an offense geared to throw first and run second, the Aggies will depend on senior Shea Walker at wide receiver.

Walker's philosophy is that any good team has to expand on its offense, and the Aggies are no different.

"I think with the people returning this year, we'll (the offense) be better than last year," Walker said.

At the other flanker spot, Rod Harris and Tony Thompson are expected to provide the speed in the multi-faceted offense.

A new wrinkle in the offense may come with the emergence of tight end Rod Bernstine. With a solid Cotton Bowl performance in his pocket, Bernstine is looking forward to bigger and better things.

A&M defense

(continued from page 6)

40-yard dash) will inherit the strong safety position.

Terrance Brooks started at cornerback last season until he dislocated his kneecap in the Baylor game but he's healthy again and will play along with Jeff Holley and James Flowers, Sherrill said.

Backup quarterback Craig Stump has taken over the starting punter job from Todd Tschantz because Tschantz was unable to work out in "The Cotton Bowl game was a big moral boost for me," Bernstine said. "And we've been throwing to the tight end more."

Sherrill said Scott Slater will handle the kickoff duty for the Aggies, but was unsure whether freshman Layne Talbot or Slater would do the placekicking chores. Eric Franklin, who has a stress fracture in his foot, is uncertain at the moment.

Only time will tell if the Aggies can return to the Cotton Bowl.

But the Aggies are in no hurry. Tomorrow's just another day at the office.

ROTHER'S BOOKSTORES
Open Late to Serve You
340 Jersey (across from Univ. Police) 901 Harvey (Woodstone Center)

ROTHER'S BOOKSTORES
Your Complete Greek Headquarters
340 Jersey (across from Univ. Police) 901 Harvey (Woodstone Center)

ROTHER'S BOOKSTORES
Custom Silk Screening Specialists
340 Jersey (across from Univ. Police) 901 Harvey (Woodstone Center)

ROTHER'S BOOKSTORES
Complete Line of Used Books
340 Jersey (across from Univ. Police) 901 Harvey (Woodstone Center)

MSC PRINT 'N' COPY
MSC PRINT 'N' COPY
MSC PRINT 'N' COPY

MSC, SECOND FLOOR, ROOM 221D

USE THE DIRECTORS OFFICE OR STUDENT PROGRAMS OFFICE DOOR.

XEROX COPYING	CUTTING
COLLATING	FOLDING
STAPLING	PADDING
REDUCTIONS	DOOR CARDS
ENLARGEMENTS	BUTTONS
SPIRAL BINDING	KROY LETTERING
OFFSET PRINTING

HOURS: MON. - FRI. 8:00 - 6:00

845-7294

FILM DEVELOPING SPECIAL

99¢***

-C-41 Color Print Film Only-
Good on orders for one print each negative.

*STANDARD 3½ x 5 size $ .99
SUPER 4 x 6 size $ 1.99

Offer good SEPTEMBER 1 thru 8
PHOTOGRAPHIC SERVICES AT GOODWIN HALL
&
TEXAS A&M BOOKSTORE IN THE MSC

CHANELLO'S PIZZA DELIVERS

NORTH 846-3768
Campus, N&E of Campus, Westwood, La Brisa

SOUTH 696-0234
South of campus, S.W. Pkwy, Hwy 30, Emerald Forest/Raintree, Southwood Valley

CHANELLO'S

Order two 12" pizzas and the one of equal or lesser value will cost only .....$3!

-OR-

Order two 16" pizzas and the one of equal or lesser value will cost only .....$4!

-OR-

Order two 20" pizzas and the one of equal or lesser value will cost only .....$5!

Coupon includes appropriate taxes. Not valid with any other special offer.
VOID 10 Sept. 86

JOIN US FOR AN EXCITING EXPERIENCE!

Community Singers

1986-87 SEASON

Sept. 2, 4, 9, 11	Auditions - A&M United Methodist Church
4:00 - 8:00 PM
Sept. 8 - Monday	First Rehearsal - Brazos Center
7:30 PM
Sept. 15 - Monday	7:00 PM Music Training
(and every Monday)	7:30 PM Rehearsal
	SHOWCASE OF TEXAS COMPOSERS: Dede Duson, Jane Marshall, Lloyd Pfautsch
Nov. 21 - Friday	Open workshop with composers - Brazos Center
7:30 PM
Nov. 22 - Saturday	Rehearsal - First Presbyterian Church
9:30 AM	Concert - First Presbyterian Church
8:00 PM
Mar. 12 - Thursday	THE THREE B's PLUS Concert - Brazos Center
	(Bach, Beethoven, Brahms and others)
May 15 - Friday	LULLABY OF BROADWAY Dinner Concert - Hilton

SEASON TICKETS $30.00

CHRISTY DYER, DIRECTOR

For more information call Nan Fryor at 774-4411

FARMERS MARKET

within walking distance of Texas A&M

FREE DELIVERY (with $4 minimum order)

AND FRESH PASTRIES

From our Bakery Kolaches and Pastries
OPEN DAILY 9:30a.m.-11p.m.

WEEKLY SPECIALS ON SPAGHETTI and SANDWICHES

DELIVERY 11a.m.-11p.m. 846-6428
329 Univ. (Northgate)