Evert Lloyd, Lendl reach semis

NEW YORK (AP) — Chris Evert Lloyd streaked into the semifinals of the U.S. Open tennis championships for the 16th consecutive year Wednesday, and defending champion Ivan Lendl made it to the men's semifinals.

Lloyd brushed aside ninth-seeded Manuela Maleeva of Bulgaria 6-2, 6-2.

The six-time winner of this Grand Slam event, the second-seeded Lloyd will play the winner of Wednesday's second women's quarterfinal match between No. 7 Helena Sukova of Czechoslovakia and Australia's Wendy Turnbull.

The other semifinal will send top-seeded Martina Navratilova against No. 3 Steffi Graf of West Germany.

Earlier in the day, Lendl became the first to gain a berth in the men's semifinals with a 7-6, 6-1, 1-6, 6-1 win over No. 8 Henri Leconte of France.

The top-seeded Czech, ranked No. 1 in the world, will next take on the winner of Wednesday night's match between No. 4 Stefan Edberg of Sweden and the lone American to reach the quarterfinals, Tim Wilkison of Asheville, N.C.

"I feel more relaxed," said Lloyd, who has never failed to reach the semifinal of the U.S. Open since her first appearance as a high school student in 1971. "This is the most relaxed I've ever felt in the Open. Usually I'm so tense when I drive out here. Maybe it's because I've been through it so many times.

"But I don't know if being so relaxed is good or bad. When I get on the court, though, I'm worked up for it."

Maleeva had no chance to relax when she took to the hard courts at the National Tennis Center against Lloyd. She dropped her service in the first and third games as the 31-year-old Lloyd raced out to a 3-0 lead.

Lloyd lost her service at 15 to her 19-year-old foe in the fourth game, but broke Maleeva again in the eighth game as she went on to win the opening set in 35 minutes.

In the second set, the two held their first service games, but Lloyd then ripped through the next two games to close out the victory.

Lendl, reaching the semifinals at Flushing Meadow for the 11th straight year, was not as dominant as the score would indicate. Henri Leconte who dictated the results.

The left-handed Frenchman alternately brilliant and erratic hit flashy winners or horrendous forced errors.

NCAA to suspend Nebraska players for ticket infractions

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — The NCAA has suspended 60 to 70 University of Nebraska football players for one game and seven others for two games, Cornhuskers Coach Tom Osborne said Wednesday.

Osborne told reporters after practice that the suspensions were ordered for what the NCAA said were improprieties in Nebraska's use of complimentary football tickets.

A Nebraska sports information office spokesman said the NCAA decision gave the eight-ranked Cornhuskers two options:

- All the players could sit out Saturday's game against 11th-ranked Florida State, which Osborne said would leave him with mainly freshmen and redshirt players to put on the field.

- Have 10 players sit out each of the next six or seven games.

Osborne said he learned of the suspensions from the NCAA's eligibility committee on Tuesday and he was "very angry about the whole thing."

The Associated Press was unable to reach NCAA spokesmen for comment.

Mavericks' Vincent sent to Bullets

DALLAS (AP) — Veteran forward Jay Vincent was traded Wednesday from the Dallas Mavericks to the Washington Bullets in exchange for a first-round draft choice in 1990.

Vincent, 6-7, who enters his sixth NBA season this fall, averaged 13.6 points per game and 4.6 rebounds for the Mavericks while playing behind Mark Aguirre.

"There is an element of anything you trade a proven commodity, but we feel for our fans we had to reach their full potential, we had to free up additional minutes there," said Dallas General Manager Norm Sonju.

Sonju said the club wanted to provide more playing time to Detlef Schrempf, Sam Perkins, Bill Wennington and rookie K. C. Jarvis.

"Even with the trading of D. Ellis last month (to Seattle) we had an abundance of forward minutes," Sonju said.

Vincent, 27, is the Mavericks' third all-time leading scorer, behind Aguirre and Rolando Blackman.

Saturday's matchups bowl-like

(AP) — The calendar says summer is still here but from the looks of Saturday's attractive college football schedule it could be Jan. 1 just as easily as Sept. 6.

Any bowl would be delighted with such matchups as No. 1 Oklahoma vs. No. 4 UCLA, No. 3 Miami vs. No. 13 Florida and No. 8 Nebraska vs. No. 11 Florida State.

Whatever happened to the days when teams would open against what prize fighters call an "opponent" — someone who might give you a workout for a while but turns out to be a guaranteed victory?

UCLA is the highest-ranked team the Sooners have faced in an opener since 1968 when they lost to No. 3 Notre Dame 45-21.

"We're a better football team than we were that day," joked Coach Barry Switzer, who was Oklahoma's offensive coordinator back then.

And for the second year in a row UCLA opens on the road against the defending national champion (the Bruins defeated Brigham Young 27-24 last season).

"The Oklahoma game is a big game nationally," says Coach Terry

Donahue, who was the defensive line coach at Kansas from 1967-70 (Oklahoma beat the Jayhawks in each of those four years but three of them were 4-point games). "It's an exciting event. The players want to play Oklahoma. I don't think we're any different than anybody else."

"But it's not going to be a national championship shootout for me. It might be for other people; it's not for me. I'd rather win a (Pac-10) conference game than a non-conference game."

Oklahoma, playing at home, is a 7-point favorite in this first meeting between the two schools.
