Man killed by cyanide in soup may have been murder victim

RUNNEMEDE, N.J. (AP) — A man who died from cyanide-laced Lipton Cup-A-Soup his mother bought to soothe his upset stomach could have been a random victim, but investigators also looked Thursday for someone out to get him or the store.

"Everybody at this point is a suspect," the county prosecutor said.

The death was the fourth from product tampering this year, but the first related to a food product since the wave of tamperings began with cyanide-filled Tylenol capsules in 1982.

Camden County Prosecutor Samuel Asbell said there was enough cyanide in the body of Louis Denber "to kill a horse" and the case is being investigated as a homicide. But he said no possibility has been ruled out.

Larry Hicks, a spokesman for the soup's maker, Thomas J. Lipton Inc., based in Englewood Cliffs, said, "It all points to a product tampering."

He and the prosecutor said the tampering appeared to be isolated and local, and did not appear to have occurred during the manufacture or company distribution of the chicken noodle soup.

Asbell described Denber, 27, as "basically a very easygoing individual" who worked as an electronics technician for RCA Corp. in Camden.

"He had no problems with his neighbors or his employer as far as we can tell," the prosecutor said.

There have been no calls claiming responsibility or making threats, nor "indication of any retribution against the store or the individual," Dennis Wixted, the first assistant county prosecutor, said.

Cyanide was found in the empty foil packet the victim's mother picked from a garbage can and brought to the prosecutor's office and in a second unopened packet in the box, Asbell said.

The box, purchased at the Shop'N'Bag store in this southern New Jersey suburb about 10 miles southeast of Philadelphia, had been punctured and the envelope sitting on the shelves of the store where Denber's was purchased, the U.S. Food and Drug Administration said. About 600 other boxes removed from the store were being tested.

No recall was ordered. However, Lipton pulled the soup from stores in the area and said area consumers could return the products for refunds. The New Jersey Health Department told county residents not to use or buy Cup-A-Soup.

Gadhafi vows terrorism to defeat U.S. 'empire'

HARARE, Zimbabwe (AP) — Libyan leader Moammar Gadhafi on Thursday denounced fellow members of the non-aligned movement as puppets and vowed to "undertake all types of terrorist acts" to defeat the United States.

Delegates to the non-aligned summit sat in stunned silence as Gadhafi described their organization as useless and an "international farce."

Gadhafi paused twice during his 75-minute speech to allow four young Libyan women in battle fatigues to chant "Down, down U.S.A."

Zimbabwean Prime Minister Robert Mugabe, who will head the movement for the next three years, delivered a careful response, saying "not all of us would agree" with Gadhafi.

Delegations from the Ivory Coast, Cameroon and Zaire issued protests after Gadhafi called their countries "puppets" because they have ties with Libya's arch-enemy, Israel.

Gadhafi said the movement did not do enough to support Libya after the United States bombed two Libyan cities April 15. President Reagan has said the attack was in retaliation for Gadhafi's alleged support of international terrorism.

Gadhafi threatened to withdraw from the movement unless all of its members severed diplomatic ties with the United States and Britain, which allowed U.S. warplanes to use its bases for the attack.

"I want to say goodbye, farewell to this funny movement, to this fallacy — farewell to this utter falsehood," Gadhafi said. Asked after the speech whether that meant Libya had left the movement, Gadhafi said: "Not yet."

Gadhafi vowed to defeat the United States.

"I shall counter it with an international army. I shall undertake then all types of terrorist acts . . . I shall not leave any stone unturned in the war to defeat this (American) empire," Gadhafi said.

He claimed Libya was under siege by 50 U.S. warships off its coast and tens of thousands of U.S. troops.

"This will never make Libya stop from the continuation of the battle of freedom and liberation," Gadhafi said.

Gadhafi has overshadowed the meeting since he arrived Monday with hundreds of bodyguards who were disarmed by Zimbabwean officials.

Gadhafi was widely seen as having distracted delegates from the issue of South Africa which Mugabe hopes will dominate the rest of the summit.

After his speech, Gadhafi, followed by photographers, strode through corridors at the conference center to meet with President Ali Khameini of Iran, President Fidel Castro of Cuba and President Daniel Ortega of Nicaragua.

The leaders of Zaire, Cameroon and Ivory Coast issued a joint statement, expressing "profound indignation and disdain at this senseless declaration of Col. Gadhafi."

Romanian immigrants seek asylum

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Romanian family sent Capitol police scrambling Thursday when they approached guards and asked for political asylum. It turned out they apparently have been living legally in California for four years.

The episode took a more bizarre twist when an official disclosed the family complained of being bombarded in their home by some sort of radiation.

The family of nine turned themselves over to U.S. Capitol police, complete with 20 pieces of luggage, and officials initially treated the matter as a defection, contacting the State Department and immigration officials.

Several hours after the incident started unfolding, the family was still at Capitol police headquarters and it was unclear what was to become of them.
