SWC freshman coaches have winning debuts

(AP) — Rice's Jerry Berndt and Texas Tech's David McWilliams made their Southwest Conference football coaching debuts happy ones.

Berndt, who was a highly successful coach at the University of Pennsylvania in the Ivy League, guided his Owls to a 28-14 victory over Ray Alborn-coached Lamar University of the Southland Conference.

McWilliams, a former defensive coordinator under Fred Akers at the University of Texas, saw his Red Raiders overcome a 7-6 halftime deficit to crush Kansas State 41-7.

The opening weekend provided a close call for the 12th-ranked Baylor Bears, one of the SWC preseason favorites. The Bears held on to outlast Wyoming 31-28 in a wild game at Laramie.

In the only other game involving an SWC team, Arizona State crushed the University of Houston 37-3. A rain-drenched crowd of some 10,000 watched Rice win its first opener since 1977.

"We outmanned them as we went along and that's kind of strange happening to Rice isn't it?" Berndt said.

McWilliams was delighted to the way the Red Raiders responded to his halftime pep talk.

"They didn't let the first half get 'em down," McWilliams said. "I'm proud of them. I'm just glad they weren't as nervous as I was. I have a great feeling inside. I've been waiting for this game since Dec. 5 (the day he took over from the fired Jerry Moore.)"

McWilliams said quarterback Billy Joe Tolliver bounced back from a rough start.

"Billy Joe wouldn't get down and kept firing the ball," McWilliams said. "He showed a lot of poise."

The Red Raiders will need poise next week when they go on the road to meet powerful Miami.

"It gives us a chance to be 2-0," said McWilliams, who received the game ball.

Baylor's defense collapsed at times against the Cowboys, but safety Thomas Everett returned an intercepted pass 40 yards for a touchdown. He also had another interception and caused a critical fumble late in the game with a big hit.

"Everett was great," said Teaff. "He was definitely All-America caliber."

Teaff said the 7,200-foot altitude may have bothered his Bears more than he thought it would.

"The altitude bothered us some but not as much as Wyoming's offense," Teaff said.

Astros down Cards to add to NL lead

HOUSTON (AP) — The Houston Astros' confidence is growing as their lead in the National League West increases, Jim Pankovits says.

"We're feeling real confident now. They will have to play big-time catchup to catch us," Pankovits said after getting the game-winning RBI in Houston's 6-3 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals Sunday.

The victory increased Houston's lead in the NL West to eight games over the Cincinnati Reds with 26 games to play. The Reds open a two-game series in Houston tonight.

"It's only a two-game series and we're up by eight, even if they beat us twice, we're still up by six and we've been a lot closer than that," Houston's Denny Walling said.

"The Mets will definitely be there. We can't worry about them now. It's Cincinnati we have to worry about," Davey Lopes said.

Pankovits' game-winning RBI came in the sixth with the bases loaded and one out. Pankovits grounded to Ozzie Smith who forced Dickie Thon at second, but the Cardinals couldn't turn the double play and allowed Kevin Bass to score from third.

"I was lucky I didn't hit it hard enough to get the double play. If those guys can't get a double play, nobody can," Pankovits said.

Bass had two hits besides scoring the winning run.

Trailing 3-1, the Astros tied the score on Lopes' two-run single in the fifth inning, then broke a 3-3 tie in the sixth. Bass doubled, Alan Ashby walked and Dickie Thon singled to load the bases with one out. Pankovits hit a grounder to shortstop to score Bass with the go-ahead run and chase Cardinals starter Greg Mathews, 10-5.

Reliever Greg Bargar came on and hit Billy Hatcher with a pitch to reload the bases, and Bill Doran followed with an RBI single. Houston added a run in the seventh when Glenn Davis tripled and scored on Bargar's wild pitch.

Danny Darwin worked the first five innings for Houston, allowing three runs on six hits, and Jeff Calhoun earned the victory with one inning of relief. Dave Smith got the final three outs for his 29th save. The victory was the first for Calhoun since Sept. 15, 1985.

St. Louis scored once in the first and again in the second on Terry Pendleton's RBI single and Mathews' run-scoring grounder.

Phil Garner's ninth home run in the fourth pulled Houston within a run but the Cardinals made it 3-1 in the fifth on Andy Van Slyke's RBI single.

Royals drop Rangers

ARLINGTON (AP) — Angel Salazar drove in three runs, including a two-run double that broke a sixth-inning tie, and Danny Jackson scattered eight hits Sunday night as the Kansas City Royals beat the Texas Rangers 5-2.

The loss dropped second-place Texas 7½ games behind California in the American League West.

Jackson, 10-10, struck out six in his second complete game of the season. Charlie Hough, 12-9, had his three-game winning streak ended.

Salazar, who also had an RBI single, left the game after straining his knee while running out his double. Frank White homered for Kansas City, his 19th of the season and sixth against the Rangers this year.

Ruben Sierra drove in both Texas runs, one with his 11th home run and second in two nights.

The Royals took a 1-0 lead in the first when Lonnie Smith led off with a single, went to second on Jorge Orta's single, to third on a groundout and scored on Hough's wild pitch.

Texas tied it in the bottom of the first on singles by Scott Fletcher and Pete O'Brien and Sierra's sacrifice fly.

Mike Kingery's bloop triple and Salazar's single made it 2-1 in the second and Sierra tied it in the fourth with his home run.
